Summer Electronic Benefit Transfer for Children

2019-2022 Evaluation Overview for SFAs

The Evaluation of FY 2019 Summer Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) Demonstrations is a study to learn about how the Summer EBT project helps families feed children during the summer months. We are collecting information on how EBT benefits are used, and are talking to families, project staff (SFAs and State/Tribal officials), and local businesses to learn about their experiences to help improve the project. The study builds on previous research that showed Summer EBT improved access to healthy food during the summer, when schools are closed.

What is Summer EBT for Children?

The 2019-2022 Summer EBT Project offers school-aged children eligible for free and reduced priced meals during the school year $30 per summer month to purchase healthy foods from local stores.

States/Tribal Organizations running the project use the Supplementation Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) or Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) EBT systems to issue benefits for the Summer EBT.
