

Privacy Policy

Last updated: MONTH XX, 2021

The Centers for Medicaid and Medicare Services (CMS) ("us", "we", or "our") operates <http://www.cms.gov/nosurprises> (the "Site"). This page informs you of our policies regarding the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information we receive from users of this form.

By using the No Surprises Complaint form (form), you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

Information Collection And Use

While using our form, we may ask you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you. Personally identifiable information (PII), defined by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), refers to information which can be used to distinguish or trace an individual's identity, such as their name, social security number, biometric records, etc. alone, or when combined with other personal or identifying information which is linked or linkable to a specific individual, such as date and place of birth, mother's maiden name, etc.

When you fill out this form:

After you submit a complaint, your personal information may be disclosed to other federal agencies as they may have jurisdiction authority to review and investigate your complaint, if applicable. These organizations may include the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the Treasury Department (Treasury), and the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL).

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, a system of records has been created for the collection of personally identifiable information you submit on this form. The original system of records notice entitled, "No Surprises Complaint Form" was published in the Federal Register on MONTH XX, 2021.

The system of records and modifications can be found at: <http://www.cms.gov/Research-Statistics-Data-and-Systems/Computer-Data-and-Systems/Privacy/CMS-Systems-of-Records.html>.

For specific details on the data collected by the systems that make up the form, please view the Privacy Impact Assessments (PIA) located at: <http://www.hhs.gov/pia/>.

Log Data

Like many site operators, we collect information that your browser sends whenever you visit our Site ("Log Data").

This Log Data may include information such as your computer's Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser type, browser version, the pages of our Site that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages and other statistics.

CMS will keep data collected long enough to achieve the specified objective for which they were collected. Once the specified objective is achieved, the data will be retired or destroyed in accordance with published draft records schedules of CMS as approved by the National Archives and Records Administration.

CMS does not store information from cookies on CMS systems. CMS assesses whether the expiration date of a cookie exceeds one year and provides an explanation as to why cookies with a longer life are used on the site in the associated Third-Party Website or Application Privacy Impact Assessment. These explanations can be found at <http://www.hhs.gov/pia#Third-Party>.

Communications

We may use your Personal Information to contact you if we need more information or documentation, or to notify you of the resolution to your complaint. We may contact you by phone and/or email, dependent on the contact information that you provided to us.

Cookies

Cookies are files with small amount of data, which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a web site and stored on your computer's hard drive.

Like many sites, we use "cookies" to collect information. You can instruct your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. However, if you do not accept cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of our Site.

Security

The security of your Personal Information is important to us, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Changes To This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy is effective as of MONTH XX, 2021 and will remain in effect except with respect to any changes in its provisions in the future, which will be in effect immediately after being posted on this page.

We reserve the right to update or change our Privacy Policy at any time and you should check this Privacy Policy periodically. Your continued use of the Service after we post any modifications to the Privacy Policy on this page will constitute your acknowledgment of the modifications and your consent to abide and be bound by the modified Privacy Policy.

If we make any material changes to this Privacy Policy, we will notify you either through the email address you have provided us, or by placing a prominent notice on our website.
