

The image shows a complex software interface, likely a data management or reporting tool. It features several distinct panels and components:

- Left Panel: Contains a vertical list of items, possibly a navigation menu or a list of data entries.
- Top Center Panel: Displays a large table with multiple columns and rows. The table is filled with data, and some cells are highlighted in green.
- Right Panel: Contains another table, similar to the one in the top center, but with a different layout and some cells highlighted in yellow.
- Bottom Panel: Features a series of small, circular icons or charts, possibly representing different data categories or metrics.
- Bottom Left Panel: Contains a large block of text, likely a report or a list of detailed information.

The overall layout is organized and professional, with a clear focus on data presentation and analysis.
