The Department of Justice's greatest asset is its dynamic and diverse workforce, and we welcome and encourage qualified individuals with disabilities, including individuals with targeted disabilities, to apply for employment. The Department of Justice is firmly committed to satisfying its affirmative obligations under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 to ensure that persons with disabilities have equal opportunity to be hired and advanced on the basis of merit.
Self-identification of disability status will be used solely in accordance with the provisions of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (Pub, L. 110-325)(ADAAA), and 29 C.F.R. Part 1630. The following disability disclosures will be kept confidential and will not be reflected on your application, nor be disclosed to reviewers as a part of the standard review and selection process but will be used for statistical and reporting purposes only.
Do you:
(1) have a physical impairment or mental impairment (psychiatric disability) that substantially limits one or more of your major life activities as defined by 29 C.F.R. § 1630.2(i);
(2) have a record of such impairment; or
(3) are regarded as having such an impairment as defined by 29 C.F.R. § 1630.2(i).
