Thank you for your interest in The United States Military Academy (USMA). Your name has been sent to a Field Force Representative in your area. Field Force Representatives are the USMA Admissions Office's representatives in local communities nationwide and overseas. They are an excellent resource for candidates because many of them are active duty or retired U.S. Army officers who have been trained in the USMA Admissions process. They are highly motivated to assist you and have a wealth of knowledge to help you navigate the Admissions process and many are Graduates themselves. They can also keep you informed about future West Point events in your area and answer questions you might have.

You also have an Admission Officer at West Point who has been designated to assist you. For administrative purposes, the USMA Admission office divides the country into specific areas of responsibility for these Admissions Officers, this is why they are known as a Regional Commander. Each Regional Commander leads a team comprised of Admissions Technicians and Clerks who also have the responsibility to assist you with the specific needs you may have during the application process. While the Field Force Representatives should provide you answers to general questions, the Regional Commander and his/her team will be the ones to answer questions about your specific application. Whether it is related to the Candidate Fitness Assessment (CFA), a Nomination, your Department of Defense Medical Examination Review Board (DoDMERB) physical, or any other specific issue, your Regional Commander stands ready to assist.

Your Field Force Representative is JohnDoe reached at JOHN.DOE@WESTPOINT.EDU.

Since each Regional Commander is responsible for many candidates we naturally encourage candidates to attempt to answer relatively routine questions for themselves by contacting the Field Force Representatives or by using our web site, social media, or the Candidate Portal (once you have access). Nonetheless, you should not hesitate to call your Regional Commander should you have a question that you can't answer about your application or the application process. To find who your RC is and contact information, please visit url <https://westpoint.edu/admissions/west-point-admissions-team>

We wish you the very best of luck in your quest to become a part of "the Long Grey Line" of West Point Graduates. "Go Army!"

In the interim, feel free to learn more about us from the following sites:

- Main West Point website (<https://westpoint.edu/>)
- Our main Admissions website (<https://westpoint.edu/admissions/> )
