Before You Start Your Application	Eligibility	You may apply online if your eligibility category is: •(B)(2): Temporary Protected Status (You are submitting an initial Form I-821 or you have an approved Form I-821); •(B)(3)(A) - F-1 student, pre-completion OPT; •(B)(3)(B) - F-1 student, post-completion OPT; •(B)(3)(C) - F-1 student, 24-month extension for STEM students (students holding a degree in science, technology, engineering, or mathematics); •(B)(3)(1) - Parole; •(B)(10) - Temporary Protected Status (You have a pending Form I-821); or •(B)(11) - Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA).  All other applicants must submit a paper Form I-765 .  Please review the specific filing instructions if you are filing Form I-765 under one of the following eligibility categories:  F1 Students Seeking Optional Practical Training (OPT)  (C)(3)(A) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before being enrolled as an F-1 foreign student for one full academic year at an educational institution approved by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP). Your period of employment will not start before you have completed one full academic year. If you completed the one-year requirement while in another valid nonimmigrant status and you are now in valid F-1 status, you are still eligible to apply for OPT.  (C)(3)(B) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before, but no later than 60 days after your program end date. You must submit your application within 30 days of the date that your designated school official (DSO) enters the recommendation for OPT into your Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) record. If you fail to do so, we will deny your OPT request.  (C)(3)(C) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 application up to 90 days before your current OPT expires, but you must submit within 60 days of the DSO's approval of STEM OPT.  Note: If you are an F-1 student filing for initial or extension of OPT, your OPT and your employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without authorization may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry. Consult your DSO for additional details.  Temporary Protected Status (TPS)  (D)(12) and (D)(15) eligibility categories: Submit Form I-765 with your Form I-821 application or with evidence that we accepted or approved your initial Form I-821. You must also follow the instructions for filing your application as described in the most recent TPS Federal Register notice regarding a TPS designation, re-designation, or extension for your country. For more information, review our instructions for TPS applicants .  Parole  (C)(11) eligibility category: File Form I-765 with a copy of your Form I-94, passport, or other travel document showing you were paroled into the United States for urgent humanitarian reasons or reasons of significant public benefit pursuant to INA 212(j)(5) (such as Cuban Family and Haitian Family Reunification Parole programs).  Note: For individuals paroled into the United States after a positive credible fear determination — On Feb. 7, 2022, in Asylumworks et al. v. Mayorkas et al. , the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia vacated several rules that affected applications for employment authorization filed by individuals who received positive credible fear determinations and were subsequently paroled into the United States. Credible fear parolees may file an EAD application at any time after being paroled into the United States, and may seek employment authorization under the (D)(11) category at the time of filing.		Link to https://www.uscis.gov/humanitarian/temporary-protected-status  www.uscis.gov/i-765		Recommended language to show online filing is only supported for (C)(3)(A), (C)(3)(B), and (C)(3)(C) eligibility categories
					https://www.uscis.gov/i-765
Fee		Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals  (D)(13) eligibility category: You must submit Form I-765 with Form I-821D or with proof that you previously filed Form I-821D.  Fee: $410.  TPS applicants: You must pay the Form I-765 filing fee if you are requesting an EAD as an initial TPS applicant, unless you are younger than 14 or older than 65. If you are re-registering for TPS and requesting an EAD, you must pay the Form I-765 filing fee.  Note: Your total filing fee will be shown at the end of this form. The total will include the application fee for Form I-765, biometric services fee (if required), and the fee for any other form you are submitting with this application.  Fee waiver: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you cannot file online. You must file a paper version of both the Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver and Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization. You can review the fee waiver guidance at www.uscis.gov/fee/waiver .  Refund Policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.  Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. 	Documents you may need	Most applicants must upload: •A copy of your Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record (front and back), a printout of your electronic Form I-94 from www.cbp.gov/i94 , passport, or other travel document. •A copy of your last EAD (front and back). If you were not previously issued an EAD, you must submit a copy of a government issued identity document (such as a passport) showing your picture, name, and date of birth; a birth certificate with photo ID, a visa issued by a foreign consulate; or a national ID document with photo and/or fingerprint. The identity document photograph must clearly show your facial features and contain your biographical information. •A color passport-style photograph of yourself taken recently.  We will automatically inform you which documents and additional evidence you may need to provide as you fill out your application. These recommendations for additional information will be based on the information you provide in the application, such as your personal history and circumstances.  Any document containing foreign language submitted to USCIS must be accompanied by a full English language translation that the translator has certified as complete and accurate, and by the translator's certification that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.
Biometric services appointment		USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application, petition, or request. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you in writing if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment.  If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that: 1. You provided or authorized all information in the application. 2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and 3. All of the declared information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.  If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application.				Specific to digital environment and part of global template previously approved by OMB
	After You Submit Your Application	Track your case online  Respond to requests for information	After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.  If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account. INTERACTIVE FORMS: ABOUT YOU

The About You step is the second part of the paper form that the applicant will complete. Questions relating to the applicant's personal information should be grouped in the About you step of the form and should be organized by the appropriate section. This step and section structure will inform the navigation and sub-navigation for the form. Personal information questions include questions about the applicant's name, contact information, immigration information, demographics, school and employment, military service, requests for accommodations, etc.

About You should be the THIRD TAB when creating a new copydeck.

I-765: ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Questions from the paper form should be identified in the Global Copydeck and the same copy should be used. This copy has been approved for use in its current state.

Step: Indicates the form navigation element. In this case, these questions would appear in the Getting Started step of the form.

Section: Indicates the form sub-navigation element. The following copy for questions is grouped by the section in which they should appear.

Questions/Sub-Questions: Based on the questions from the paper form.

Help text: Text that appears below or next to an input field, partially hidden. Users can click to expand. Provides additional contextual or clarifying information about a question.

Instructional text: Text that appears directly below a question and provides instructions for answering the question.

Question sets are separated by a double-line.

Conditional question logic is indicated in () before question.

The Review and Submit step is the last step that an applicant completes before submitting their form. Sections and Questions in the Review and Submit step should be mostly consistent across all forms but copy should be updated to reflect the statements, certification, and attestations on the paper form. Review and Submit should contain all of the copy relating to reviewing the application, the preparer/interpreter's certification and signature, the applicant's statements and signature, and paying/submitting the application.

Review and Submit should be the LAST TAB when creating a new copydeck for a form.
