

REQUIRED SEMI-ANNUAL STATUS REPORT

A status report must be submitted every six months for this award.

For subgranting awards, the status report should include a brief outline of subaward activities that have taken place to date and what is left for the remainder of the period of performance. Identify goals met and/or any challenges faced. Be as concise as possible. Report also on your management and administration of the subaward program.

You must provide a status report(s) regarding your American Rescue Plan subgranting award program.

This report is due six (6) months after the start date of your period of performance, and every six (6) months after that until the end of the period of performance for this award. The period of performance is listed in your award's record in REACH.

The status report(s) should include a brief outline of subaward activities that have taken place to date and what is left for the remainder of the period of performance. Identify goals met and/or any challenges faced. Be as concise as possible. Report also on your management and administration of the subaward program.

Note: This requirement does not replace the Payment Request Progress Report that is required the first time you request more than two-thirds of your award amount. For more information regarding the Payment Request Progress Reports see the General Terms and Conditions and How to Manage Your National Endowment for the Arts Award and eGMS Reach Handbook for details.

Submit the status report(s) via the Forms and Reports Tab in REACH.

If a semi-annual report is past due, no funds will be released until it is submitted.

Due Dates:

(1) If the start date of award is 12/1/2021 then submit the required status reports by 5/31/2022, 11/30/2022, 5/31/2023, etc.

(2) If the start date of award is 1/1/2022 then submit the required status reports by 6/30/2022, 12/31/2022, 6/30/2023, etc.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement

The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at an average of one hour per response. This includes the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. We welcome any suggestions that you might have on improving the guidelines and making them as easy to use as possible. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: webmgr@arts.gov, attention: Reporting Burden. Note: Applicants/awardees are not required to respond to the collection of information unless it displays a currently valid U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number.
