SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Deputy Secretary of Defense directed the establishment of the Internal Review Team (IRT) on Racial Disparities in the Investigative and Military Justice Systems to identify and address the root causes of racial disparities in the DoD investigative and military justice systems. The review will provide actionable recommendations the Department can implement or establish to improve strategies, programs, policies, processes, and resources to address these disparities. The IRT comprises General Officers and members of the civilian Senior Executive Service who, with the support of subject matter experts, will focus their full-time efforts on this review. The IRT commenced its work on June 1, 2022, and is charged to provide its findings and recommendation to the DSD not later than August 24, 2022. Consideration of the role of military leaders in the Department’s investigative and military justice process is a key component of the IRT’s review. As a result of this information collection, the IRT will have access to a body of qualitative information provided by military leaders (including military officers, noncommissioned officers, and enlisted personnel) regarding their personal experiences in addressing Service member misconduct and performance matters. This information will assist the IRT in identifying themes, trends, and vignettes that illustrate how the actions and decisions of military leaders affect whether and how a subordinate Service member will become involved in the investigative or military justice systems and will inform IRT recommendations to address the root causes of racial disparities in those systems.
