INFORMATION LETTER for a research study entitled “Evaluation of provider perceptions of a pharmacist-led interprofessional transitions of care program”

SPONSOR: This study is sponsored and funded by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration’s Center for Drug Evaluation and Research Safe Use Initiative.

You are invited to participate in a research study to learn about the impact of a pharmacist-led, transitions of care (TOC) program. This study is being conducted by Dr. Courtney Gamston in the Auburn Department of Clinical Affairs and Outreach. You are invited to participate because you are a provider at East Alabama Medical Center (EAMC) and are age 19 or older.

What will be involved if you participate? If you decide to participate, you will be asked to complete an anonymous survey related to TOC services at EAMC. The total amount of time to participate in the studies is approximately 15 minutes.

Are there any risks or discomforts? The only risk is related to the potential loss of confidentiality. To minimize these risks, the survey will be anonymous and no identifiable information will be collected.

Are there any benefits to yourself or others? If you participate in this study, your survey could potentially be used to improve the transitions of care services offered at EAMC.

Will you receive compensation for participating? There is no compensation for participating.

Are there any costs? There are no costs to participate.

If you change your mind about participating, you can withdraw by not completing the survey or exiting out of the browser window, as applicable. Your decision about whether or not to participate or to stop participating will not jeopardize your future relations with Auburn University or EAMC.

Any data obtained in connection with this study will remain anonymous. We will protect your privacy and the data you provide by administering an anonymous survey. Information collected through your participation may be presented at local, regional, or national conferences or submitted for publication.

If you have questions about this study, you can contact study investigator Dr. Courtney Gamston, Professor of Experiential Practice at Auburn University at 334-844-4099 or ceg0004@auburn.edu. For questions about your rights as a research subject, you can contact the Chairperson of the EAMC IRB at 334-528-1326.

HAVING READ THE INFORMATION PROVIDED, YOU MUST DECIDE IF YOU WANT TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS RESEARCH PROJECT. IF YOU DECIDE TO PARTICIPATE, THE DATA YOU PROVIDE WILL SERVE AS YOUR AGREEMENT TO DO SO.
