By checking this box, I acknowledge that I have been notified of the Department of Defense Religious Accommodation Policy. Department of Defense policy is to accommodate individual expressions of sincerely held beliefs unless it could have an adverse impact on military readiness, unit cohesion, good order, discipline, health, or safety. The Army places a high value on the rights of its Soldiers to observe the tenets of their respective religions or to observe no religion at all. Commanders may be authorized to initially approve or deny requests for accommodation of religious practices. Conditions of accommodation may change based on military need. Policy guidelines are currently contained in AR 600-20, DoDI 1300.17, Army Directive (AD) 2016-34, and AD 2017-03. I understand that the Army cannot guarantee accommodation of religious practices. I understand that if I submit a request for religious accommodation, I must continue to abide by all policies and standards unless my request is approved.

Admissions Interview Instructions

Overview:

- The Admissions Interview allows the Admissions Committee to perform an informed evaluation of each candidate's character, resilience, and desire to serve.
- The interview is intended to capture information about the candidate's intangible qualifications which may not be highlighted elsewhere in his or her application.
- Interviewers should focus their conversation and feedback on the candidate's intangible qualities, rather than restating information provided elsewhere in the application (i.e. SAT scores, High School GPA, etc.).

Instructions:

- Authorized interviewers include: Field Force volunteers, MALOs, USMA Admissions officers, ROTC PMS and SLE cadre.
- Interviews should be conducted in the following format, in order of preference:
 1. Face-to-Face Meeting
 2. Video Teleconference (Skype, Zoom, Facetime, or similar).
 3. Telephonic
- Interviews should be 30-45 minutes, affording enough time to discuss a candidate's relevant experiences, perspective, and goals but not so long as to be an exhaustive discussion of a candidate's life story.
- Parents/Guardians are encouraged to meet the interviewer before the interview, but the interview should be conducted exclusively between the candidate and interviewer without the Parents/Guardians present.

Candidate Evaluation:

- The candidate evaluation consists of six questions which are intended to evaluate a candidate's:
 - Character
 - Resilience
 - Desire to Serve
- Each question requires an evaluation on a scale of 1-5, such that:

1=Agree Strongly; 2=Agree; 3=Neither Agree nor Disagree; 4=Disagree; 5=Disagree Strongly
- Any rating of "4" or "5" must be justified with narrative comments, as they will trigger increased scrutiny from the Admissions Committee.
- Questions 1-3 should provide feedback on the interviewer's interactions with a candidate before, during, and after the interview takes place. Any comments or concerns for Questions 1-3 can be provided in the space for Question 7.
- Questions 4-6 provide the interviewer freedom to tailor their questions and discussion to the candidate and the natural flow of the conversation. The following are example questions, but interviewers can customize their questions to each candidate.
 4. Potential to serve as a leader of character.
 - Tell me about a time you faced an ethical dilemma. How did you respond? Would you make the same choice again?
 - Have you ever been faced with choosing a "harder right" over an "easier wrong"? How do you feel you responded to this situation?
 - Tell me about a time you made a mistake. What were your actions when you realized your mistake?
 - Have you ever encountered someone in your life doing something unethical? How did you handle the situation?
 5. Potential to overcome challenges and adversity.
 - Describe a time when you failed. What did you learn from this experience?
 - What has been a deeply challenging experience for you? What did you feel was most critical to you overcoming this challenge?
 - Tell me about a time when your actions made a difference in a challenging situation.
 - What do you consider to be the most important character traits in a teammate when completing a challenging task?
 6. Propensity for military service.
 - How does West Point fit into your long term goals?
 - What interests you about serving in the Army versus other career options (military or otherwise)?
 - Are you applying to other Service Academies or ROTC programs? If so, where does USMA rank in your preferences?
 - What branch are you most interested in and why?
- Question 7 provides the interviewer space to summarize their opinion of the candidate and/or detail any aspect of the candidate that does not logically match other areas of the interview form.
- Interviewers MUST choose "Yes" or "No" to indicate their endorsement of the candidate. This response should be congruent with the ratings provided to Questions 1-6 (i.e. If the interviewer rates the candidate "5" for all questions, it would be illogical for the interviewer to also endorse the candidate's application).
- If an interviewer does not endorse a candidate's application, the interviewer must provide a narrative justification in response to Question 7.
