III. RECITALS

WHEREAS, on July 11, 2019, AFT, Randi Weingarten, Deborah Baker, Cynthia Miller, Janelle Menzel, Gloria Nolan, Kelly Finlaw, Crystal Adams, Michael Giambona, and Connie Wakefield brought an action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, alleging (among other things) that the Department violated the United States Constitution and the Administrative Procedure Act in its administration of PSLF and TEPSLF (Dkt. 1); and

WHEREAS, after dismissal of parts of the original complaint, on December 14, 2020, Plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, alleging (among other things) that the Department violated the United States Constitution and the Administrative Procedure Act in its administration of PSLF and TEPSLF (Dkt. 41); and

WHEREAS, the Parties and their counsel have agreed to resolve and settle this matter according to the terms of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Parties believe that this Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate in its resolution of the claims being released by the Plaintiffs; and

NOW, THEREFORE, without (i) any admission or concession on the part of Plaintiffs of the lack of merit of the Litigation whatsoever or (ii) any admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing or the lack of merit of any defense whatsoever by Defendants, the Parties agree that, in reliance upon and subject to the representations, mutual promises, covenants, releases, and obligations set forth in this Agreement, and for good and valuable consideration, the Litigation will be settled, compromised, and dismissed with prejudice upon the terms and conditions set forth below.

IV. DEFENDANTS' CONSIDERATION

In consideration for the promises undertaken by Plaintiffs as set forth in this Agreement, Defendants agree as follows:

A. Borrower Outreach and Application Review

1. Within 90 days of the Execution of this Agreement, the Department will notify by email groups of Borrowers who may be eligible for PSLF or TEPSLF to inform them that they may qualify for loan forgiveness under PSLF or TEPSLF if they submit additional documentation. The notification will inform the Borrower how to submit proof of Qualifying Employment to the Department. The Department will also publicly announce this effort on its relevant websites and social media accounts.
  - 1.1 The categories of Borrowers to receive this notice will include Borrowers who:
    - a. Have at least one open Direct Loan;
    - b. Have a PSLF application that was rejected because of lack of Qualifying Payments; and
    - c. Have been in repayment on a Direct Loan for at least nine years; or
    - d. Borrowers who were previously denied TEPSLF for failure to meet requirements related to the amount of their final payments but now meet those requirements due to the COVID Forbearance.
2. Within 90 days of the Execution of this Agreement, the Department will begin reviewing applications for PSLF and TEPSLF that were denied prior to November 1, 2020 for PSLF and TEPSLF eligibility. The Department's review will be limited to those who have 10 years of repayment on a Direct Loan as of the Execution of this Agreement. The Department's review will start with those who have been in repayment on Direct Loans the longest and work toward those who have been in repayment for the least amount of time. The Department provides no guarantees regarding the length of time dedicated to its review.

3. After conducting the review described in Section IV(A)(2), and upon reaching a final decision on that review, the Department will provide notice by email to each Borrower of the status of his or her application. If the application is denied by the Department, the notice will inform the Borrower of:
  - 3.1 A brief statement of the reason for the denial;
  - 3.2 The number of payments the Borrower has remaining to achieve PSLF or TEPSLF relief;
  - 3.3 Whom the Borrower should contact to determine how the Borrower might achieve the 120-month requirement;
  - 3.4 The process by which the Borrower may obtain reconsideration as discussed in Section IV(B); and
  - 3.5 How borrowers may obtain information from their online account about whether each particular payment made on their account met the conditions to be Qualifying Payments.
4. The notice of denial of an application for loan forgiveness pursuant to the review described in Section IV(A)(2)-(3) will constitute a final decision under the Administrative Procedure Act.
5. The notices described in Section IV(A)(1) and (3) may be supplanted by relevant regulations resulting from the Negotiated Rulemaking Process on PSLF. Such an event would not constitute an amendment of, or breach of, or otherwise be cause to void this Agreement or any part thereof.

B. Reconsideration Process

1. As soon as practicable but no later than April 30, 2022, the Department will establish an interim reconsideration process that will be available to any Borrower whose application for PSLF or TEPSLF has been or is denied.
2. Any Borrower who wants to have his or her status with respect to achieving PSLF/TEPSLF relief (including the calculation and identification of Qualifying Payments or months of Qualifying Employment) reviewed by the Department will receive reconsideration through the interim reconsideration process upon request.
3. The interim reconsideration process will be directly managed by an appropriate Department official.

4. The terms of the interim reconsideration process described in this Section will be public and clearly communicated to Borrowers no later than January 31, 2022.
5. Borrowers will be permitted to provide any evidence they wish to provide in support of their reconsideration request.
6. If the reconsideration does not result in approval of the Borrower's application for PSLF or TEPSLF relief, the Borrower will receive notice by email of the reasons for denial, as described above in Section IV(A)(3).
7. The interim reconsideration process described in this Section may be supplanted by relevant regulations resulting from the Negotiated Rulemaking Process on PSLF. Such an event would not constitute an amendment of, or breach of, or otherwise be cause to void this Agreement or any part thereof.

C. Individual Plaintiffs

1. The Department will discharge the remaining balance of the Individual Plaintiffs' loans at issue in the Amended Complaint by January 31, 2022.
2. The discharge of the Individual Plaintiffs' remaining balances in Section IV.C.1 will not include a refund of any overpayments made on the loans at issue in the Amended Complaint. The Individual Plaintiffs agree not to seek refunds of any overpayments made on the loans at issue in the Amended Complaint from the Department.
3. The discharge will be done in a manner that will not result in income for the Individual Plaintiffs for Federal tax purposes. See American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, P.L. 117-2, § 9675.
4. If the Department fails to discharge the Individual Plaintiffs' loans at issue in the Amended Complaint by January 31, 2022, the Individual Plaintiffs may enforce the terms of Section IV.C.1 only as set forth in Section VIII.B below.

V. FEES & COSTS

The Parties will bear their own fees and costs. In exchange for the commitments set forth above, Plaintiffs agree to dismiss the Litigation with prejudice after Execution of this Agreement, as provided in Section VIII.A below.

VI. WAIVER AND RELEASE

Upon the execution of this Agreement, Plaintiffs, and their heirs, administrators, representatives, attorneys, successors, and assigns, and each of them hereby forever waive, release, and forever discharge Defendants, and their successors, the United States of America, and any department, agency, or establishment of the United States, and any officers, employees, and agents, successors, or assigns of such department, agency, or establishment, from, and are forever barred and precluded from prosecuting, any and all claims, causes of action, motions, and requests for any injunctive, declaratory, and/or monetary relief, including but not limited to damages, tax payments, debt relief, costs, attorney's fees, expenses, and/or interest, whether presently known or unknown, contingent or liquidated, alleged in this Litigation against Defendants through and including the Execution of this Agreement, including but not limited to the right to appeal any and all claims Plaintiffs asserted in this Litigation. This Agreement is not intended to release any claim based on an act or omission or other conduct occurring after the Execution of this Agreement. The Parties do not intend to waive or narrow any res judicata defense Defendants could assert against a future claim brought by any Plaintiff.

VII. NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY

This Agreement, whether it becomes final or not, does not constitute, nor will it be construed to constitute, an admission of any wrongdoing or liability by Defendants, an admission by Defendants of the truth of any allegation or the validity of any claim asserted in this Litigation, a concession or admission by Defendants of any fault or omission of any act or failure to act, or an admission by Defendants that the consideration provided to Plaintiffs under this Agreement represents relief that could be recovered by Plaintiffs in this Litigation.

VIII. DISMISSAL AND ENFORCEMENT

A. Dismissal

Within two (2) days of the Execution of this Agreement, Plaintiffs will dismiss the Litigation against Defendants with prejudice, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), by filing the Stipulation of Dismissal attached hereto as Exhibit A.

B. Enforcement

Plaintiffs may not offer, proffer, or refer to any of the terms of this Agreement as evidence in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings, except as set forth below:

1. The Parties jointly seek only limited retention of jurisdiction of the Court following dismissal of the Action with respect to enforcement of this Agreement. The Court shall retain jurisdiction only to enforce the terms set forth in Section IV.C.1, and only in the manner explicitly provided in this Section VIII.B. The Court shall retain jurisdiction only to order the relief explicitly specified in Section IV.C.1 and only where Defendants have not provided that relief pursuant to the procedures specified in this Section. The Court shall lack jurisdiction to imply any claims, or authority to issue any other relief, under this Agreement.
2. The exclusive procedure for any Individual Plaintiff to move to enforce the terms set forth in Section IV.C.1 are as follows:
  - a. Prior to moving to enforce the terms set forth in Section IV.C.1, the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel shall submit written notice to Defendants' counsel. Such notice shall be submitted by electronic mail and shall specify the obligation with which Defendants have allegedly not complied; describe the facts and circumstances supporting the claim; and state that one or more Individual Plaintiff(s) intends to seek an order from the Court, as set forth in this Section VIII.B. Those Individual Plaintiff(s) identified in the written notice shall not inform the Court of their allegation(s) at that time.

- b. Within 2 business days of receipt of the written notice from the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel, Defendants' counsel will acknowledge receipt of the notice.
- c. Defendants shall have a period of 10 days after receipt of such written notice to inform the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel in writing of their determination as to whether Defendants have complied with the obligation(s) set forth in Section IV.C.1, including relevant information that informed Defendants' determination.
  1. If Defendants do not agree that they failed to comply with their obligations under Section IV.C.1, the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' counsel will meet and confer within 5 business days of Defendants' response to the Individual Plaintiffs' written notice. If the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' counsel cannot resolve the disagreement within 21 days from their meet and confer, the Individual Plaintiff(s) identified in the written notice may file a motion for enforcement of Section IV.C.1 with the Court.
  2. If Defendants agree that they failed to comply with their obligations under Section IV.C.1, Defendants will disclose in writing any action they propose to take to comply with their obligations under Section IV.C.1 to the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel. The Individual Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' counsel will meet and confer regarding Defendants' proposal within 5 business days of Defendants' transmission of Defendants' proposal to Individual Plaintiffs' counsel.
    - i. If the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' counsel agree in writing that the actions are sufficient to comply with Defendants' obligations under Section IV.C.1, Defendants will have 21 days following the agreement to take such action.
    - ii. If the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' counsel cannot reach consensus on the appropriate action Defendants should undertake to comply with their obligations under Section IV.C.1 within 21 days from their meet and confer, the Individual Plaintiff(s) identified in the written notice may file a motion for enforcement of Section IV.C.1 with the Court.

3. Absent the prior, written agreement of the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' counsel, any application to the Court for an order compelling the relief specified in Section IV.C.1 must be brought on or before January 31, 2024.
4. If Defendants are unable to perform any of the obligations set forth in Section IV.C.1 by January 31, 2022, due to extraordinary circumstances beyond Defendants' control, Defendants' counsel will notify the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel within 14 days of Defendants' determination that they will not be able to perform their obligations. That notification will describe the facts providing the basis for believing that extraordinary circumstances beyond Defendants' control prevent Defendants from timely performing their obligations and present the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel with a proposal for meeting Defendants' obligations under Section IV.C.1 as soon as practicable. Within 14 days of that notice, the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendants' counsel will meet and confer as to whether the circumstances are beyond the Defendants' control and to what extent they affect Defendants' ability to perform their obligations set forth in Section IV.C.1 in a timely manner. If the Individual Plaintiffs and Defendants cannot agree within 21 days of their meet and confer as to whether extraordinary circumstances exist or whether Defendants can meet their obligations under Section IV.C.1 in a timely manner, the Individual Plaintiffs may file a motion for enforcement of Section IV.C.1 with the Court.
5. The Parties stipulate and agree that the Court shall have no jurisdiction over any claims, causes of actions, motions, suits, allegations, or other requests for relief in this Litigation that are not expressly stated in this Section VIII.B.
6. The Parties stipulate and agree that the Court shall have no jurisdiction to supervise, monitor, or issue orders in this Litigation, except to the extent that the Individual Plaintiffs invoke the Court's jurisdiction pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Section VIII.B.
