However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed and may result in the loss of benefits.

We will use the information you provide to determine eligibility for benefits under an international agreement. We may also share your information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To student volunteers, individuals working under a personal services contract, and other workers who technically do not have the status of Federal employees, when they are performing work for SSA, as authorized by law, and they need access to personally identifiable information in SSA records in order to perform their assigned agency functions.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.
