

We have been trying to !reach you

We're reaching out about the Family Options Study. You enrolled in this study between September 2010 and January 2012. At that time, you completed a survey and were offered a referral for housing and services intended to help families who were experiencing homelessness.

This is a very important research study. It is funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Researchers from Abt Associates are helping HUD with this study.

After you complete the interview, you will receive a gift card worth $50 to thank you for your help with this important study.
