This question is about your experiences with wildlife around your home, meaning the area within a one-mile radius of your home. We're interested in whether you took a special interest in observing or viewing wildlife, not just simply noticing wildlife while doing something else such as gardening or exercising. By wildlife we mean birds, mammals, fish, insects, reptiles, and amphibians, such as frogs. Do not include farm animals or pets.

Since the last survey, did you do any of the following wildlife-watching activities around your home, or not?

GRID ITEMS:
A. Closely observe wildlife or try to identify unfamiliar types of wildlife
B. Photograph or take cellphone pictures of wildlife
C. Feed birds or other wildlife
D. Maintain natural areas such as wooded lots, hedgerows, or open fields of at least one-quarter acre for the benefit of wildlife, not including farmland
E. Maintain plantings such as shrubs or agricultural crops for the benefit of wildlife

The next questions are about the different kinds of game you may have hunted in the United States: big game, small game, migratory birds, or other animals.

Big game includes deer, elk, bear, wild turkey, moose, wild sheep, feral goat, or some other large animal such as antelope, bison, caribou, mountain goat, or muskox.

Small game includes rabbit, quail, grouse or prairie chicken, squirrel, pheasant, ptarmigan, or some other small animal such as francolin or chukar.

Migratory birds include geese, duck, dove, or some other bird such as coot, rail, gallinule, woodcock, crane, black brant, crow, snipe, or band-tailed pigeon.

Other animals include groundhog or woodchuck, raccoon, fox, coyote, mountain lion, wolf, bobcats, or any other animals not included in the big game, small game, and migratory bird categories.

The next questions are about expenditures on equipment and other items you may have purchased in the United States for use in observing, photographing, or feeding wildlife. We're interested in expenditures on items you primarily use in observing, photographing, or feeding wildlife and not items that you own but use primarily for purposes other than observing, photographing, or feeding wildlife.

W_EQUIPA.

Since the last survey, did you purchase, or did someone else purchase for you, any of the following items primarily for your use in observing, photographing, or feeding wildlife, or not? For any item on the list that was not purchased but not primarily for your use in observing, photographing, or feeding wildlife, please select "No, this item was not purchased."
