Lessons Learned & Promising Practices Template
Spring 2020

PREIS grantees take on the exclusive challenge of conducting rigorous evaluations of innovative approaches and put in an intense amount of work, commitment, and tenacity to make their projects successful. FYSB recognizes that your expertise, experiences, and the barriers and challenges you face in your journey are unique and specific to your innovative projects. The promising practices, strategies, and solutions that you identified are vital information that can help guide the way for the PREIS program and the broader fields of adolescent pregnancy prevention and youth programming. The purpose of this template is to capture lessons learned and promising practices across all of the PREIS programs.
