

ALMOND BOARD OF CALIFORNIA
INSTRUCTIONS FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE DIRECT VERIFIABLE (DV) PROGRAM
FOR FURTHER PROCESSING OF UNTREATED ALMONDS

Pursuant to § 981.42 of the almond marketing order - 7 CFR Part 981, and as specified in § 981.442(b) of the marketing order's regulations, handlers shall subject their almonds to a treatment process or processes that have been determined to achieve in total a minimum 4-log reduction of Salmonella bacteria. Handlers may treat the almonds prior to shipment, ship the almonds under the DV program to approved manufacturers (DV Users) who treat the almonds accordingly before the almonds are moved into consumer channels,¹ or ship untreated almonds outside of the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Handlers must label each container of untreated almonds with the term "unpasteurized." The Almond Board of California (Board or ABC) locally administers the marketing order, with oversight by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

All Applicants Must Meet the Following Criteria:

1. Receive almonds directly² from a handler or from another DV user as specified below:
2. Subject such almonds to a treatment process or processes using a technology that has been determined to achieve in total a minimum 4-log reduction in Salmonella, pursuant to a letter of determination issued by the Food and Drug Administration, accepted by a scientific review panel as identified by the Board, or as established by a Board-approved process authority;
3. Have a documented product traceability program in place that tracks the receipt and processing of almonds by such DV User;
4. Identify the manufacturing locations where treatment will occur or the warehouses where raw almonds will be stored by the manufacturer operating under the DV program – handlers may only ship to those specific approved locations;
5. DV Users must provide documentation that their treatment technologies and equipment have been validated by a process authority approved by the Board. Treatment technology and equipment that have been modified to the point where operating parameters such as time, temperature, or volume change, must be revalidated;
6. Any almonds which will not be treated must be returned to a handler, shipped to another DV User approved by the Board, shipped to locations outside the United States, Canada, and Mexico (containers must remain labeled as "unpasteurized"), or disposed of in non-edible channels;
7. Provide for audit by a Board-approved DV auditor; and
8. Maintain all records regarding validation and verification of the treatment method, processing, and product traceability. Such records shall be retained for two years, and will be made available for review by the Board or its agent.

Procedures for Shipping to Approved DV Users:

1. Handlers must obtain a DV User code, issued by the Board, confirming that the DV User agrees to all the requirements specified in the application prior to shipping untreated almonds directly to DV user facilities;
2. Handlers must include the Board-issued DV User code on documentation that accompanies the lot, (e.g. shipping documentation) to provide traceability from the handler to the DV User and a basis for inspection. Handler records must be maintained for two years; and
3. Handlers must only ship directly to the approved locations – lots cannot be shipped to a third party, or delivered to a different location than those approved in the DV application.
4. Handlers must identify each container of almonds shipped to a DV user with the term "unpasteurized." The lettering must be on one outside principal display panel, at least ½ inch in height, clear and legible.
