

WE CAN DO BETTER

Scan the QR code and join the SVSES to tell us about your experiences with SAPR services and with the military justice process

Or text* INFO to 55555 to learn more now

*For more info on the study text INFO to 55555. One (1) message per request. Message and data rates may apply. Reply HELP for help, STOP to cancel. For SVSES terms and conditions, please visit <https://www.surveysdrc.com/DMDC/SMS.aspx>. For our Privacy Policy, please visit <https://www.sapr.mil/privacy-policy>.

What is the SVSES?

- The Sexual Violence Support & Experiences Study (SVSES) is a confidential and voluntary study about Service members' experiences with support services, aspects of the military justice process, health, well-being, and career progression.

Who can join this CONFIDENTIAL study?

- Anyone who has experienced sexual assault while serving in the U.S. Military (Active, Reserve, or National Guard).

How will sharing my experiences help?

- The Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Office (SAPRO) – the people who drive change within the DoD – will use your feedback to improve support services survivors receive and the processes survivors go through. Visit <https://www.sapr.mil/svses> to learn more.

How will my identity be protected?

- Anything you share will be kept confidential, meaning your identity will not be shared with anyone.

“ We have to have services that appeal to people, that really do make a difference in their lives. ”
- Dr. Nate Galbreath, Deputy Director, DoD SAPRO

If you have any questions about the study, talk to your SARC or Victim Advocate, or e-mail SVSES-survey@mail.mil

To reach the 24/7 DoD Safe Helpline for Sexual Assault support and services, call 1-877-995-5247