I-821D, Consideration Of Deferred Action For Childhood Arrivals (DACA)

Use this form to request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). Deferred action is a discretionary determination to defer removal action of an individual as an act of prosecutorial discretion.

Anyone who receives deferred action will not be placed into removal proceedings or removed from the United States for a specified period of time, unless the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) chooses to terminate the deferral. USCIS considers deferring action (including renewal of deferred action) on a case-by-case basis.

Requesters filing Form I-821D must also file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765 Worksheet, Form I-765WS. You must fill out the paper Form I-765WS and upload the completed copy with your application.

Learn more about DACA.

Before You Start Your Request

Eligibility

You may file online only if you are submitting a renewal request. If you are submitting an initial request for DACA, you must submit a paper Form I-821D.

You may be considered for renewal of DACA if you meet all the requirements for initial DACA and:

- Did not depart the United States on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since you submitted your most recent request for DACA that was approved up to the present time; and
- Have not been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

We may consider deferring action in your case even if you have been arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer and charges were filed, or if charges were filed against you without an arrest. We will evaluate the totality of the circumstances in reaching a decision on deferred action. If we determine that you have been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors not occurring on the same date and not arising out of the same act, omission, or scheme of misconduct, or that you otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety, we are unlikely to defer action in your case.

CAUTION: If you file this request more than 150 days prior to the expiration of your current period of deferred action, USCIS may reject your submission and return it to you with instructions to resubmit your request closer to the expiration date. USCIS encourages renewal requestors to file as early in the 150-day period as possible - ideally, at least 120 days prior to the DACA expiration date.

CAUTION: If you file this request more than 150 days prior to the expiration of your current period of deferred action, USCIS may reject your submission and return it to you with instructions to resubmit your request closer to the expiration date. USCIS encourages renewal requestors to file as early in the 150-day period as possible - ideally, at least 120 days prior to the DACA expiration date.

If you are currently in immigration detention, you may not request consideration of Renewal of DACA from USCIS. If you think you meet the guidelines of this process, you should identify yourself to your deportation office.

Note: You must submit this form with Form I-765 online. We will add Form I-765 for you to complete after you sign your Form I-821D.

Fee

Fee: $0. All requesters must pay a $410 filing fee for Form I-765 and a $85 biometric services fee. Once you complete and sign Form I-821D and Form I-765, you will pay all fees and submit both forms.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

Documents you may need

At the end of your request, we will highlight certain documents that you should provide with your request for DACA. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed. Refer to uscis.gov/i-821d if you need additional information about evidence requirements.

Biometric services appointment

Individuals requesting DACA must submit biometrics. You may receive a notice scheduling you to appear at an Application Support Center (ASC) for biometrics collection. Failure to comply with the notice may result in the denial of your deferred action request. USCIS may, in its discretion, waive the collection of certain biometrics.

After You Submit Your Request

Track your case online

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

🔍 Respond to requests for information

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

✉️ Receive your decision

We will review your request to determine whether the exercise of prosecutorial discretion is appropriate in your case. Each case will be considered on an individual, case-by, case basis. Even if you satisfy the threshold criteria for consideration of DACA, we may determine that deferred action is not warranted in your case. You will be notified of the decision in writing. There is no motion to reopen/reconsider the decision and there is no right to appeal.

I-765, Application For Employment Authorization

Certain foreign nationals who are in the United States may file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, to request employment authorization and an Employment Authorization Document (EAD). Other foreign nationals whose immigration status authorizes them to work in the United States without restrictions may also use Form I-765 to apply for an EAD that shows such authorization.

Foreign nationals may also apply for a Social Security number and card on Form I-765.

If you are a lawful permanent resident, a conditional permanent resident, or a nonimmigrant only authorized for employment with a specific employer under 8 CFR 274a.12(b), do not use Form I-765.

Learn more about employment authorization.

Before You Start Your Application

Eligibility

You may apply online if your eligibility category is:

- (c)(3)(A) - F-1 student, pre-completion OPT;
- (c)(3)(B) - F-1 student, post-completion OPT;
- (c)(3)(C) - F-1 student, 24-month extension for STEM students (students holding a degree in science, technology, engineering, or mathematics);
- (a)(12) - Temporary Protected Status (You are submitting an initial Form I-821 or you have an approved Form I-821); or
- (c)(19) - Temporary Protected Status (You have a pending Form I-821); or
- (c)(33) - Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA).

All other applicants must submit a paper Form I-765.

Please review the specific filing instructions if you are filing Form I-765 under one of the following eligibility categories:

F-1 Students Seeking Optional Practical Training (OPT)

(c)(3)(A) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before being enrolled as an F-1 foreign student for one full academic year at an educational institution approved by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP). Your period of employment will not start before you have completed one full academic year. If you completed the one-year requirement while in another valid nonimmigrant status and you are now in valid F-1 status, you are still eligible to apply for OPT.

(c)(3)(B) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before, but no later than 60 days after your program end date. You must submit your application within 30 days of the date that your designated school official (DSO) enters the recommendation for OPT into your Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) record. If you fail to do so, we will deny your OPT request.

(c)(3)(C) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 application up to 90 days before your current OPT expires, but you must submit within 60 days of the DSO's approval of STEM OPT.

Note: If you are an F-1 student filing for initial or extension of OPT, your OPT and your employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without authorization may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry. Consult your DSO for additional details.

Temporary Protected Status (TPS)

(a)(12) and (c)(19) eligibility categories: Submit Form I-765 with your Form I-821 application or with evidence that we accepted or approved your initial Form I-821. You must also follow the instructions for filing your application as described in the most recent TPS Federal Register notice regarding a TPS designation, re-designation, or extension for your country.

Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals

(c)(33) eligibility category: You must submit Form I-765 with Form I-821D.

Fee

Fee: $410.

TPS applicants: You must pay the Form I-765 filing fee if you are requesting an EAD as an initial TPS applicant, unless you are younger than 14 or older than 65. If you are re-registering for TPS and requesting an EAD, you must pay the Form I-765 filing fee.

false

Note: Your total filing fee will be shown at the end of this form. The total will include the application fee for Form I-765, the biometric services fee (if required), and the fee for any other form you are submitting with this application.

The identity document photocopy must clearly show your facial features and contain your biographical information.
- A color passport-style photograph of yourself taken recently.

We will automatically inform you which documents and additional evidence you may need to provide as you fill out your application. These recommendations for additional information will be based on the information you provide in the application, such as your personal history and circumstances.

Any document containing foreign language submitted to USCIS must be accompanied by a full English language translation that the translator has certified as complete and accurate, and by the translator's certification that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

Biometric services appointment

USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application, petition, or request. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you in writing if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
3. All of the declared information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.
