Use this form to request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). Deferred action is an act of prosecutorial discretion.

Anyone who receives deferred action will not be placed into removal proceedings or removed from the United States if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) chooses to terminate the deferral. USCIS considers deferring action (including DACA) on a case-by-case basis.

Requesters filing Form I-821D must also file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765WS, Application for Employment Authorization (paper Form I-765WS) and upload the completed copy with your application.

Learn more about DACA.

You may file online only if you are submitting a renewal request. If you are submitting an initial request, you must file a paper Form I-821D.

You may be considered for renewal of DACA if you meet all the requirements for initial DACA and:

- Did not depart the United States on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since you submitted your most recent request for DACA that was approved;
- Have not been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to public safety.

We may consider deferring action in your case even if you have been arrested or detained by ICE, if charges were filed, or if charges were filed against you without an arrest. We will evaluate the facts of your case before reaching a decision on deferred action. If we determine that you have been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors not occurring on the same date and not arising out of the same act, or that you otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety, we are unlikely to defer action on your request.

CAUTION: If you file this request more than 150 days prior to the expiration of your current period of deferred action, we may reject your submission and return it to you with instructions to resubmit your request closer to the expiration date. Renewal requestors to file as early in the 150-day period as possible - ideally, at least 120 days before the expiration date.

If you are currently in immigration detention, you may not request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action. If you do not meet the guidelines of this process, you should identify yourself to your deportation office.

Note: You must submit this form with Form I-765 online. We will add Form I-765 for you to complete after you sign and submit your request.

Fee: $0. All requestors must pay a $410 filing fee for Form I-765 and a $85 biometric services fee. Once you complete your request, you must pay all fees and submit both forms.

Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request. If you are continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center (toll-free, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except on hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

At the end of your request, we will highlight certain documents that you should provide with your request for DACA. These documents include the evidence and supporting documentation listed. Refer to uscis.gov/i-821d if you need additional information about evidence and supporting documentation.

Individuals requesting DACA must submit biometrics. You may receive a notice scheduling you to appear at an Ap collection. Failure to comply with the notice may result in the denial of your deferred action request. USCIS may, in biometrics.

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to ch messages from USCIS.

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (R your documents through your USCIS account.

We will review your request to determine whether the exercise of prosecutorial discretion is appropriate in your ca case-by, case basis. AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Naturalization Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1522(a)(1)(A).

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to determine if you should be granted admission to the United States for your arrival. The information you provide will be used in making a decision whether to defer removal action in your case.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information or a false statement may result in denial of your form.

ROUTINE USES: The information you provide on this form may be shared with other federal, state, local, and foreign organizations following approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System and DHS/USCIS-007 - Tracking System] and the published privacy impact assessments [DHS/USCIS/PIA-016a Computer Linked Application Information Management System, DHS/USCIS/PIA-056 USCIS Electronic Immigration System] which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy.

OTHER DISCLOSURE INFORMATION: Information provided in this request is protected from disclosure to U.S. Immigration and Customs and Border Protection (CBP) for the purpose of immigration enforcement proceedings unless the requestor is referred to ICE under the criteria set forth in USCIS' 2011 Notice to Appear guidance (www.uscis.gov/NTA). This information is shared with security and law enforcement agencies, including ICE and CBP, for purposes other than removal, including for assistance in identifying and preventing fraudulent claims, for national security purposes, or for the information needed to identify or prevent fraudulent claims, for national security purposes, or for the information needed to identify or prevent fraudulent claims. The above information sharing clause covers family members and guardians, in addition to the requestor. This policy is not intended to be relied upon to create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by any party in any administrative proceeding.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 2.5 hours per response, including reviewing instructions and completing and submitting the form. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to:

You may file online only if you are submitting a renewal request. If you are submitting an initial request, you must file a paper Form I-821D.

You may be considered for renewal of DACA if you meet all the requirements for initial DACA and:

- Have continuously resided in the United States since you submitted your most recent request for DACA that was granted.
- Have not been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to public safety.

We may consider deferring action in your case even if you have been arrested or detained by ICE, if charges were filed, or if charges were filed against you without an arrest. We will evaluate the merits of your case before reaching a decision on deferred action. If we determine that you have been convicted of a felony or three or more misdemeanors not occurring on the same date and not arising out of the same act, or if you otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety, we are unlikely to defer action on your request.

Renewal requestors to file as early in the 150-day period as possible - ideally, at least 120 days before the expiration date.

If you are currently in immigration detention, you may request consideration of DACA as an exercise of discretion. If USCIS determines a favorable exercise of discretion is warranted to grant you DACA, USCIS will release you from detention. If you are requesting DACA, you should tell your deportation officer that you are requesting DACA.

Note: You must submit this form with Form I-765 online. We will add Form I-765 for you to complete after you sign the form.

Fee: $85. All requestors must pay a $410 filing fee for Form I-765 and a $85 biometric services fee. Once you complete the forms, you must pay all fees and submit both forms.

Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request. If you are continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center (toll-free, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except on hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature), provide additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your request. After USCIS receives your request and ensures it is complete, we will schedule a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local Appointment Scheduling Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the request;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your request; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application. Failure to comply with the action request. USCIS may, in its discretion, waive the collection of certain biometrics.

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Naturalization Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1324a, and 8 CFR Part 236, Subpart C.

ROUTINE USES: The information you provide on this form may be shared with other federal, state, local, and foreign organizations following approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS-001 - Immigration and Naturalization Service Tracking System and DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System] and the published privacy impact assessments [DHS/USCIS/PIA-016a - Document Management Program (IDDMP), DHS/USCIS/PIA-016a Computer Linked Application Information Management System, and DHS/USCIS/PIA-056 USCIS Electronic Immigration System] which can be found at www.dhs.gov/privacy.

OTHER DISCLOSURE INFORMATION: Information provided in this request will not be used by ICE and U.S. Customs and Border Protection for immigration enforcement proceedings against the requestor, unless DHS is initiating immigration enforcement proceedings against the requestor for an offense, fraud, a threat to national security, or public safety concerns. Information contained in this request related to the requestor will not be used for immigration enforcement purposes against such family members or guardians. Any information provided in this request will not be used by immigration enforcement agencies, including ICE and CBP, for purposes other than removal, including for assistance in the consideration of the request itself, to identify or prevent fraudulent claims, for national security purposes, or for the investigation or prosecution of a crime.

This policy is not intended to, does not, and may not be relied upon to create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, in any administrative, civil, or criminal matter.

Body Text

Use this form to request that USCIS exercise prosecutorial discretion in your favor under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. This form is for the renewal of deferred action.

Anyone who receives deferred action will not be placed into removal proceedings or removed from the United States if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) chooses to terminate the deferral. USCIS considers deferring action (including renewal of deferred action) on a case-by-case basis.

Requesters filing Form I-821D must also file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765-INS, Application for Employment Authorization Instructions, and upload the completed copy with your application.

Learn more about DACA.

To request DACA, you must be at least 15 years old, unless you are currently in removal proceedings or have a final order of removal.

You may be considered for initial deferred action if you:

- Were under the age of 31 as of June 15, 2012;
- Came to the United States before reaching your 16th birthday;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since June 15, 2007, up to the present time;
- Were physically present in the United States on June 15, 2012, and at the time of making your request for consideration of deferred action;
- Had no lawful status on June 15, 2012, meaning that you never had a lawful immigration status on or before June 15, 2012, or your lawful status, if you obtained prior to June 15, 2012, had expired as of June 15, 2012;
- Are currently in school, have graduated or obtained a certificate of completion from high school, have obtained a general education diploma from a secondary school, are an honorably discharged veteran of the Coast Guard or Armed Forces of the United States; and
- Have not been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, or three or more other misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

You may be considered for renewal of DACA if you meet all the requirements for initial DACA and:

- Did not depart the United States on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since you submitted your most recent request for DACA that was approved;
- Have not been convicted of a felony, a significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

We may consider deferring action in your case even if you have been arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer, including on a criminal charge, without an arrest. We will evaluate the totality of the circumstances in reaching a decision on deferred action. If you have been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors not occurring on the same date and not arising out of the same act, or if you pose a threat to national security or public safety, we are unlikely to defer action in your case.

CAUTION: If you file this request more than 150 days prior to the expiration of your current period of deferred action, you may need to resubmit your request closer to the expiration date. USCIS encourages renewal requestors to file as close as possible to the DACA expiration date.

If you are currently in immigration detention, you may not request consideration of Renewal of DACA from USCIS. You should contact yourself to your deportation office.

Note: You must submit this form with Form I-765 online. We will add Form I-765 for you to complete after you sign and submit the form.

Fee: $0. All requesters must pay a $410 filing fee for Form I-765 and a $85 biometric services fee. Once you complete and submit both forms.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5282 or 1-800-767-1833.

At the end of your request, we will highlight certain documents that you should provide with your request for DACA documentation listed. Refer to uscis.gov/i-821d if you need additional information about evidence requirements.

Individuals requesting DACA must submit biometrics. You may receive a notice scheduling you to appear at an Appointment Center. Failure to comply with the notice may result in the denial of your deferred action request. USCIS may, in its discretion, waive this requirement.

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check for updates.

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI) through your USCIS account.

We will review your request to determine whether the exercise of prosecutorial discretion is appropriate in your case. Even if you satisfy the threshold criteria for consideration of DACA, we may determine that deferred action is not warranted. There is no motion to reopen/reconsider the decision and there is no right to appeal.

Submitting your request online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online

- Form I-94, I-94W, or I-95 Arrival/Departure Record showing the date your authorized stay expired;

- A final order of exclusion, deportation, or removal issued as of June 15, 2012, along with the related charging document;

- An INS or DHS charging document placing you into removal proceedings, if available; or

- Any other document that you believe is relevant to show that on June 15, 2012, you had no lawful status.

If you were absent from the United States for any period of time since June 15, 2007, upload documents showing that your absence was considered brief, casual, and innocent, if it was on or after June 15, 2007, and before August 15, 2012, and:

- The absence was short and reasonably calculated to accomplish the purpose for the absence;
- The absence was not because of an order of exclusion, deportation, or removal;
- The absence was not because of an order of voluntary departure or an administrative grant of voluntary departure proceedings; and
- The purpose of the absence and/or your actions while outside of the United States were not contrary to law.

Examples of documents you may submit include copies of:

- Plane or other transportation tickets or itinerary showing the travel dates;
- Passport entries;
- Hotel receipts showing the dates you were abroad;
- Evidence of the purpose of the travel (e.g., you attended a wedding or funeral);
- Copy of Advance Parole Document issued by USCIS; and
- Any other evidence that could support a brief, casual, and innocent absence.

Upload documents that show that you:

- Are currently in school in the United States at the time of filing;
- Have graduated or received a certificate of completion or a certificate of attendance from a U.S. high school or a U.S. college; or
- Have obtained a GED certificate or other equivalent state-authorized exam in the United States.

Requestors who are currently in school (enrolled)

Evidence of enrollment may include, but is not limited to: school registration cards, acceptance or other letters showing progress reports, or other documents issued by a school district, state education agency, school, or program. These documents should include the name of the district or state educational agency, school, or program issuing the record; the dates or periods of enrollment you attended; and the level.

If you have been accepted for enrollment and your classes have not yet begun, you may submit an acceptance letter or other relevant evidence showing you have committed to starting classes on a certain date, including, for example, a copy of an Educational Program.

If you are enrolled in an educational, literacy, or career training program (including vocational training or an ESL course) that is partly funded by federal, state, local, or municipal funds includes a letter or other documentation from an authorized representative of the program that includes the name and date of enrollment, the duration of the program and expected completion date, the program's source of funding, and contact information.

If you are enrolled in an education, literacy, or career training program that is not publicly funded, include evidence of funding information from an authorized school representative relating to: the duration of the program's existence; the program's purpose, training, or post-secondary education; receipt of awards or special achievement or recognition that indicate the program's quality; and the program's overall quality.

Requestors who graduated from school or obtained a GED or equivalent state-authorized exam

Evidence to show that you meet the educational guideline because you have "graduated from school" or "obtained a GED or equivalent state-authorized exam" in the United States includes, but is not limited to:

- A high school diploma from a U.S. public or private high school or secondary school;
 - A recognized equivalent of a U.S. high school diploma under state law, including a GED certificate or other equivalent certificate of attendance;
 - A transcript that identifies the date of graduation or program completion;
 - An enrollment history that shows the date of graduation or program completion;

Upload evidence that proves you are an honorably discharged veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces or U.S. Coast Guard copies of your:

- Form DD-214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty;
- NGB Form 22, National Guard Report of Separation and Record of Service;
- Military personnel records;
- Military health records; or
- Any other relevant document.

If you have been arrested for or charged with any felony (i.e., a Federal, state, or local criminal offense punishable by more than one year in prison) (i.e., a Federal, state, or local criminal offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment authorized is one year or more) in any country other than the United States, you must upload evidence demonstrating the results of the arrest. If the records were handled in juvenile court, and the records are from a state with laws prohibiting their disclosure, this evidence is not required.

If you have ever been arrested for any felony or misdemeanor in the United States, or a crime in any country other than the United States, upload an original official statement by the arresting agency or applicable court order confirming that no charges were filed for the arrest.

If you have ever been charged with or convicted of a felony or misdemeanor in the United States, or a crime in any country other than the United States, upload a certified copy of the complete arrest record and disposition for each incident (e.g., dismissal order, conviction and sentence).

If you have ever had any arrest or conviction vacated, set aside, sealed, expunged, or otherwise removed from your record, upload the following:

- An original or court-certified copy of the court order vacating, setting aside, sealing, expunging, or otherwise removing the arrest or conviction.
- An original statement from the court that no record exists of your arrest or conviction.

If you are submitting a renewal request, you only need to submit any new documents pertaining to criminal history. You should submit new documents if you have been charged with, or convicted of, a felony or misdemeanor (please note that you must not have submitted them with a previous DACA request).

If you are unable to provide documentation or if it is not available, upload an explanation, including a description of the documentation you are unable to provide.

NOTE: You do not need to submit documentation concerning minor traffic violations such as driving without a license.

Upload a copy of the removal order, any document issued by the immigration judge, or the final decision of the Board of Immigration Appeals.

If you are submitting a renewal request, you only need to submit any new documents pertaining to your case that were not already submitted to USCIS. However, you should submit new documents if you are currently in removal proceedings (please note, you do not need to submit these documents if your case was administratively closed).

Sub-Question

I declare that I prepared this Form I-821D at the requestor's behest, and it is based on all the information of which I have knowledge.

As the requester's preparer, you must sign on paper and provide your signature page to the requester. Follow these steps:

1. Download the Preparer Signature page
2. Print the Preparer Signature page
3. Read and sign the Preparer Signature page
4. Give the signed Preparer Signature page to the requester

The requester will need to scan and upload your completed signature page on the next screen.

I certify, under penalty of perjury, that: I am fluent in English and the language provided in the Getting Started section of this request, and I have read to this requestor in the identified language every question and instruction on this form and his or her answer to every question. The requestor informed me that he or she understands every instruction, question, and answer on the form, as well as the answer to every question.

As the requester's interpreter, you must sign on paper and provide your signature page to the requester. Follow these steps:

1. Download the Interpreter Signature page
2. Print the Interpreter Signature page
3. Read and sign the Interpreter Signature page
4. Give the signed Interpreter Signature page to the requester

The requester will need to scan and upload your completed signature page on the next screen.

I can read and understand English, and have read and understand every question and instruction on this form, as well as my answer to every question.

The interpreter named in the Getting Started section of this application read to me every question and instruction on this form and my answer to every question in the language I specified in the Getting Started section, a language in which I am able to understand everything.

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that foregoing information is true, correct and that copies of documents submitted are exact photocopies of unaltered original documents. I understand that I may be required to submit original documents to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) at a later date. I also understand that knowingly and willfully providing materially false information on this form is a federal felony punishable by a fine, imprisonment for not more than 5 years, or both, under 18 U.S.C. section 1001.

Furthermore, I authorize the release of any information from my record that USCIS may need for a determination on my deferred action request.

I have read and agree to the requestor's statement

Finish the I-821D and continue to the I-765

By finishing this form, your Form I-821D will be locked and no further changes can be made. Please be sure that the information on your Form I-821D is complete and accurate before continuing. If you make any edits after finishing, you will need to create a new Form I-821D.

Next, you will continue to Form I-765. Once you complete Form I-765, you can pay for and submit both forms at the same time.

Copies of any documents I have submitted are exact photocopies of unaltered, original documents. I understand that USCIS may require that I submit original documents to USCIS at a later date. Furthermore, I authorize the release of any information from any and all of my records that USCIS may need to determine my eligibility for the request that I seek.

I furthermore authorize release of information contained in this request, in supporting documents, and my USCIS records, to other entities and persons where necessary for the administration and enforcement of U.S. immigration law.

I understand that USCIS may require me to appear for an appointment to take my biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) and, at that time, if I am required to provide biometrics, I will be required to sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. I reviewed and provided or authorized all of the information in my request;
2. I understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, my request; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that foregoing information is true and correct and that copies of documents submitted are exact photocopies of unaltered original documents. Body Text (Re-registration)

Certain foreign nationals who are in the United States may file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization Document (EAD). Other foreign nationals whose immigration status authorizes them to work in the United States may file an EAD that shows such authorization.

Foreign nationals may also apply for a Social Security number and card on Form I-765.

If you are a lawful permanent resident, a conditional permanent resident, or a nonimmigrant only authorized to work, you may use Form I-765.

Learn more about employment authorization.

You may apply online if your eligibility category is:

- (c)(3)(A) - F-1 student, pre-completion OPT;
- (c)(3)(B) - F-1 student, post-completion OPT;
- (c)(3)(C) - F-1 student, 24-month extension for STEM students (students holding a degree in a STEM field);
- (a)(12) - Temporary Protected Status (You are submitting an initial Form I-821 or you have a pending Form I-821);
- (c)(19) - Temporary Protected Status (You have a pending Form I-821);
- (c)(8) - Pending Asylum and Withholding of Removal Applicants and Applicants for Asylum;
- (c)(33) - Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA).

All other applicants must submit a paper Form I-765.

Please review the specific filing instructions if you are filing Form I-765 under one of the following categories:

F-1 Students Seeking Optional Practical Training (OPT)

(c)(3)(A) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before being enrolled as an F-1 student at an educational institution approved by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and your employment will not start before you have completed one full academic year. If you come to the United States on nonimmigrant status and you are now in valid F-1 status, you are still eligible to apply for OPT.

(c)(3)(B) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 up to 90 days before, but no later than 60 days before, your application within 30 days of the date that your designated school official (DSO) enters the information into the Visitor Information System (SEVIS) record. If you fail to do so, we will deny your OPT request.

(c)(3)(C) eligibility category: Submit Form I-765 application up to 90 days before your current F-1 status expires. DSO's approval of STEM OPT.

Note: If you are an F-1 student filing for initial or extension of OPT, your OPT and your employment authorization will expire if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States on OPT may result in denial of re-entry from the United States or denial of re-entry. Consult your DSO for additional details.

Temporary Protected Status (TPS)

(a)(12) and (c)(19) eligibility categories: Submit Form I-765 with your Form I-821 application for TPS. If you are filing an initial Form I-821. You must also follow the instructions for filing your application as described in the instructions regarding a TPS designation, re-designation, or extension for your country.

Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals

(c)(33) eligibility category: You must submit Form I-765 with Form I-821D.

Fee: $410.

TPS applicants: You must pay the Form I-765 filing fee if you are requesting an EAD as an initial TPS application. If you are re-registering for TPS and requesting an EAD, you must pay the Form I-765 filing fee.

Note: Your total filing fee will be shown at the end of this form. The total will include the application fee (if required), and the fee for any other form you are submitting with this application.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-7673.

Most applicants must upload:

- A copy of your Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record (front and back), a printout of your electronic I-94.
- A copy of your last EAD (front and back). If you were not previously issued an EAD, you must submit a copy of a document that shows your picture, name, and date of birth; a birth certificate with photo ID; a visa issued by a foreign consulate; or a national ID document with photo and/or fingerprint. The identity document photocopy must clearly show your facial features and contain your biographical information.
- A color passport-style photograph of yourself taken recently.

We will automatically inform you which documents and additional evidence you may need to provide as you fill out your application. The evidence you will be based on the information you provide in the application, such as your personal history and circumstances.

Any document containing foreign language submitted to USCIS must be accompanied by a full English language translation of the document by the translator's certification that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), as part of your application, petition, or request. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you of any requirements.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
3. All of the declared information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application.

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information through your USCIS account.

The decision on Form I-765 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration writing. If your application is approved, we will either mail your EAD to you or we may require you to visit your local office. If your application is denied, you will receive a written notice explaining the basis of your denial.

Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online application.

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the processing of your application.

We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form, or from the last time you worked on the form.

After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.

Upload a recent color photograph of yourself that measures 2 inches by 2 inches, with your face measuring 1 inch to 1 3/8 inch from your chin to the top of your head. Your eyes should be between 1 1/8 inch and 1 3/8 inch from the bottom of the photo.

Upload

Make sure your whole face is visible, you are facing the camera directly, and the background is white or off-white. Your head must be bare, unless contrary to your religious beliefs.

If you need help understanding the photo requirements or want to resize, rotate, or crop your photo, you can use the Department of State's photo composition tools. Please note that we cannot approve your application without your photo.

Upload a copy of one of the following:

- Your Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record (front and back);
- A printout of your electronic Form I-94 ; or
- Your passport or other travel document.

Upload

If you were admitted to the United States by CBP at an airport or seaport after April 30, 2013, CBP may have issued you an electronic Form I-94 instead of a paper Form I-94. You may visit the CBP website to obtain a paper version of an electronic Form I-94. CBP does not charge a fee for this service. Some travelers admitted to the United States at a land border, airport, or seaport, after April 30, 2013, with a passport or travel document, who were issued a paper Form I-94 by CBP, may also be able to obtain a replacement Form I-94 from the CBP website without charge.

If your Form I-94 cannot be obtained from the CBP website, it may be obtained by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. USCIS does charge a fee for this service.

Upload a copy of your last Employment Authorization document (EAD) (front and back). If you were not previously issued an EAD, you must upload a copy of a government-issued identity document (such as a passport) showing your picture, name, and date of birth; a birth certificate with photo ID; a visa issued by a foreign consulate; or a national ID document with photo and/or fingerprint. The identity document photocopy must clearly show your facial features and contain your biographical information.

Upload

Upload evidence of having been lawfully enrolled on a full-time basis for one full academic year at a college, university, conservatory, or seminary approved by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) for attendance by F-1 foreign students.

Upload evidence of any previously authorized CPT or OPT and the academic level at which it was authorized.

Upload a copy of the Form I-20, Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student Status endorsed by the Designated School Official (DSO). For the (c)(3)(B) eligibility category, your DSO must have entered the recommendation for OPT into your SEVIS record within 30 days of you submitting Form I-765. If you fail to do so, we will deny your OPT request. For the (c)(3)(C) eligibility category, the Form I-20 must have been endorsed by the DSO within 60 days of submitting Form I-765.

Upload

Upload evidence that the degree that is the basis for the STEM OPT extension is in one of the degree programs currently listed on the STEM Designated Degree Program List or a copy of your prior STEM degree.

Upload

Upload evidence that the institution that granted your STEM degree is currently accredited by the U.S. Department of Education and certified by the Student Exchange and Visitor Program (SEVP), if this STEM OPT extension is based on a previously earned STEM degree.

Upload

If an EOIR Immigration Judge (EOIR IJ) or the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) granted TPS, and you are requesting your first EAD or re-registering for the first time, upload a copy of the EOIR IJ or BIA order that granted TPS (such as a copy of your Form I-821 that the EOIR IJ or BIA approved).

Upload proof of your identity and nationality. Examples of documents you may submit include copies of your:

- Passport (cover to cover);
- Birth certificate accompanied by photo identification; or
- Any national identity document from your country of origin that includes your photo and/or fingerprint.

If you previously filed Form I-821, upload evidence that we accepted or approved your initial Form I-821.

Download, complete, and upload Form I-765WS so that we can determine whether you have an economic need for work.
