Processing Information

There is no filing fee for this form.

You must file this form together with the documents required when applying for Chief of Mission Approval. Email all necessary documentation to:

AfghanSIVApplication@state.gov.

Initial Processing. We must receive a complete and signed DS-157 petition and all documents required for Chief of Mission Approval, including all supporting documentation, as identified at <https://travel.state.gov/afghan>, before we can assess your eligibility for Chief of Mission approval and adjudicate your special immigrant petition. Failure to file all required documents may delay processing.

Decision. The decision on Form DS-157 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for classification as a special immigrant under INA section 203(b)(4), as provided for under section 602(b)(1)(A) of the AAPA. Approval of this petition means the U.S. government has determined: (1) you are a citizen or national of Afghanistan; (2) you were employed by or on behalf of the U.S. Government or the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF), or its successor, in Afghanistan after October 7, 2001, for a period of not less than one year; and (3) you provided faithful and valuable service to the U.S. Government or ISAF, or its successor. The decision on Form DS-157 for surviving spouses and children of deceased principal applicants involves a determination that the principal applicant meets the above requirements and that you have a qualifying relationship as a spouse or as an unmarried child under age 21. Decisions will be made by authorized officials of the U.S. Department of State. You will be notified of the decision in writing.

You do not need to file this form if:

You have not yet received a decision on your COM application and you previously filed a signed Form DS-157, Supplemental SIV Chief of Mission Application or Supplemental NIV Application, prior to July 20, 2022. Your previously filed Form DS-157 will be deemed a PETITION FOR SPECIAL IMMIGRANT CLASSIFICATION FOR AFGHAN SIV APPLICANTS. If such individuals apply for a Special Immigrant Visa outside of the United States or apply to adjust status in the United States on the basis of Special Immigrant status, they will be deemed to have provided the information on that form in support of a petition for classification as a special immigrant under the Afghan Allies Protection Act of 2009, Section 602(b) of Pub. L. 111-8, and Section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(4)) and to have agreed that the information provided on that form may be shared with other U.S. government agencies authorized to use such information for purposes including enforcement of the laws of the United States. Individuals seeking to apply for a Special Immigrant Visa outside of the United States will need to email the National Visa Center at NVCSIV@state.gov with their location and information on any derivatives (immediate family members) included on the application.

You have not yet received a decision on your COM application and you previously filed an unsigned DS-157 prior to July 20, 2022. No Form DS-157 may be approved as a petition unless signed by the applicant. Applicants located outside the United States whose previously filed Form DS-157 is missing a signature but is otherwise approvable may be granted conditional approval. Upon receipt of conditional approval, individuals seeking to apply for a Special Immigrant Visa outside of the United States will need to email the National Visa Center at NVCSIV@state.gov with their location and information on any derivatives (immediate family members) included on the application. Applicants who receive conditional approval must electronically sign their Form DS-157 before a consular officer at the time of the visa interview for final approval.

Note: Applicants located in the United States whose previously filed Form DS-157 is missing a signature must file an I-360 petition with USCIS once granted COM approval to continue special immigrant processing.

You are outside the United States and already granted COM approval and have not yet filed a Form I-360 petition with USCIS. Any Afghan SIV applicant outside the United States who filed a signed Form DS-157 and has received COM approval but has not yet filed a Form I-360 petition with USCIS and who wishes to apply for an SIV must email NVCSIV@state.gov to receive instructions on how to proceed with their SIV application. Such applicants will be deemed to have provided the information on form DS-157 in support of a petition for classification as a special immigrant under section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act pursuant to the Afghan Allies Protection Act of 2009, Section 602(b) of Pub. L. 111-8. If the applicant's DS-157 was unsigned, approval of the petition will be conditional. The approval will be finalized when the applicant electronically signs their DS-157 petition before a consular officer at the visa interview. Applicants will need to email the National Visa Center at NVCSIV@state.gov with their location and information on any derivatives (immediate family members) included on the application.

You are in the United States and have been granted COM approval. Applicants currently in the United States who have already received COM approval should file an I-360 petition with USCIS to request classification as a special immigrant. Following approval of any Form I-360 petition you will need to file a Form I-485 application with USCIS to become a lawful permanent resident.

You did not file a DS-157 and have been granted COM approval. Applicants inside or outside the United States who did not file a DS-157 and were granted COM approval must file an I-360 petition with USCIS. Applicants who have already filed the I-360 petition with USCIS must await a decision by USCIS to continue special immigrant processing. After USCIS approves your petition, they will transfer your case to the Department of State's National Visa Center (NVC) for pre-processing. The first step in this processing is the creation of your case in our system. Once this is complete, we will send you a Welcome Letter by e-mail.
