Further explanation for question 4.

In general, an individual has “current employment status” if he/she is actively working as an employee, is the employer (including a self- employed individual), or is associated with the employer in a business relationship.

An individual also has “current employment status” if he or she is not actively working, but meets all of the following conditions:

- retains employment rights in the industry;
- employment has not been terminated by the employer (if the employer provides the coverage); or membership in the employee organization has not been terminated (if the employee organization provides the coverage);
- is not receiving disability benefits from an employer for more than 6 months

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT AND PRIVACY ACT NOTICES

The Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) is authorized to collect the information requested on this form under Sections 7(b)6 and 7(d) of the Railroad Retirement Act. The information obtained from this form will be used for determining whether the claimant applying for Part B under Medicare may be entitled to a Special Enrollment Period and/or premium surcharge relief because of coverage under an employer Group Health Plan. Although you are not required to furnish this information, if you fail to do so, the claimant may not be considered eligible by the RRB to receive these benefits.

We estimate this form takes an average of 10 minutes per response to complete, including the time for reviewing the instructions, obtaining the data, and reviewing the completed form. Federal agencies may not conduct or sponsor, and respondents are not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB number. If you wish, send comments regarding the accuracy of our estimate, or any other aspect of this form, including suggestions for reducing completion time, to the Associate Chief Information Officer for Policy and Compliance, Railroad Retirement Board, 844 N. Rush St., Chicago, IL 60611-1275.
