"There is no greater honor than serving those who serve." –Tom Shull, Exchange Director/CEO and US Army Veteran

We've got your six! Reconnect your personal commitment to service by taking care of the best customers in the world, our service men and women and their families. Our commitment to serve drives our motto, "We go where you go."

Our relationship with the military goes back to 1895, when General Order No. 46 established the concept for what became the Exchange. Our job is to serve all active duty service members. Wherever they are. Wherever they go. We also serve their family members, retired military members, the Guard and Reserve.

The Exchange has been recognized annually as a leading employer of Veterans and we want you to be a part of our team. The Exchange works closely with the agencies that serve our Veterans like the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR), the Wounded Warrior Project, Operation Warfighter (OWF) Program, Feds Hire Vets, and Joining Forces initiative to name a few. Veterans understand the sacrifices our military customers make, so they are uniquely qualified to serve them.

With 1,400 stores in 30 countries, we serve over 12 million Active Military, Reservists, Retirees and their families. We are still proudly serving in the places you served: Iraq, Afghanistan, Kuwait, Korea, Europe, and across the U.S. One of our core values is Family serving Family which means that we are committed to this relationship for a lifetime. Welcome home!

You are family! Working at the Exchange provides a connection with the military community and a place where you always belong. We are Family Serving Family.

Let's get to work building a future that matters. Be part of something global - something bigger and something that fits you. The Exchange offers positions at your local military installation, with lifestyle scheduling and industry leading benefits in a fun and fast paced environment. Find your career at the Exchange!

The Exchange's commitment to serve those that serve doesn't just apply to those in uniform. We understand that Military Spouses serve in an extraordinary way right alongside them. They understand the day to day challenges faced by the military families and therefore form a special bond with our customers. One of our core values is Family serving Family and no one knows military families better than Military Spouses. We strive to make our customer's experience a great one and Military Spouses play a key role in that.

Military Spouses and family members provide the stability in Military Families and here at the Exchange we provide you with stability. We are located where your family is stationed, and we have numerous job opportunities for you to choose from. With 1,400 stores in 30 countries your career doesn't have to end when you PCS. We strive to assist our Military Family members to secure a new position at their next duty location, before the bags are unpacked! We will be happy to discuss this and other spouse programs with you at your local HR office. Apply now and start your career with your Exchange family!

It's a Career

Being a part of a Military Family isn't the easiest thing in the world. Working for the Exchange can help with some of the challenges. While there are some guidelines, the Exchange can help you keep a job when you transition from location to location. Take advantage of our Associate Transfer program when it's time to PCS. We may be able to help you continue your employment with the Exchange, at your new location if you:

- PCS with your sponsor
- Have 6 months Exchange service
- Have a rating of Satisfactory or higher on the most recent performance evaluation

Deployment

"We go where you go!"

Experience the satisfaction of making a difference to our troops on the front lines. The Exchange is a unique retailer that offers a variety of financially rewarding positions supporting our troops while deployed. Come live our motto at "The Tip of the Spear!"

The Army & Air Force Exchange Service has a connection with the military that began in 1895. Since then, the Exchange mission goes where Soldiers, Airmen, and their families go while improving the quality of life through the goods and services provided.

The Exchange supports Military Contingency Operations through deployment activities that depend on a volunteer workforce. The need for willing, dedicated volunteers will never change. To provide the best service to our troops, we look for talented associates with various skill sets in the areas of Retail, Services, Food, Administrative Support, Loss Prevention, Information Systems, and Logistics. The Exchange has successfully supported multiple military operations, deploying more than 4,600 associates since 9/11.

Mandatory COVID-19 Vaccination

To ensure compliance with an applicable nationwide preliminary injunction, which may be supplemented, modified, or vacated, depending on the course of ongoing litigation, the Federal Government will take no action to implement or enforce the COVID-19 vaccination requirement pursuant to Executive Order 14043 on Requiring Coronavirus Disease 2019 Vaccination for Federal Employees. Therefore, to the extent a Federal job announcement includes the requirement that applicants must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 pursuant to Executive Order 14043, that requirement does not currently apply. Federal agencies may request information regarding the vaccination status of selected applicants for the purposes of implementing other workplace safety protocols, such as protocols related to masking, physical distancing, testing, travel, and quarantine.

In accordance with Executive Order 14043, all applicants must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 prior to accepting employment with the Exchange.

E-Verify

The Exchange participates in E-Verify. The Exchange will provide the Social Security Administration (SSA) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) with information from each new employee's I-9 to confirm work authorization.

EXCHANGE ETHICS STATEMENT

Exchange employees are required to adhere to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch. These standards are set out in Executive Order 12731 of October 17, 1990. All executive branch employees hold their Government positions as a public trust and the American people have a right to expect that all employees will place loyalty to the Constitution, laws, and ethical principles above private gain. Employees fulfill that trust by adhering to the Standards of Ethical Conduct.

Exchange employees must comply with Federal ethics laws and other laws that address employee conduct. These laws include conflicts of interest laws, which include prohibitions relating to bribery, unauthorized compensation in matters affecting the Government, post-employment restrictions, and prohibited acts affecting personal financial interests.

Additional ethics information may be obtained from the Exchange General Counsel's Office, or by contacting ethics@aaafes.com.

New Exchange employees must complete initial ethics training within three months of starting their position with the Exchange, and annual thereafter (if applicable).

Certain Exchange employees are required to file financial disclosure reports. The purpose of these reports is to provide assurance that reporting individuals are in compliance with certain ethics laws and regulations, as well as identifying potential or existing conflicts of interest.

If hired, by accepting your position with the Exchange, you are agreeing to adhere to applicable ethics laws and become a part of the Exchange's strong ethical culture.
