

Attachment A: Sample Questions for ECD Stakeholder Events

Respondents will be informed that their participation is completely voluntary and that their information will be kept private and their responses will not be associated with individual names. Events may be in-person or virtual.

The questions are designed to hear directly from participants on strategies to improve the implementation of early childhood programs through various stakeholder events. Questions used for each ECD Stakeholder Event will be tailored based on the agenda and the relevant audience and not all questions will be asked at every meeting. The questions below provide examples of the types of questions that we would ask participants at an ECD event. We anticipate asking 2-5 questions below for each event. The anticipated time that participants will need to answer the questions is 10 minutes.

Supports for Parents and Families

- From your experience, what supports healthy development and social and economic well-being from parents and families? How can we better engage parents to partners and advocate for early learning programs and policies?

Promising Approaches or Innovations

- From your experience, what are some promising and innovative strategies to support and strengthen families with young children?
- From your experience, what have been the most effective strategies to ensure that more children have access to high-quality early care and education?
- What are strategies for recruiting and retaining high-quality early childhood teachers that you have found to be effective? Do you have suggestions for creative strategies? What else could we be doing?

Engaging States and Local communities

- What do you think states/localities are doing to improve early care and education systems and transition to school and other child and family service systems?
- Have you engaged your community, state and national leadership to support and advance high quality early learning programs for children and families?

Barriers and Challenges

- What do you think are the factors that make it easier to coordinate across early childhood programs/initiatives?
- What do you think makes it hard or difficult to coordinate across programs and initiatives? What are barriers and challenges to serving families more holistically?
- What do you think are the obstacles/barriers have prevented us from “moving farther” in the last 5-10 years despite the evidence that the earliest years are the most important?

Recommendations for federal government

- What should the federal government do to make the coordination in early childhood better?
- In your experience, what type of technical assistance and support is needed?
- In your experience, what are some of the data and research needs in early childhood development?

Strategic Planning

- How might we build stronger movement to influence leaders and policy makers to act on the evidence?
- Where do we have a lot more work to do?
- What do you think we should be focusing more for the next 2-3 years?
- What do you think our top priority should be for our work in early childhood?
- What else do we need to do to support parents and families with young children in this country?

- How do you think federal, state, and local government can partner more effectively?
- What are strategic opportunities in the coming year for us to work together? What help do you need?
- How might ECD/ACF be a catalyst to create collective impact and support early learning and care of our nation’s children and their families?
