Section E

Wage Source Information

1. Mark "Yes" if the employer is covered by the American Competitiveness and Workforce Improvement Act (ACWIA) pursuant to 20 CFR 656.40(e) and "No" if it is not. Mark "N/A" only if the Application is for an H-2B application. Note: ACWIA coverage does not apply to H-2B applications.
 - a. If "Yes" in question 1, identify which ACWIA provision, as described in 20 CFR 656.40(e)(1), the employer is covered under (choose all that apply):
 - (i) Institution of higher education (20 CFR 656.40(e)(1)(i));
 - (ii) Affiliated or related nonprofit entity connected or associated with an institution of higher education (20 CFR 656.40(e)(1)(ii));
 - (iii) Nonprofit research organization or Governmental research organization (20 CFR 656.40(e)(1)(iii)).
 - b. Identify whether the employer's ACWIA status has changed since previously receiving a prevailing wage determination. If the employer was previously not ACWIA covered, mark "Yes" or "No" as to whether the employer has any reason to believe its ACWIA status has changed. For example, mark "Yes" if an employer's affiliation with an institution of higher education has changed. If the answer is "Yes," provide documentation. Mark "N/A" if the employer has not previously received a prevailing wage determination.
2. Mark "Yes" if the job opportunity is for a professional athlete as defined in 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(5)(A)(iii)(II) and covered by a professional sports league's rules or regulations and mark "No" if it is not. If you mark "Yes," a copy of the wage provisions from the professional sports league's rules or regulations and relevant organization letters must be submitted with this application. If the job opportunity is covered by a professional sports league's rules or regulations, the employer may not request any other wage source.

3. Mark "Yes" if the position is covered by the wage provisions of a Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and mark "No" if it is not. Mark "N/A" if you marked "Yes" in response to E.2. If you mark "Yes," a copy of the wage provisions from the CBA and relevant organization letters must be submitted with this application.
4. Mark "Yes" if the employer is requesting a prevailing wage determination based on
 - 5.
 6. the Davis-Bacon Act (DBA) or (SCA) Act the McNamara-O'Hara Service Contract.
 7. Note: SCA and DBA wages do not apply to H-2B applications.
 - a. If "Yes" in question 4, identify if the employer requests use of a DBA prevailing wage determination or SCA prevailing wage determination. For DBA, indicate in the job duties (Section F.a.2) which one of the four types of construction applies: Building, residential, highway, or heavy.
8. Mark "Yes" if the employer is requesting consideration of an employer-provided survey as the wage source in determining the prevailing wage.
 - a. If "Yes" in question 5, provide the name or title of the survey under which the employer is requesting a determination.
 - b. If "Yes" in question 5, provide the date of publication of the survey under which the employer is requesting a determination. For unpublished surveys, such as ad-hoc or one-time surveys, use the date the Form ETA-9141 is being submitted.

Note: For H-2B applications, if you marked "Yes" in question 5, the employer submit must with this application a Form ETA-9165 and the survey the employer seeks to use to determine the prevailing wage.

For all other applications, if you marked "Yes" in question 5, the survey under which the employer is requesting a determination must be submitted with this application.

Section F

Job Offer Information

a. Job Description

1. Enter the title of the job opportunity.
2. Describe the job duties, in detail, to be performed by any worker filling the job opportunity. Specify the field(s) and/or product(s)/industry(ies) involved, any equipment to be used, and pertinent working conditions. The duties provided must be specific enough to be classified under a relevant Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code pursuant to the O*NET publication at <https://www.onetonline.org/>. All job duties must be disclosed. A description of the job duties must begin in the space provided on the form. For mail-in applications, an addendum may be used to complete the response fully. Job duties may not exceed 4,000 characters.
3. Mark "Yes" or "No," whether the job opportunity supervises the work of other employees.
 - a. If "Yes" in question 3, enter the SOC code(s) and SOC title(s), of the employees to be supervised.

b. Minimum Job Requirements

Note: This section must only include a single set of requirements, the employer's minimum requirements for each question. If the employer will accept alternative requirements, the alternative requirements must be entered in Section F.c.

1. Identify whether the minimum U.S. degree required by the employer for the job opportunity is None, High School/GED, Associates, Bachelor's, Master's, Doctorate, or Other degree. Only mark one box indicating the minimum education requirement for the job opportunity. Select the "Other degree" option if the job opportunity requires a post-bachelor's degree that is not covered by the first six options, such as a J.D., M.D., or D.D.S. certificate obtained after completion of a six-month boot camp, or a license obtained through a period of apprenticeship, residency, or internship. These requirements should be listed in F.b.3 or F.b.5. as provided in the instructions below select "Other degree" if the job opportunity requires certifications, licenses, diplomas, or other credentials obtained through a limited period of training or coursework, such as a certification that employers in a particular industry commonly require in addition to the formal educational degree requirements of the occupation. For example, do not check “Other degree” if the job opportunity requires a teaching certification obtained after completion of one year of training and coursework, a software development Do not.

- a. If “Other degree” in question 1, enter the specific U.S. degree required (e.g., J.D., M.D., D.D.S., etc.). If the answer to question 1 is not “Other degree,” leave blank or enter “N/A.” The “Other degree” listed here must be offered by at least one U.S. institution accredited by an organization recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Please list here additional supporting education like specific degree or course requirements, which should be included in response to question F.b.5 below do not.
 - b. Enter the major(s) and/or field(s) of study required by the employer for the job opportunity. The major and field of study must be offered by at least one U.S. institution accredited by an organization recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. You may list more than one field and/or more than one related major. If the answer to question 1 is “None” or “High School,” leave blank or enter “N/A.”
2. If the employer requires a second U.S. degree for the job opportunity, mark “Yes.” Otherwise, mark “No.”
- a. If “Yes” in question 2, enter the specific second U.S. degree required. If the answer to question 2 is “No,” enter “N/A.”
3. If the employer requires training for the job opportunity, mark “Yes.” Otherwise, mark “No.” Training may include, but is not limited to: programs, coursework, or training experience (other than employment). Do not include on-the-job training required by the employer after the date of hire. When answering this question, do not duplicate requirements that are listed in other fields of this application; the training required must not be counted as education, work experience, or specific skills or other requirements.
- a. If “Yes” in question 3, enter the number of months of training required by the employer for the job opportunity. If the answer to question 3 is “No,” enter “0” (zero). When answering this question, do not duplicate time requirements that are listed in other fields of this application; the training time required is in addition to the required education and experience, and must not be counted as (added to) education or experience time required.
 - b. If “Yes” in question 3, enter the field(s) and/or name(s) of the training required by the employer for the job opportunity. You may list more than one field and/or more than one name. If the answer to question 3 is “No,” enter “N/A.”
4. If the employer requires employment experience, mark “Yes.” Otherwise, mark “No.”
- a. If “Yes” in question 4, enter the number of months of experience required by the employer. If the answer to question 4 is “No,” enter “0” (zero).
 - b. If “Yes” in question 4, enter the occupation in which experience is required by the employer for the job opportunity. If the answer to question 4 is “No,” enter “N/A.”
5. If the employer requires specific skills or other requirements for the job opportunity, mark “Yes.” Otherwise, mark “No.”
- a. If “Yes” in question 5, mark all that apply (License/Certification, Foreign language, Residency/Fellowship, and/or Other special skills or requirements). Next to each marked item, specify the name or type of requirement. Examples include additional supporting education, such as specific degrees or courses, specific foreign language proficiency, or test results. When answering this question, do not duplicate requirements – the specific skills or other requirements must not be counted as education, training, or experience required. For alternative requirements, see Section F.c.

c. Alternative Job Requirements

While an employer may specify alternative requirements, the substantial equivalency of the alternative requirements to minimum requirements will not be evaluated. If there are alternative sets of Education, Training, and/or Experience requirements, all fields in this section (Section F.c.) must be completed. Note: This section is not applicable for H-2B applications.

1. Identify whether an alternative set of requirements is accepted for the job opportunity. If your answer is “Yes,” you must complete c.2, c.3, and c.4. Any additional education requirements must be entered with the “Special Skills or Other Requirements” (Section F.b.5).
2. Identify what alternative level of education is accepted.

- b. Enter the major(s) and/or field(s) of study accepted by the employer for the job opportunity. The major and field of study must be offered by a U.S. institution accredited by an organization recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. You may list more than one field and/or more than one related major. If the answer to question 2 is "None" or "High School," enter "N/A."
3. If the employer accepts alternative training for the job opportunity, mark "Yes." Otherwise, mark "No." Training may include, but is not limited to: programs, coursework, or training experience (other than employment). Do not include on-the-job training required by the employer after the date of hire. When answering this question, do not duplicate requirements that are listed in other fields of this application; the training accepted must not be counted as education or work experience entered in this section or specific skills or other requirements entered in Section F.b.5. If the employer seeks prevailing wage determinations with additional sets of alternative job requirements, the employer must submit another Form ETA-9141.
 - a. If "Yes" in question 3, enter the number of months of training accepted by the employer for the job opportunity. If the answer to question 2 is "No," enter "0" (zero). When answering this question, do not duplicate time requirements – the training time accepted is in addition to the required education and experience and must not be counted as (added to) education or experience time accepted.
 - b. If "Yes" in question 3, enter the field(s) and/or name(s) of the training accepted by the employer for the job opportunity. You may list more than one field and/or more than one name. If the answer to question 2 is "No," enter "N/A."
4. If the employer accepts alternative employment experience, mark "Yes." Otherwise, mark "No."
 - a. If "Yes" in question 4, enter the number of months of experience accepted by the employer. If the answer to question 4 is "No," enter "0" (zero).
5. If the employer requires specific skills or other requirements for the job opportunity, mark "Yes." Otherwise, mark "No."
 - a. If "Yes" in question 5, mark all that apply (License/Certification, Foreign language, Residency/Fellowship, and/or Other special skills or requirements). Next to each marked item, specify the name or type of requirement. Examples include additional supporting education, such as specific degrees or courses, specific foreign language proficiency, test results. When answering this question, do not duplicate requirements – the specific skills or other requirements must not be counted as education, training, or experience required.

d. Other Information

1. Enter the suggested six or eight-digit Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)/Occupational Network (O*NET) code for the occupation, which most clearly describes the work to be performed. The suggested SOC may be used as a tool in the determination process; however, the SOC issued with the determination may differ.
 - a. Enter the suggested occupational title associated with the SOC/O*NET code. The suggested occupational title may be used as a tool in the determination process; however, the SOC and occupational title issued with the prevailing wage determination may differ from the suggested SOC and occupational title.
2. Provide the job title of the official the employee will report to for this job opportunity, if applicable.
3. If travel is required to perform the job duties, mark "Yes." Otherwise, mark "No."
 - a. If "Yes" in question 3, provide details as to the area(s) of travel required, the frequency of the travel required, and the nature of the travel.
Note: A prevailing wage cannot be provided for unanticipated worksites.

e. Place of Employment Information

It is important for the employer to define the area of intended employment with as much geographic specificity as possible. This information is used for purposes of reviewing and verifying regulatory compliance with advertising, positive recruitment requirements, and prevailing wage determinations. Note: A prevailing wage determination can only be made for worksites that are identified with enough specificity to determine the applicable Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) Area and/or county.

e. Place of Employment Information (cont.)

1. Enter the street address of the worksite location identified in question 1, where the work will be performed. The worksite address must be a physical location and cannot be a P.O. Box.
2. If additional space is needed for the street address, use this line. If no additional space is needed, enter N/A.
3. Enter the city of the worksite location.
4. Enter the State, District, or Territory of the worksite location.
5. Enter the county or equivalent entity (borough, municipality, parish, independent city, or island name for islands that do not have county equivalents) of the worksite location. When the city and the county or equivalent have the same name, enter the name in both fields. Since the county or equivalent is used to determine the prevailing wage, the employer must ensure the appropriate county or equivalent is identified based on the worksite location (city and postal code).
6. Enter the postal (ZIP) code of the worksite location.
7. Indicate whether the employer's job opportunity will be performed in any BLS Area (Metropolitan or Non-Metropolitan Statistical Areas) other than the BLS Area of the address listed in 1-6, or, in the case of BLS Areas with multiple county-level prevailing wage rates, in a county other than the county of the address listed in 1-6 by marking "Yes" or "No."

Important Note: Where work will be performed in any BLS Area other than the BLS Area that includes the worksite address in question 1, the employer must complete Appendix A of the Form ETA-9141 by identifying the additional BLS Area(s) where the services or labor will be performed. In the case of a BLS Area in which there are different county-level prevailing wages, the employer must complete Appendix A when work will be performed in any county other than the county provided as the primary worksite address in question 1. If the employer is unsure whether an additional worksite(s) is in different BLS Area(s) or county(ies) with different wages, the employer must list the additional worksite(s) in Appendix A.

If "Yes" in question 7, the employer must complete and submit Appendix A with this application. See instructions for Appendix A below.

Section G

Prevailing Wage Determination – DO NOT FILL OUT THIS SECTION – FOR GOVERNMENT USE ONLY.

This section will be filled out by the government and returned to you with the appropriate prevailing wage.

If the issued prevailing wage determination will be used in support of a program application, please use the wage determination as follows for each program application:

PERM Labor Certification Applications: The prevailing wage determination includes two wages; the wage in Section G.4 of this form is based on the minimum requirements, and the wage in Section G.5 of this form is based on the alternative requirements. Please use the higher of the two wages as the determined prevailing wage when completing the PERM Labor Certification Application. The offered wage must be equal to or greater than the higher wage of the two requirements.

H-2B Labor Certification Applications: The prevailing wage issued in Section G.4 of this form is the wage for the primary worksite location. The prevailing wage issued in Section G.7 of this form is the highest wage out of all worksites for which prevailing wage determinations were requested in this application, including Appendix A.

Labor Condition Applications: The prevailing wage determination includes two wages; the wage in Section G.4 of this form is based on the minimum requirements, and the wage in Section G.5 of this form is based on the alternative requirements. Please use the higher of the two wages as the determined prevailing wage when completing the Labor Condition Application. The offered wage must be equal to or greater than the higher wage of the two requirements.

Where the employer requests additional worksites using Appendix A, Appendix A will be returned with the prevailing wages for the additional worksites requested.

APPENDIX A – Request for Additional Worksite(s)

Important Note: Employers are required to complete Appendix A if work will be performed in any BLS Area (Metropolitan or Non-Metropolitan Statistical Area) other than the BLS Area provided as the worksite address in Section F.e. In the case of BLS Areas in which there are different prevailing wages in different counties, employers are required to complete Appendix A if work will be performed in any county other than the county provided as the worksite address in Section F.e. If the employer is unsure whether additional worksites are in different BLS Area(s) or counties with different wages, the employer must list the additional worksite in Appendix A. Complete Items 1 (county) and 2 (state), OR alternatively Item 3 (BLS Area), for each worksite for which the employer is requesting a prevailing wage determination. If the employer intends for the workers sought to perform labor or services at more than three (3) worksites that must be reported on Appendix A, the employer must complete additional Appendices A as are necessary to list such worksites for this application. Employers must not complete any fields in the sections designated “for official government use only.” Note that Appendix A is limited to 250 such worksites. If the employer seeks prevailing wage determinations for more than 250 such worksites, the employer must submit another Form ETA-9141 with a listing of the additional worksites for which prevailing wage determinations are sought.

1. Enter the county (or independent city/township(s)/borough(s)/parish(es) as appropriate) of the area of intended employment, and enter the state of the area of intended employment; OR
2. Enter the name of the BLS Area (Metropolitan or Non-Metropolitan Statistical Area) of the area of intended employment.

Submission of additional worksite information in any other form or format will not be accepted. Only worksites entered on the Form ETA-9141 and Appendix A will be used in the processing of the employer’s request for a prevailing wage determination.

DO NOT FILL OUT THE SECTION – FOR OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT USE ONLY.

The government will complete and return Appendix A with the appropriate prevailing wage for each additional worksite for which the employer requested a wage determination in Appendix A.
