

Responses to 60-Day FRN Public Comments

N-400, Application for Naturalization

87 FR 29758

5/2022-7/15/2022

<https://www.regulations.gov/document/USCIS-2008-0025-0197/comment>

Comment #	Public Comments	USCIS Response
Comment 1.	Commenter: Jean Publiee USCIS-2008-0025-0203 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0203  USCIS-2008-0025-0 203_Jean_Publiee_r05	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection. USCIS is required to extend the use of the Form N-400 to comply with legal requirements for public use of the form by individuals seeking to apply for naturalization.
Comment 2.	Commenter: ILRC USCIS-2008-0025-0207 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0207  USCIS-2008-0025-0 207_ILRC_r07142022	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision.
Comment 3.	Commenter: KINZA SCHUYLER/Lutheran Community Services NW USCIS-2008-0025-0209 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0209  USCIS-2008-0025-0 209_KINZA_SCHUYLE	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision.
Comment 4.	Commenter: UnidosUS USCIS-2008-0025-0210 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0210	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into

Responses to 60-Day FRN Public Comments

N-400, Application for Naturalization

87 FR 29758

5/2022-7/15/2022

<https://www.regulations.gov/document/USCIS-2008-0025-0197/comment>

Comment #	Public Comments	USCIS Response
	 USCIS-2008-0025-0 210_UnidosUS_r0715	plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision.
Comment 5.	Commenter: Project Citizenship USCIS-2008-0025-0205 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0205  USCIS-2008-0025-0 205_ProjectCitizenshi	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision. Thank you for your comment regarding updating the NTA guidance. Revising the NTA guidance is beyond the scope of this information collection. As this comment does not provide specific suggestions to revise this information collection, no changes will be made to the N-400 based on this comment. USCIS notes that it continues to evaluate its agency guidance in an effort to improve upon it. Thank you for your comment regarding online account usability. These comments appear focused on online usability in general and not necessarily specific to the N-400 information collection. As this comment does not provide specific suggestions to revising this information collection, no changes will be made to the N-400 based on this comment. USCIS notes that it continues to evaluate ways to improve its online capabilities. Thank you for your comment regarding streamlining interviews. As this comment does not provide specific suggestions to revising this information collection, no changes will be made to the N-400 based

Responses to 60-Day FRN Public Comments

N-400, Application for Naturalization

87 FR 29758

5/2022-7/15/2022

<https://www.regulations.gov/document/USCIS-2008-0025-0197/comment>

Comment #	Public Comments	USCIS Response
		on this comment. USCIS notes that it continues to evaluate ways to better streamline processes
Comment 6.	Commenter: Asian Americans Advancing Justice - Los Angeles USCIS-2008-0025-0212 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0212  USCIS-2008-0025-0 212_AAAJ-LA_r07152	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision.
Comment 7.	Commenter: Xuan Luo USCIS-2008-0025-0204 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0204  USCIS-2008-0025-0 204_XuanLuo_r05522	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision.
Comment 8.	Commenter: City of Seattle OIRA USCIS-2008-0025-0206 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0206  USCIS-2008-0025-0 206_CityOfSeattle_r0:	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision. Thank you for your comment suggesting Form I-912 and Form I-942 be accessible online. The online capabilities of the Form I-912 and I-942 are not necessarily tied to this information collection and therefore beyond the scope. As this comment does not provide specific suggestions to revise this information collection, no

Responses to 60-Day FRN Public Comments

N-400, Application for Naturalization

87 FR 29758

5/2022-7/15/2022

<https://www.regulations.gov/document/USCIS-2008-0025-0197/comment>

Comment #	Public Comments	USCIS Response
		changes will be made to the N-400 based on this comment. USCIS notes that it continues to implement its plan working toward expanding electronic filing for applications and petitions for immigration benefits which was developed pursuant to Section 4103 of the Emergency Stopgap USCIS Stabilization Act, Title I, Div. D of Public Law (P.L.) 116-159 (8 U.S.C. 1103 note).
Comment 9.	Commenter: Massachusetts Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Coalition (MIRA) USCIS-2008-0025-0208 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0208  USCIS-2008-0025-0 208_MIRA_r0715202:	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision. Thank you for your comment suggesting Form I-912 and Form I-942 be accessible online. The online capabilities of the Form I-912 and I-942 are not necessarily tied to this information collection and therefore beyond the scope. As this comment does not provide specific suggestions to revise this information collection, no changes will be made to the N-400 based on this comment. USCIS notes that it continues to implement its plan working toward expanding electronic filing for applications and petitions for immigration benefits which was developed pursuant to Section 4103 of the Emergency Stopgap USCIS Stabilization Act, Title I, Div. D of Public Law (P.L.) 116-159 (8 U.S.C. 1103 note).
Comment 10.	Commenter: NALEO USCIS-2008-0025-0211 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0211	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into

Responses to 60-Day FRN Public Comments

N-400, Application for Naturalization

87 FR 29758

5/2022-7/15/2022

<https://www.regulations.gov/document/USCIS-2008-0025-0197/comment>

Comment #	Public Comments	USCIS Response
	 USCIS-2008-0025-0 211_NALEO_r071520	plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision. Thank you for your comment suggesting Form I-912 and Form I-942 be accessible online. The online capabilities of the Form I-912 and I-942 are not necessarily tied to this information collection and therefore beyond the scope. As this comment does not provide specific suggestions to revise this information collection, no changes will be made to the N-400 based on this comment. USCIS notes that it continues to implement its plan working toward expanding electronic filing for applications and petitions for immigration benefits which was developed pursuant to Section 4103 of the Emergency Stopgap USCIS Stabilization Act, Title I, Div. D of Public Law (P.L.) 116-159 (8 U.S.C. 1103 note).
Comment 11.	Commenter: OneAmerica USCIS-2008-0025-0213 https://www.regulations.gov/comment/USCIS-2008-0025-0213  USCIS-2008-0025-0 213_OneAmerica_r07	Response: Thank you for your comment. This action is an extension, without change, of a currently approved collection to keep the N-400 information collection approved for use. USCIS is currently engaged in a separate N-400 revision project looking at ways to reduce the burden on respondents and revise content into plain language. We will take your suggestions into consideration as part of that revision. Thank you for your comment suggesting Form I-912 and Form I-942 be accessible online. The online capabilities of the Form I-912 and I-942 are not necessarily tied to this information collection and therefore beyond the scope. As this comment does not provide specific suggestions to revise this information collection, no changes will be made to the N-400 based on this comment. USCIS notes that it continues to implement its plan working toward expanding electronic filing for applications and petitions for immigration benefits which was developed pursuant to Section

Responses to 60-Day FRN Public Comments

N-400, Application for Naturalization

87 FR 29758

5/2022-7/15/2022

<https://www.regulations.gov/document/USCIS-2008-0025-0197/comment>

Comment #	Public Comments	USCIS Response
		4103 of the Emergency Stopgap USCIS Stabilization Act, Title I, Div. D of Public Law (P.L.) 116-159 (8 U.S.C. 1103 note).