A MESSAGE FROM SOCIAL SECURITY

Your funeral director is helping the Social Security Administration office by providing giving you this information about Social Security benefits. If the deceased was receiving benefits, you need to contact us to report the death. If you think you may be eligible for survivors benefits, you should contact us to apply.

HOW SOCIAL SECURITY HELPS FAMILIES

Social Security survivors benefits help ease the financial burden that follows a worker's death. Almost all children under age 18 will receive get monthly benefits if a working parent dies. Other family members may be eligible for benefits, too.

Anyone who has worked and paid Social Security Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) taxes has been earning Social Security benefits for his or her family. The amount of work needed to pay survivors benefits depends on the worker's age at the time of death. It may be as little as 1 to 1.5-1 1/2 years for a young worker. No one needs more than 10 years.

WHO CAN GET SURVIVORS BENEFITS?

Here is a list of family members who are typically eligible for usually can get benefits:

- Surviving spouses Widows and widowers age 60 or older.
- Surviving spouses Widows and widowers at any age if caring for the deceased's child(ren) who are under age 16 or disabled.
- Divorced spouses wives and husbands age 60 or older, if married to the deceased 10 years or more.
- Surviving spouses and divorced spouses Widows, widowers, divorced wives, and divorced husbands age 50 or older, if they are disabled.
- Children up to age 18.
- Children age 18 - 19, if they attend elementary school or high school full time.
- Children over age 18, if they became disabled before age 22.
- The deceased worker's parents age 62 or older, if they were being supported by the worker.

A SPECIAL ONE-TIME PAYMENT

In addition to the monthly benefits for family members, a one-time lump-sum death payment of $255 can be paid to a spouse who was living with the worker at the time of death. If there is none, it can be paid to:

- A spouse who is eligible for benefits.
- A child or children eligible for benefits.

This payment cannot be made if there is no eligible spouse or child.

HOW TO APPLY FOR BENEFITS

How you sign up for Social Security benefits depends on whether or not you are receiving getting other Social Security benefits.

If you aren't receiving getting Social Security benefits, you can apply for benefits by telephone, by accessing the Social Security website www.socialsecurity.gov, or by going to any local Social Security office. You may need some of the documents shown on the list below. But don't Do not delay your application because you do not don't have all the information. Collection and Use of Personal Information

Section 202 of the Social Security Act, as amended, allows us to collect this information. Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely determination concerning eligibility for death benefit payments.

We will use the information you provide to establish proof of death for the insured worker; to determine if the insured individual was receiving any pre-death benefits we need to terminate; and to determine which surviving family member is eligible for the lump-sum death payment or other death benefits. We may also share the information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To applicants or claimants, prospective applicants or claimants (other than the data subject), their authorized representatives or representative payees to the extent necessary to pursue Social Security claims, and to representative payees, when the information pertains to individuals for whom they serve as representative payees, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration in administering its representative payees in performing their duties as payees, including receiving and accounting for benefits for individuals for whom they serve as payees; and
- To Federal, State, or local agencies (or agents on their behalf), for administering income or health maintenance programs including programs under the Social Security Act.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORN) 60-0058, Master Files of Social Security Number (SSN) Holders and SSN Applications, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on December 29, 2010, at 75 FR 82121; 60-0090, Master Beneficiary Record, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1826; and 60-0103, Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits, as published in the FR on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1830.
