

Form	Change	Current Location	Reason
Information Collection Guidance: MA Network Adequacy Guidance	Includes language regarding proposed changes around initial applicant network submission requirements	Introduction	CMS-4192-F establishes revisions at 42 C.F.R. § 422.116 which would establish the requirement that applicants for a new or expanding service area must demonstrate compliance with network adequacy standards as part of an MA application and that CMS may deny an application on the basis of an evaluation of the applicant's network.
Information Collection Guidance: MA Network Adequacy Guidance	Adds language related to applicants who utilize LOIs as a reason for a triggering event	Triennial Network Adequacy Reviews	CMS-4192-F requires that applicants who utilize LOIs to meet network adequacy standards during the application process must submit their network for evaluation during the first year the contract is operational.
Information Collection Guidance: MA Network Adequacy Guidance	Includes language regarding proposed network credits for new applicants	New or Expanding Service Area Applicant Credit	CMS-4192-F establishes that an applicant for a new or expanding service area will receive a 10 percentage point credit towards the percentage of beneficiaries residing within published time and distance standards for the contracted network in the pending service area, at the time of application and for the duration of the application review