2.3. Please help us verify your identity – New Name Confirmation

The image shows a mockup of a web form titled "New Name Confirmation". The form is enclosed in a dark grey border. At the top left, the title "New Name" is displayed in a large, bold, black font. Below the title, a horizontal line separates it from the main content. The main content area contains the following text: "Based on the information provided, your new name will display on your new SSN card as:" followed by the name "Mary Q Public-Smith" in a bold black font. Below the name, the question "Is this correct?" is asked. A blue link with a downward-pointing chevron icon is provided: "Why is my name cut off?". At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: a solid blue button with white text that says "Yes, proceed with my application", and a white button with a blue border and blue text that says "No, make changes". A large, light grey "DRAFT" watermark is oriented diagonally across the center of the page, overlapping the form and extending below it.

2.4. Please help us verify your identity – New Name Confirmation expanded

New Name

Based on the information provided, your new name will display on your new SSN card as:

Mary Q Public-Smith

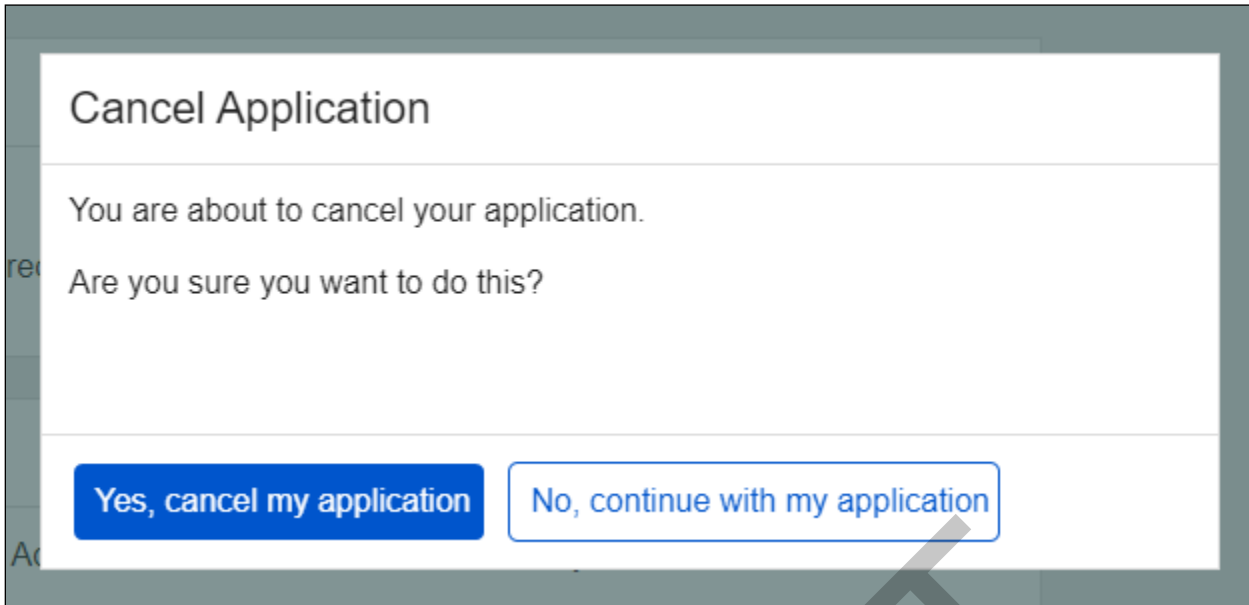

Is this correct?

^ Why is my name cut off?

Your social security card can only display a limited number of characters. If your name appears reduced in length, it is due to spacing limitations on the SSN card. If you disagree with how your name appears, you can go back to change your selections or cancel the application. You can contact your local office for assistance.
