Body Text

Use this form to request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). Deferred action is the temporary suspension of removal proceedings for an individual as an act of prosecutorial discretion.

Anyone who receives deferred action will not be placed into removal proceedings or removed from the United States if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) chooses to terminate the deferral. USCIS considers deferring action (including DACA) on a case-by-case basis.

Requesters filing Form I-821D must also file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765 with paper Form I-765WS and upload the completed copy with your application.

Learn more about DACA.

You may file online only if you are submitting a renewal request. If you are submitting an initial request, you must file a paper Form I-821D.

(delete)

You may be considered for renewal of DACA if you meet all the requirements for initial DACA and:

- Did not depart the United States on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since you submitted your most recent request for DACA that was granted;
- Have not been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to public safety.
- (delete)

We may consider deferring action in your case even if you have been arrested or detained by ICE, even if criminal charges were filed, or if charges were filed against you without an arrest. We will evaluate the facts of your case before reaching a decision on deferred action. If we determine that you have been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors not occurring on the same date and not arising out of the same act, or if you otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety, we are unlikely to defer your removal proceedings.

CAUTION: If you file this request more than 150 days prior to the expiration of your current period of deferred action, we may reject your submission and return it to you with instructions to resubmit your request closer to the expiration date. Renewal requestors to file as early in the 150-day period as possible - ideally, at least 120 days before the expiration date.

If you are currently in immigration detention, you may not request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals. If you do not meet the guidelines of this process, you should identify yourself to your deportation office.

Note: You must submit this form with Form I-765 online. We will add Form I-765 for you to complete after you sign and upload the completed copy.

Fee: $0. All requesters must pay a $410 filing fee for Form I-765 and a $85 biometric services fee. Once you complete both forms, pay all fees and submit both forms.

(delete)

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center (toll-free, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, for those who are deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

At the end of your request, we will highlight certain documents that you should provide with your request for DACA. These documents include the evidence and supporting documentation listed. Refer to uscis.gov/i-821d if you need additional information about evidence and supporting documentation.

Individuals requesting DACA must submit biometrics. You may receive a notice scheduling you to appear at an appointment for biometric collection. Failure to comply with the notice may result in the denial of your deferred action request. USCIS may, in some cases, require you to provide biometrics.

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check for new messages from USCIS.

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI) through your documents through your USCIS account.

We will review your request to determine whether the exercise of prosecutorial discretion is appropriate in your case on a case-by-case basis. Even if you satisfy the threshold criteria for consideration of DACA, we may determine that deferred action is not appropriate. You will be notified of the decision in writing. There is no motion to reopen/reconsider the decision and there is no right to appeal.

Submitting your request online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online request.

We encourage you to provide complete responses. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the processing of your request.

We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section. Your information will be saved for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on the form.

After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to determine if you should be allowed to enter the United States for your arrival. The information you provide will be used in making a decision whether to defer removal action in your case.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information or providing false information may result in denial of your form.

ROUTINE USES: The information you provide on this form may be shared with other federal, state, local, and foreign organizations following approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System, DHS/USCIS-008 - Tracking System and DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System] and the published privacy impact assessments [DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System, DHS/USCIS-008 - Tracking System, DHS/USCIS-009 - Document Management Program (IDDMP), DHS/USCIS/PIA-016a Computer Linked Application Information Management System, DHS/USCIS/PIA-056 USCIS Electronic Immigration System] which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy.

This information may be shared with security and law enforcement agencies, including ICE and CBP, for purposes other than removal, including for assisting in the identification of individuals who are in the United States on a childhood arrivals request itself, to identify or prevent fraudulent claims, for national security purposes, or for the identification of individuals who are in the United States on a childhood arrivals request. The above information sharing clause covers family members and guardians, in addition to the requestor. This policy is not intended to be relied upon to create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by any party in any administrative proceeding.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 2.5 hours per response, including reviewing instructions and completing and submitting the form. Body Text

Use this form to request that USCIS exercise prosecutorial discretion in your favor under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) process. You may also use this form to request renewal of deferred action.

Anyone who receives deferred action will not be placed into removal proceedings or removed from the United States for a specified period of time, unless the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) chooses to terminate the deferral. USCIS considers deferring action (including renewal of deferred action) on a case-by-case basis.

Requesters filing Form I-821D must also file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765 Worksheet, Form I-765WS. You must fill out the paper Form I-765WS and upload the completed copy with your application.

Learn more about DACA.

To request DACA, you must be at least 15 years old, unless you are currently in removal proceedings or have a final removal or voluntary departure order.

You may be considered for initial deferred action if you:

- Were under the age of 31 as of June 15, 2012;
- Came to the United States before reaching your 16th birthday;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since June 15, 2007, up to the present time;
- Were physically present in the United States on June 15, 2012, and at the time of making your request for consideration of deferred action with USCIS;
- Had no lawful status on June 15, 2012, meaning that you never had a lawful immigration status on or before June 15, 2012, or any lawful immigration status or parole that you obtained prior to June 15, 2012, had expired as of June 15, 2012;
- Are currently in school, have graduated or obtained a certificate of completion from high school, have obtained a general education - development (GED) certificate, or are an honorably discharged veteran of the Coast Guard or Armed Forces of the United States; and
- Have not been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, or three or more other misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

You may be considered for renewal of DACA if you meet all the requirements for initial DACA and:

- Did not depart the United States on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since you submitted your most recent request for DACA that was approved up to the present time; and
- Have not been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.
- (delete)

We may consider deferring action in your case even if you have been arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer and charges were filed, or if charges were filed against you without an arrest. We will evaluate the totality of the circumstances in reaching a decision on deferred action. If we determine that you have been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors not occurring on the same date and not arising out of the same act, omission, or scheme of misconduct, or that you otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety, we are unlikely to defer action in your case.

Fee: $0. All requesters must pay a $410 filing fee for Form I-765 and a $85 biometric services fee. Once you complete and sign Form I-821D and Form I-765, you will pay all fees and submit both forms.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

At the end of your request, we will highlight certain documents that you should provide with your request for DACA. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed. Refer to uscis.gov/i-821d if you need additional information about evidence requirements.

Individuals requesting DACA must submit biometrics. You may receive a notice scheduling you to appear at an Application Support Center (ASC) for biometrics collection. Failure to comply with the notice may result in the denial of your deferred action request. USCIS may, in its discretion, waive the collection of certain biometrics.

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

We will review your request to determine whether the exercise of prosecutorial discretion is appropriate in your case. Each case will be considered on an individual, case-by, case basis. Even if you satisfy the threshold criteria for consideration of DACA, we may determine that deferred action is not warranted in your case. You will be notified of the decision in writing. There is no motion to reopen/reconsider the decision and there is no right to appeal.

Submitting your request online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.

We encourage you to provide complete responses. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form

Based on Form I-1821D Instructions page 1, note 2, applicants requesting renewal who were initially granted DACA by ICE need to fill out the form the way initial filers would. To ensure these applicants fill out the form correctly, we need a way to distinguish them from other applicants who are requesting renewal so that the appropriate questions can be displayed. PRA and OCC concurred with this approach.

Please review the specific filing instructions if you are filing Form I-765 under one of the following categories:

F-1 Students Seeking Optional Practical Training (OPT)

(c)(3)(A) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before being enrolled as an F-1 student for one full academic year at an educational institution approved by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP). Your period of employment will not begin until you have completed one full academic year. If you completed the one-year requirement while in a nonimmigrant status and you are now in valid F-1 status, you are still eligible to apply for OPT.

(c)(3)(B) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before, but no later than 60 days before, your program end date. You must submit your application within 30 days of the date that your DSO or consular official (DSO) enters the recommendation for OPT into your Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) record. If you fail to do so, we will deny your OPT request.

(c)(3)(C) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 application up to 90 days before your current OPT expires; you must submit within 60 days of the DSO's approval of STEM OPT.

Note: If you are an F-1 student filing for initial or extension of OPT, your OPT and your employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school in the United States without authorization may result in your removal from the United States. Re-entry. Consult your DSO for additional details.

Temporary Protected Status (TPS)

(a)(12) and (c)(19) eligibility categories: Submit Form I-765 with your Form I-821 application that we accepted or approved your initial Form I-821. You must also follow the instructions for your application as described in the most recent TPS Federal Register notice regarding a TPS designation, or extension for your country.

~~Completion of Deferral Action for Children and Adults~~
Fee: $410.

TPS applicants: You must pay the Form I-765 filing fee if you are requesting an EAD as an initial TPS applicant younger than 14 or older than 65. If you are re-registering for TPS and requesting an EAD, you must pay the filing fee.

Note: Your total filing fee will be shown at the end of this form. The total will include the application fee for Form I-765, the biometric services fee (if required), and the fee for any other form you are submitting with your application.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

Most applicants must upload:

- A copy of your Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record (front and back), a printout of your electronic I-94 from www.cbp.gov/i94, passport, or other travel document.
- A copy of your last EAD (front and back). If you were not previously issued an EAD, you must submit a copy of a valid identity document (such as a passport) showing your picture, name, and date of birth; a birth certificate with photo ID; a visa issued by a foreign consulate; or a national ID document with photo and/or fingerprint. The identity document photocopy must clearly show your facial features and contain your biographical information.
- A color passport-style photograph of yourself taken recently.

We will automatically inform you which documents and additional evidence you may need to provide as you fill out the application. Our recommendations for additional information will be based on the information you provide in the application, your situation, and circumstances.

Any document containing foreign language submitted to USCIS must be accompanied by a full English language translation. The translator has certified as complete and accurate, and by the translator's certification that he or she is competent to translate the foreign language into English.

USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application, petition, or request. After we receive your application and ensure it is complete, we will inform you in writing if you need to attend a biometric appointment.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
 2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
 3. All of the declared information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.
- After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check for updates and read any important messages from USCIS.

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You must respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

The decision on Form I-765 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit. USCIS will notify you of the decision in writing. If your application is approved, we will either mail your EAD to you or you can visit your local USCIS office to pick it up. If USCIS cannot approve your application, you will receive a written notice of your denial.

Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online application.

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the processing of your form.

We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another screen. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on the form.

After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.

Upload a recent color photograph of yourself that measures 2 inches by 2 inches, with your face measuring 1 inch to 1 3/8 inch from your chin to the top of your head. Your eyes should be between 1 1/8 inch and 1 3/8 inch from the bottom of the photo.

Make sure your whole face is visible, you are facing the camera directly, and the background is white or off-white. Your head must be bare, unless contrary to your religious beliefs.

If you need help understanding the photo requirements or want to resize, rotate, or crop your photo, you can use the Department of State's photo composition tools. Please note that we cannot approve your application without your photo.

Upload a copy of one of the following:

- Your Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record (front and back);
- A printout of your electronic Form I-94 ; or
- Your passport or other travel document.

If you were admitted to the United States by CBP at an airport or seaport after April 30, 2013, CBP may have issued you an electronic Form I-94 instead of a paper Form I-94. You may visit the CBP website to obtain a paper version of an electronic Form I-94. CBP does not charge a fee for this service. Some travelers admitted to the United States at a land border, airport, or seaport, after April 30, 2013, with a passport or travel document, who were issued a paper Form I-94 by CBP, may also be able to obtain a replacement Form I-94 from the CBP website without charge.

If your Form I-94 cannot be obtained from the CBP website, it may be obtained by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. USCIS does charge a fee for this service.

Upload a copy of your last Employment Authorization document (EAD) (front and back). If you were not previously issued an EAD, you must upload a copy of a government-issued identity document (such as a passport) showing your picture, name, and date of birth; a birth certificate with photo ID; a visa issued by a foreign consulate; or a national ID document with photo and/or fingerprint. The identity document photocopy must clearly show your facial features and contain your biographical information.

Upload evidence of having been lawfully enrolled on a full-time basis for one full academic year at a college, university, conservatory, or seminary approved by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) for attendance by F-1 foreign students.

Upload evidence of any previously authorized CPT or OPT and the academic level at which it was authorized.

Upload a copy of the Form I-20, Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student Status endorsed by the Designated School Official (DSO). For the (c)(3)(B) eligibility category, your DSO must have entered the recommendation for OPT into your SEVIS record within 30 days of you submitting Form I-765. If you fail to do so, we will deny your OPT request. For the (c)(3)(C) eligibility category, the Form I-20 must have been endorsed by the DSO within 60 days of submitting Form I-765.

Upload evidence that the degree that is the basis for the STEM OPT extension is in one of the degree programs currently listed on the STEM Designated Degree Program List or a copy of your prior STEM degree.

Upload evidence that the institution that granted your STEM degree is currently accredited by the U.S. Department of Education and certified by the Student Exchange and Visitor Program (SEVP), if this STEM OPT extension is based on a previously earned STEM degree.

If an EOIR Immigration Judge (EOIR IJ) or the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) granted TPS, and you are requesting your first EAD or re-registering for the first time, upload a copy of the EOIR IJ or BIA order that granted TPS (such as a copy of your Form I-821 that the EOIR IJ or BIA approved).

Upload proof of your identity and nationality. Examples of documents you may submit include copies of your:

- Passport (cover to cover);
- Birth certificate accompanied by photo identification; or
- Any national identity document from your country of origin that includes your photo and/or fingerprint.

If you previously filed Form I-821, upload evidence that we accepted or approved your initial Form I-821.

Download, complete, and upload Form I-765WS so that we can determine whether you have an economic need for work.
