Becoming a citizen through naturalization: The application process	Eligibility	(IF USER REACHED THE END OF THE ELIGIBILITY TOOL AND RECEIVED A 'YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE' CONFIRMATION SCREEN) You may be eligible for naturalization because [eligibility basis]. If you think this eligibility basis is incorrect, you can change it after you start your application.	See the eligibility tool Excel doc for Basis of Eligibility copy Military eligibility paths are not in the initial release for e-filing
	Cost	(IF USER SKIPS ELIGIBILITY TOOL OR RECEIVED A 'YOU MAY NOT BE ELIGIBLE' CONFIRMATION SCREEN) You will need to select your basis for eligibility after you start your application. If you are under 75 years old, the application fee is $680. This includes the $595 standard fee plus an $85 biometrics service fee. If you are 75 years or older, there is no biometrics fee, so the fee is $595.
	Filing online	Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form, and they both gather the same information (and cost the same).
	Security	If you do not work on your application for more than 30 days, we will delete your data in order to prevent storing personal information indefinitely. If your data are deleted, you can restart the application at any time.
What happens after I apply?	Biometrics appointment	A few weeks after you submit your application, we will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature.
	Request for evidence	If we need more information, we will contact you by email and through a written notice in the mail to ask for other documents. This may happen before or after your interview.
	Interview	After your biometrics appointment, we will schedule your interview at a local USCIS field office (unless you qualify for a special accommodation). At the interview, you will answer questions about your application, then take the civics and English tests if required.
	Oath of Allegiance	Once your application is approved, you will be ready to take the Oath of Allegiance! At your naturalization ceremony, you will return your Permanent Resident Card, answer questions about your activity since the interview, take the Oath of Allegiance, and get your Certificate of Naturalization.

Start your application

Before the start of the Application for Naturalization (N-400), you may want to gather the documents you will need to support your application.

The other documents you need will depend on the information you provide in the application form (such as your personal history, family, and circumstances).

Privacy Act Statement

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this application, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act section 334 [8 U.S.C. 1445].

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this application is to determine if you have established eligibility for naturalization. USCIS requests the applicant to provide their Social Security number (SSN) to facilitate and expedite the adjudication of the applicant's request. The SSN is used to establish and corroborate the applicant's identity to complete a sufficient background check. DHS will use the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit you are seeking.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, including the SSN, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision in your case or result in denial of your application.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this application with other federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS-USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System and DHSUSCIS-001 - Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records] which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share the information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Paperwork Reduction Act Burden Disclosure Notice

An agency may not conduct or sponsor information collection, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at 3.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, gathering the required documentation and information, completing the application, preparing statements, attaching necessary documentation, and submitting the application. The collection of biometrics is estimated to require 1 hour and 10 minutes. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to:

Requests for accommodations	2.12	Do you have a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment that prevents you from demonstrating your knowledge and understanding of the English language and/or civics requirements for naturalization?	Yes/No	Radio	If you want to apply for a disability exception, your disability or impairment must affect your ability to read, write, or speak the English language or learn U.S. civics, even with accommodations. Your disability must have affected you for at least 1 year or be expected to last longer than 1 year. If you qualify for a disability exception, an interpreter who is fluent in English and the language of your choice must come with you to your interview. You cannot qualify for a disability exception based on illiteracy.
	3.1	Are you requesting an accommodation because of your disabilities and/or impairments?	Yes/No	Radio	We will make every effort to make reasonable accommodations for applicants with disabilities who need modifications to the naturalization process in order to demonstrate their eligibility. • If you use a wheelchair, we will make sure you can be fingerprinted, interviewed, and sworn in at a location that is wheelchair accessible. All domestic USCIS facilities meet the Accessibility Guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act. • If you are unable to travel to a designated USCIS location for an interview, USCIS may visit you at your home or a hospital to conduct the naturalization interview • If you use a service animal such as a guide dog, your animal may come with you to your interview, oath ceremony, or any other immigration benefit-related appointment • If you are blind or have low vision, USCIS may permit you to take a test orally rather than in writing • If you are hearing impaired, the officer conducting your interview will speak loudly and slowly, or we will work with you to arrange for a sign language interpreter. If you require a sign language interpreter at the oath ceremony, your interview, or any other immigration benefit-related appointment, please
	3.1.a	(IF YES) Select all that apply.	I am deaf or hard of hearing.	Checkbox
	3.1.a		Provide an explanation for the accommodation that you are requesting. If you are requesting a sign-language interpreter, indicate for which language (for example, American Sign Language).	Textarea
	3.1.b		I am blind or have low vision.	Checkbox
	3.1.b		Provide an explanation for the accommodation that you are requesting.	Textarea
	3.1.c		I have another type of disability and/or impairment (for example, wheelchair).	Checkbox
	3.1.c		Provide an explanation for the accommodation that you are requesting. Describe the nature of your disability and/or impairment.	Textarea
	2.13.a	You may be eligible for an exemption from the English language test	You may not have to take the English language test because you are 50 years of age or older and have lived in the United States as a lawful permanent resident for periods totaling at least 20 years. However, you still have to take the U.S. civics test, but can take it in the language of your choice. If you want to use this exemption to the English test, you should bring an interpreter who is proficient in English and the language of your choice with you to your naturalization interview.	Notice	These alerts will be presented to eligible users during the Review My Application step in Review & Submit
	2.13.b	You may be eligible for an exemption from the English language test	You may not have to take the English language test because you are 55 years of age or older and have lived in the United States as a lawful permanent resident for periods totaling at least 15 years. However, you still have to take the U.S. civics test, but can take it in the language of your choice. If you want to use this exemption to the English test, you should bring an interpreter who is proficient in English and the language of your choice with you to your naturalization interview.	Notice
	2.13.c	You may be eligible for an exemption from the English language test and a simplified version of the U.S. civics test	You may not have to take the English language test because you are 65 years or age or older and have lived in the United States as a lawful permanent resident for periods totaling at least 20 years. If you want to use this exemption to the English test, you should bring an interpreter who is proficient in English and the language of your choice with you to your naturalization interview. You may also be eligible to take a simplified version of the U.S. civics test. This will be offered to you in the language of your choice during your naturalization interview.	Notice
