Form ETA-9155 – General Instructions for the ETA-9155
U.S. Department of Labor

IMPORTANT: Please read these instructions carefully before completing the Form ETA-9155 – H-2B Registration. These instructions contain full explanations of the questions and attestations that make up the Form ETA-9155. In accordance with Federal Regulations, incomplete or obviously inaccurate applications will not be certified by the Department of Labor. If you need additional room to complete an answer, please begin the answer in the space provided and attach an addendum to the relevant section and item identifying each clearly, ALL required items must be completed as well as any fields/items where a response is conditioned on the response to another required field/item.

Anyone, who knowingly and willingly furnishes any materially false information in the preparation of Form ETA-9155 and any supporting documentation, or aids, abets, or counsels another to do so is committing a federal offense punishable by fine, imprisonment, or both (18 U.S.C. §§ 2, 1001). Other penalties apply as well to fraud or misuse of this immigration document and to perjury with respect to this form (18 U.S.C. §§ 1546, 1621).

Important Note Regarding When to File: Except where the employer submits the request in support of an emergency filing, the employer must submit Form ETA 9155 Registration for H-2B Temporary Employment Certification no less than 120 calendar days and no more than 150 calendar days before the employer's start date of need.

Important Note Regarding Job Contractors: Both the job contractor and the employer-client must each submit requests for registration, when the job contractor will be filing the Form ETA 9142B on behalf of the employer-client

Section A Emergency Filing

1. Mark whether the registration is being submitted as an emergency filing. "Yes" or "No." If "Yes", include with your registration a justification for the use of emergency procedures.

Section B Temporary Need Information

1. Enter the title of the job opportunity for which the registration for H-2B temporary employment certification is being sought by the employer.
2. Enter the six or eight-digit Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)/Occupational Network (O*NET) code for the occupation, which most clearly describes the work to be performed. For example, the SOC code for a construction laborer is 47-2061.00 (Construction Laborers).
3. Enter the occupational title associated with the SOC/O*NET (OES) code. For example, the occupational title associated with SOC/O*NET code 47-2061.00 is "Construction Laborers".
4. Describe the job duties, in detail, to be performed by any worker filling the job opportunity. Specify any equipment to be used and relevant working conditions. If necessary, include an attachment to continue and complete the description. Your attachment should reference this item number.
5. Enter the total number of workers employed in this position on a permanent, year round basis.
6. Enter the anticipated beginning date for the period of employment. Use a month/day (MM/DD) format.
7. Enter the anticipated end date for the period of employment. Use a month/day (MM/DD) format.
8. Enter the total number of positions requested for temporary labor certification in the first registration year.
9. Select the type of temporary need by checking an appropriate box for either "seasonal", "temporary", "one-time occurrence" or "intermittent." The following definitions generally apply to temporary agricultural and non-agricultural work:

Seasonal Need: The employer must establish that the services or labor is traditionally tied to a season of the year by an event or pattern and is of a recurring nature. The employer shall specify the period(s) of time during each year in which it does not need the services or labor. The employment is not seasonal if the period during which the services or labor is not needed is unpredictable or subject to change or is considered a vacation period for the employer's permanent employees.

U.S. Department of Labor

Peakload Need: The employer must establish that (1) it regularly employs permanent workers to perform the services or labor at the place of employment and that it needs to supplement its permanent staff at the place of employment on a temporary basis due to a seasonal or short-term demand, and (2) the temporary additions to staff will not become a part of the employer's regular operation.

One-Time Occurrence: The employer must establish that either (1) it has not employed workers to perform the services or labor in the past and that it will not need workers to perform the services or labor in the future, or (2) it has an employment situation that is otherwise permanent, but a temporary event of short duration has created the need for a temporary worker(s).

Intermittent Need: The employer must establish that it has not employed permanent or full-time workers to perform the services or labor, but occasionally or intermittently needs temporary workers to perform services or labor for short periods.

10. Provide a statement clearly describing the employer's temporary need for the services or labor to be performed. The employer's statement must explain (a) the nature of the employer's business or operations, (b) why the job opportunity and number of workers being requested for certification reflect a temporary need, and (c) how the employer's request for the services or labor to be performed meets the chosen standard under Question 8 of a seasonal, peakload, one-time occurrence, or an intermittent basis.

It is important for the employer to define the area of intended employment with as much geographic specificity as possible. This information is used for purposes of reviewing and verifying regulatory compliance with advertising, positive recruitment requirements, and prevailing wage determinations.

11. Enter the street address of the worksite location identified in question 1, where work will be performed. The worksite address must be a physical location and cannot be a P.O. Box.
12. If additional space is needed for the street address, use this line. If no additional space is needed, enter "N/A."
13. Enter the city of the worksite location.
14. Enter the county of the worksite location.
15. Enter the state/district/territory of the worksite location.
16. Enter the postal (zip) code of the worksite location.
17. Indicate by selecting "yes" or "no" whether the work will be performed in multiple worksites within an area of intended employment or a location(s) other than the one listed above.
- 17a. If you answered "yes" to question 17 above, identify each geographic place(s) of employment with as much specificity as possible. If necessary, you may submit an attachment to continue and complete the listing; your attachment should reference this item number.

Section C
