Instructions for Reporting Agricultural Workers

- Agricultural workers are workers directly hired and paid by the farm operation to perform work on a farm or ranch in connection with the production of agricultural products.
- Include part-time workers, paid family members, hired managers, and workers on paid leave. Include workers regardless of method of pay (hourly, salaried, piece rate, etc.).
- Do not include workers hired through a contractor, custom workers (workers hired to use their machines to perform a service on the farm e.g., combining, fertilizing), retail workers, or value added workers (workers who materially alter the form of the product produced e.g., winery, dairy manufacturing plant workers).

4. In the table below, report all agricultural workers on the payroll during the week of October 10th through October 16th

- Report workers under the worker code (provided on page 5) in which they are working, not under the worker code for which they have been trained.
- Report workers who fall under the same worker code on a single line.
- Report the total hours and wages paid to the group of workers during the week of October 10th through October 16th.
- Record each worker only once.
- If the worker performs work in two or more worker codes, report them under the worker code that requires the highest level of skill. If there is no measurable difference in skill requirements, report workers under the worker code in which they spend the most time.
- For salaried employees, report the standard amount of hours worked on your operation.
- Gross wages are the total amount paid to workers before taxes and other deductions. Include the worker's share of social security and unemployment insurance, but exclude the employer's share. Include in-kind payments (e.g., agricultural product like a side of beef, bushels of grain, etc.) provided in lieu of wages for work done. In-kind payments do not include benefits such as housing, meals or insurance.
