The resolutions of the Board of Directors authorizing the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of the Recipient’s obligations hereunder, including the issuance of the Preferred Shares, a copy of which has been provided to the Investor prior to the Signing Date, are true, complete and correct copies of such documents as in full force and effect as of the Signing Date and as of the Closing Date. This Agreement is a valid and binding obligation of the Recipient enforceable against the Recipient in accordance with its terms, subject to any limitations by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, conservatorship, receivership or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors’ rights generally and general equitable principles, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity (“Bankruptcy Exceptions”).

(ii) The execution, delivery and performance by the Recipient of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and compliance by the Recipient with the provisions hereof, will not (A) violate, conflict with, or result in a breach of any provision of, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the termination of, or accelerate the performance required by, or result in a right of termination or acceleration of, or result in the creation of, any lien, security interest, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of the Recipient or any subsidiary of the Recipient (each subsidiary, a “Recipient Subsidiary” and, collectively, the “Recipient Subsidiaries”) under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (x) its organizational documents or (y) any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, agreement or other instrument or obligation to which the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary is a party or by which it or any Recipient Subsidiary may be bound, or to which the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary or any of the properties or assets of the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary may be subject, or (B) subject to compliance with the statutes and regulations referred to in the next paragraph, violate any statute, rule or regulation or any judgment, ruling, order, writ, injunction or decree applicable to the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary or any of their respective properties or assets except, in the case of clauses (A)(y) and (B), for those occurrences that, individually or in the aggregate, have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(iii) Other than the filing of the Certificate of Designations with the Secretary of State of its jurisdiction of organization or other applicable Governmental Entity, such filings and approvals as are required to be made or obtained under any state “blue sky” laws and such as have been made or obtained, no notice to, filing with, exemption or review by, or authorization, consent or approval of, any Governmental Entity is required to be made or obtained by the Recipient in connection with the consummation by the Recipient of the Purchase except for any such notices, filings, exemptions, reviews, authorizations, consents and approvals the failure of which to make or obtain would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Anti-Takeover Provisions and Rights Plan. The Board of Directors has taken all necessary action to ensure that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will be exempt from any anti-takeover or similar provisions of the Recipient’s Charter and bylaws, and any other provisions of any applicable “moratorium”, “control share”, “fair price”, “interested stockholder” or other anti-takeover laws and regulations of any jurisdiction.

(g) No Material Adverse Effect. Since the last day of the last completed fiscal period for which financial statements are included in the Recipient Financial Statements, no fact, circumstance, event, change, occurrence, condition or development has occurred that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, except as disclosed on Schedule C.

(h) Recipient Financial Statements. The Recipient Financial Statements present fairly in all material respects the consolidated financial position of the Recipient and its consolidated subsidiaries as of the dates indicated therein and the consolidated results of their operations for the periods specified therein; and except as stated therein, such financial statements (i) were prepared in conformity with GAAP applied on a consistent basis (except as may be noted therein) and (ii) have been prepared from, and are in accordance with, the books and records of the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries.

(i) Reports.

(i) Since December 31, 2019, the Recipient and each Recipient Subsidiary has filed all reports, registrations, documents, filings, statements and submissions, together with any amendments thereto, that it was required to file with any Governmental Entity (the foregoing, collectively, the “Recipient Reports”) and has paid all fees and assessments due and payable in connection therewith, except, in each case, as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. As of their respective dates of filing, the Recipient Reports complied in all material respects with all statutes and applicable rules and regulations of the applicable Governmental Entities.

(ii) The records, systems, controls, data and information of the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of the Recipient or the Recipient Subsidiaries or their accountants (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the system of internal accounting controls described below in this Section 3.1(i)(ii). The Recipient (A) has implemented and maintains adequate disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that material information relating to the Recipient, including the consolidated Recipient Subsidiaries, is made known to the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of the Recipient by others within those entities, and (B) has disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation prior to the Signing Date, to the Recipient’s outside auditors and the audit committee of the Board of Directors (x) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal controls that are reasonably likely to adversely affect the Recipient’s ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information and (y) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Recipient’s internal controls over financial reporting.

(j) No Undisclosed Liabilities. Neither the Recipient nor any of the Recipient Subsidiaries has any liabilities or obligations of any nature (absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) which are not properly reflected or reserved against in the Recipient Financial Statements to the extent required to be so reflected or reserved against in accordance with GAAP, except for (i) liabilities that have arisen since the last fiscal year end in the ordinary and usual course of business and consistent with past practice and (ii) liabilities that, individually or in the aggregate, have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(k) Offering of Securities. Neither the Recipient nor any person acting on its behalf has taken any action (including any offering of any securities of the Recipient under circumstances which would require the integration of such offering with the offering of any of the Preferred Shares under the Securities Act, and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) promulgated thereunder), which might subject the offering, issuance or sale of any of the Preferred Shares to Investor pursuant to this Agreement to the registration requirements of the Securities Act or, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association, the registration requirements of Part 16—Securities Offering Disclosure Rules of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (12 C.F.R. Part 16) (“Part 16”).

(l) Litigation and Other Proceedings. Except (i) as set forth on Schedule D or (ii) as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, there is no (A) pending or, to the knowledge of the Recipient, threatened, claim, action, suit, investigation or proceeding, against the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary or to which any of their assets are subject nor is the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary subject to any order, judgment or decree or (B) unresolved violation, criticism or exception by any Governmental Entity with respect to any report or relating to any examinations or inspections of the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiaries. There is no claim, action, suit, investigation or proceeding pending or, to the Recipient’s knowledge, threatened against any institution-affiliated party (as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1813(u)) of the Recipient or any of the IDI Subsidiaries that, if determined or resolved in a manner adverse to such institution-affiliated party, could result in such institution-affiliated party being prohibited from participation in the conduct of the affairs of any financial institution or holding company of any financial institution and, to the Recipient’s knowledge, there are no facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to provide a basis for any such claim, action, suit, investigation or proceeding.

(m) Compliance with Laws. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries have all permits, licenses, franchises, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and have made all filings, applications and registrations with, Governmental Entities that are required in order to permit them to own or lease their properties and assets and to carry on their business as presently conducted and that are material to the business of the Recipient or such Recipient Subsidiary. The Recipient has all permits, licenses, franchises, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and has made all filings, applications and registrations with, Governmental Entities and third parties that are required in order to permit the Recipient to declare and pay dividends on the Preferred Shares on the Dividend Payment Dates (as defined in the Certificate of Designations), except such as may be required to be obtained or made after the Closing Date under federal or state banking laws or regulations relating to capital adequacy, recent earnings, retained earnings or undivided profits. Except as set forth on Schedule E, the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries have complied in all respects and are not in default or violation of, and none of them is, to the knowledge of the Recipient, under investigation with respect to or, to the knowledge of the Recipient, have been threatened to be charged with or given notice of any violation of, any applicable domestic (federal, state or local) or foreign law, statute, ordinance, license, rule, regulation, policy or guideline, order, demand, writ, injunction, decree or judgment of any Governmental Entity, other than such noncompliance, defaults or violations that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except for statutory or regulatory restrictions of general application or as set forth on Schedule E, no Governmental Entity has placed any restriction on the business or properties of the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary that would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(n) Employee Benefit Matters. Except as would not reasonably be expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect: (i) each “employee benefit plan” (within the meaning of Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”)) providing benefits to any current or former employee, officer or director of the Recipient or any member of its “Controlled Group” (defined as any organization which is a member of a controlled group of corporations within the meaning of Section 414 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”)) that is sponsored, maintained or contributed to by the Recipient or any member of its Controlled Group and for which the Recipient or any member of its Controlled Group would have any liability, whether actual or contingent (each, a “Plan”) has been maintained in compliance with its terms and with the requirements of all applicable statutes, rules and regulations, including ERISA and the Code; (ii) with respect to each Plan subject to Title IV of ERISA (including, for purposes of this clause (ii), any plan subject to Title IV of ERISA that the Recipient or any member of its Controlled Group previously maintained or contributed to in the six (6) years prior to the Signing Date), (1) no “reportable event” (within the meaning of Section 4043(c) of ERISA), other than a reportable event for which the notice period referred to in Section 4043(c) of ERISA has been waived, has occurred in the three years prior to the Signing Date or is reasonably expected to occur, (2) no “accumulated funding deficiency” (within the meaning of Section 302 of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code), whether or not waived, has occurred in the three years prior to the Signing Date or is reasonably expected to occur, (3) the fair market value of the assets under each Plan exceeds the present value of all benefits accrued under such Plan (determined based on the assumptions used to fund such Plan) and (4) neither the Recipient nor any member of its Controlled Group has incurred in the six (6) years prior to the Signing Date, or reasonably expects to incur, any liability under Title IV of ERISA (other than contributions to the Plan or premiums to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation in the ordinary course and without default) with respect to a Plan (including any Plan that is a “multiemployer plan”, within the meaning of Section 4001(c)(3) of ERISA); and (iii) each Plan that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code has received a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to its qualified status that has not been revoked, or such a determination letter has been timely applied for but not received by the Signing Date, and nothing has occurred, whether by action or by failure to act, which could reasonably be expected to cause the loss, revocation or denial of such qualified status or favorable determination letter.

(o) Taxes. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (i) the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries have filed all federal, state, local and foreign income and franchise Tax returns (together with any schedules and attached thereto) required to be filed through the Signing Date, subject to permitted extensions, and have paid all Taxes due thereon, (ii) all such Tax returns (together with any schedules and attached thereto) are true, complete and correct in all material respects and were prepared in compliance with all applicable laws and (iii) no Tax deficiency has been determined adversely to the Recipient or any of the Recipient Subsidiaries, nor does the Recipient have any knowledge of any Tax deficiencies.

(p) Properties and Leases. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries have good and marketable title to all real properties and all other properties and assets owned by them, in each case free from liens (including, without limitation, liens for Taxes), encumbrances, claims and defects that would affect the value thereof or interfere with the use made or to be made thereof by them. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries hold all leased real or personal property under valid and enforceable leases with no exceptions that would interfere with the use made or to be made thereof by them.

(q) Environmental Liability. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect:

(i) there is no legal, administrative, or other proceeding, claim or action of any nature seeking to impose, or that would reasonably be expected to result in the imposition of, on the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary, any liability relating to the release of hazardous substances as defined under any local, state or federal environmental statute, regulation or ordinance, including the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, pending or, to the Recipient’s knowledge, threatened against the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary;

(ii) to the Recipient’s knowledge, there is no reasonable basis for any such proceeding, claim or action; and

(iii) neither the Recipient nor any Recipient Subsidiary is subject to any agreement, order, judgment or decree by or with any court, Governmental Entity or third party imposing any such environmental liability.

(r) Risk Management Instruments. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, all derivative instruments, including, swaps, caps, floors and option agreements, whether entered into for the Recipient’s own account, or for the account of one or more of the Recipient Subsidiaries or its or their customers, were entered into (i) only in the ordinary course of business, (ii) in accordance with prudent practices and in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and regulatory policies and (iii) with counterparties believed to be financially responsible at the time; and each of such instruments constitutes the valid and legally binding obligation of the Recipient or one of the Recipient Subsidiaries, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by the Bankruptcy Exceptions. Neither the Recipient or the Recipient Subsidiaries, nor, to the knowledge of the Recipient, any other party thereto, is in breach of any of its obligations under any such agreement or arrangement other than such breaches that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(s) Agreements with Regulatory Agencies. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 3.1(s) shall not be deemed to contemplate or require any representation or disclosure including on Schedule F that would involve “confidential supervisory information” or other similar information the disclosure of which is restricted pursuant to laws and regulations to which the Recipient is subject. Except as set forth on Schedule F, neither the Recipient nor any Recipient Subsidiary is subject to any material cease-and-desist or other similar order or enforcement or supervisory action issued by, or is a party to any material written agreement, consent agreement or memorandum of understanding with, or is a party to any commitment letter or similar undertaking to, or is subject to any capital directive by, or since December 31, 2017, has adopted any board resolutions at the request of, any Governmental Entity that currently restricts in any material respect the conduct of its business or that in any material manner relates to its capital adequacy, its liquidity and funding policies and practices, its ability to pay dividends, its credit, risk management or compliance policies or procedures, its internal controls, its management or its operations or business (each item in this sentence, a “Regulatory Agreement”), nor has the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary been advised since December 31, 2017, by any such Governmental Entity that it is considering issuing, initiating, ordering, or requesting any such Regulatory Agreement. The Recipient and each Recipient Subsidiary is in compliance in all material respects with each Regulatory Agreement to which it is party or subject, and neither the Recipient nor any Recipient Subsidiary has received any notice from any Governmental Entity indicating that either the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary is not in compliance in all material respects with any such Regulatory Agreement.

(t) Insurance. The Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries are insured with reputable insurers against such risks and in such amounts as the management of the Recipient reasonably has determined to be prudent and consistent with industry practice. The Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries are in material compliance with their insurance policies and are not in default under any of the material terms thereof, each such policy is outstanding and in full force and effect, all premiums and other payments due under any material policy have been paid, and all claims thereunder have been filed in due and timely fashion, except, in each case, as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(u) Intellectual Property. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (i) the Recipient and each Recipient Subsidiary owns or otherwise has the right to use, all intellectual property rights, including all trademarks, trade dress, trade names, service marks, domain names, patents, inventions, trade secrets, know-how, works of authorship and copyrights therein, that are used in the conduct of their existing businesses and all rights relating to the plans, design and specifications of any of its branch facilities (“Proprietary Rights”) free and clear of all liens and any claims of ownership by current or former employees, contractors, designers or others and (ii) neither the Recipient nor any of the Recipient Subsidiaries is materially infringing, diluting, misappropriating or violating, nor has the Recipient or any of the Recipient Subsidiaries received any written (or, to the knowledge of the Recipient, oral) communications alleging that any of them has materially infringed, diluted, misappropriated or violated, any of the Proprietary Rights owned by any other person. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, to the Recipient’s knowledge, no other person is infringing, diluting, misappropriating or violating, nor has the Recipient or any or the Recipient Subsidiaries sent any written communications since December 31, 2019, alleging that any person has infringed, diluted, misappropriated or violated, any of the Proprietary Rights owned by the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries.

(w) Disclosure Schedule. The Recipient has delivered the Disclosure Schedule and, if applicable, the Disclosure Update to the Investor and the information contained in the Disclosure Schedule, as modified by the information contained in the Disclosure Update, if applicable, is true, complete and correct.

(x) Related Party Transactions. Neither the Recipient nor any Recipient Subsidiary has made any extension of credit to any director or Executive Officer of the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary, any holder of five percent (5%) or more of the Recipient's issued and outstanding capital stock, or any of their respective spouses or children or to any Affiliate of any of the foregoing (each, a "Related Party"), other than in compliance with 12 C.F.R. Part 215 (Regulation O). Except as disclosed on Schedule G, to the Recipient's knowledge, no Related Party has any (i) material commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable or familial relationship with any vendor or material customer of the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary that is not on arms-length terms, or (ii) direct or indirect ownership interest in any person or entity with which the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary has a material business relationship that is not on arms-length terms (not including publicly-traded entities in which such person owns less than two percent (2%) of the outstanding capital stock).

ARTICLE IV

COVENANTS

Section 4.1 Affirmative Covenants. The Recipient hereby covenants and agrees with Investor that:

(a) Commercially Reasonable Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of the parties will use its commercially reasonable efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, or advisable under applicable laws, so as to permit consummation of the Purchase as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the other party to that end.

(b) Certain Notifications Until Closing. From the Signing Date until the Closing, the Recipient shall promptly notify the Investor of (i) any fact, event or circumstance of which it is aware and which would reasonably be expected to cause any representation or warranty of the Recipient contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect or to cause any covenant or agreement of the Recipient contained in this Agreement not to be complied with or satisfied in any material respect and (ii) except as Previously Disclosed, any fact, circumstance, event, change, occurrence, condition or development of which the Recipient is aware and which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; provided, however, that delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 4.1(b) shall not limit or affect any rights of or remedies available to the Investor.

(c) Access and Information.

(i) The provisions of this Section 4.1(c)(i) shall apply, (x) with respect to the Investor, from the Signing Date until the date when the Investor or one of its Affiliates no longer owns, directly or indirectly, any Preferred Shares and (y) with respect to the Inspector General of the Treasury and the Comptroller General of the United States, from and after the Signing Date but, after the date when the Investor or one of its Affiliates no longer owns, directly or indirectly, any Preferred Shares, only with respect to the period in which the Investor or one of its Affiliates directly or indirectly owned any Preferred Shares. Subject to the foregoing, and limited solely to information determined by the Investor to be relevant to the Preferred Shares, the Recipient will permit, and shall cause each of the

Recipient's Subsidiaries to permit, the Investor, the Inspector General of the Treasury and the Comptroller General of the United States and their respective agents, consultants, contractors and advisors to (x) examine any books, papers, records, Tax returns (including all schedules and attachments thereto), data and other information, (y) make copies thereof and (z) discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries with the personnel (including the principal officers) of the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries, all upon reasonable notice, provided, that:

(A) any examinations and discussions pursuant to this Section 4.1(c)(i) shall be conducted during normal business hours and in such manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the conduct of the business of the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries;

(B) neither the Recipient nor any Recipient Subsidiary shall be required by this Section 4.1(c)(i) to disclose any information to the extent (x) prohibited by applicable law or regulation (including laws and regulations relating to the use or disclosure of confidential supervisory information), or (y) that such disclosure would reasonably be expected to cause a violation of any agreement to which the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary is a party or would cause a risk of a loss of privilege to the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary (provided that the Recipient shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances where the restrictions in this clause (B) apply);

(C) the obligations of the Recipient and the Recipient Subsidiaries to disclose information pursuant to this Section 4.1(c)(i) to the Inspector General of the Treasury or the Comptroller General of the United States and their respective agents, consultants, contractors or advisors, shall be subject to the agreement by the Inspector General of the Treasury or the Comptroller General of the United States, as applicable, with respect to documents obtained under this Section 4.1(c)(i), to follow applicable law and regulation (and the applicable customary policies and procedures) regarding the dissemination of confidential materials, including redacting confidential information from the public version of its reports and soliciting the input from the Recipient as to information that should be afforded confidential treatment, as appropriate; and

(D) for avoidance of doubt, any investigation or discussions pursuant to this Section 4.1(c)(i) may, at the Investor's option, be conducted on site at any office of the Recipient or any Recipient Subsidiary.

(ii) Subject to the assignment of the rights under this Section 4.1(c)(ii) pursuant to Section 4.1(c)(iii), from the Signing Date until the date on which all the Preferred Shares have been redeemed in whole, the Recipient will deliver, or will cause to be delivered, to the Investor:

(A) as soon as available after the end of each fiscal year of the Recipient, and in any event within one hundred twenty (120) days thereafter, a consolidated balance sheet of the Recipient as of the end of such fiscal year, and consolidated statements of income, retained earnings and cash flows of the Recipient for such year, in each case prepared in accordance with GAAP and setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the previous fiscal year of the Recipient and which shall be audited to the extent audited financial statements are available;

(B) as soon as available after the end of the first, second and third quarterly periods in each fiscal year of the Recipient, a copy of any quarterly reports provided to other stockholders of the Recipient;

(C) as soon as available after the Recipient receives any assessment of the Recipient's internal controls, a copy of such assessment (other than assessments provided by the Appropriate Federal Banking Agency or the Appropriate State Banking Agency that the Recipient is prohibited by applicable law or regulation from disclosing to the Investor));

(D) as soon as such items become effective, any amendments to the Charter, bylaws or other organizational documents of the Recipient; and

(E) at the same time as such items are sent to any stockholders of the Recipient, copies of any information or documents sent by the Recipient to its stockholders; provided, however that, notwithstanding clauses (A)-(E) of this Section 4.1(c)(ii), this Section 4.1(c)(ii) shall not require the Recipient to prepare audited financial statements if it does not otherwise prepare audited financial statements and shall not require the Recipient to submit Call Reports to the Investor.

(iii) The Investor's information rights pursuant to Section 4.1(c)(ii) and the Investor's right to receive certifications from the Recipient pursuant to Section 4.1(d)(i) may be assigned by the Investor to a transferee or assignee of the Preferred Shares with a liquidation preference of no less than an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the initial aggregate liquidation preference of the Preferred Shares.

(iv) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to limit the authority that the Inspector General of the Treasury, the Comptroller General of the United States or any other applicable Governmental Entity has under law.

(v) The Recipient shall provide to the Investor all such information as the Investor may request from time to time related to the study under Section 525 of Division N of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 and related studies.

(d) Certifications. Subject to the assignment of the rights under Section 4.1(d)(i) pursuant to Section 4.1(c)(iii), the Recipient shall provide the following certifications to the Investor:

(i) Upon delivery of each Supplemental Report, the Recipient's principal executive officer or principal financial officer (each as defined in the ECIP Interim Final Rule) will certify to the Investor that the information provided on each Supplemental Report is accurate;

(ii) Following the Closing Date, within one hundred twenty (120) days of the end of each fiscal year of the Recipient during which a Supplemental Report is submitted, the Recipient will deliver to the Investor (1) a certification by the Recipient that the processes and controls used to generate the Supplemental Reports are satisfactory and (2) an attestation with respect to the processes and controls used to generate the Supplemental Reports from the Recipient's independent auditor if the Recipient is required to include an attestation as to its internal control over financial reporting in connection with the filing of audited financial statements with any Governmental Entity or self-regulatory agency; and

(iii) By December 31 of the calendar year in which the Closing occurs and, thereafter, annually, for so long as required by the ECIP Interim Final Rule, a certification substantially in the form attached hereto as Annex D by two of the Recipient's Senior Executive Officers (one of which must be the Recipient's principal executive officer or principal financial officer) (each as defined in the ECIP Interim Final Rule) that the Recipient is in compliance with each of the excessive compensation, severance pay and excessive or luxury expenditures requirements and limitations on capital distributions set forth in ECIP Interim Final Rule, as published and in effect at the time of the certification; provided that without the consent of the Investor, the date of such annual certifications shall not be later than nor more than thirty (30) days earlier than the anniversary date for the first annual certification following the Closing.

The Recipient shall immediately notify the Investor upon the occurrence of any breach of any of the covenants set forth in this Section 4.1(d).

(e) Compensation Matters.

(i) Restrictions on compensation and severance payments. During the ECIP Period, the Recipient shall comply, and take all necessary action to ensure that any Recipient Subsidiary complies, in all respects with the requirements set forth in the ECIP Interim Final Rule regarding restrictions on executive compensation and severance payments, and any material changes to the policies and procedures related thereto.

(ii) Excessive or luxury expenditures. Within ninety (90) days of the Closing Date, the Board of Directors shall adopt an excessive or luxury expenditures policy, provide such policy to the Investor and the Recipient's Appropriate Federal Banking Agency, and post the text of such policy on its Internet website, if the Recipient maintains an Internet website. The Recipient shall comply, and take all necessary action to ensure that any Recipient Subsidiary complies, in all respects with the requirements set forth in the ECIP Interim Final Rule regarding restrictions on excessive or luxury expenditures, and any material changes to the excessive or luxury expenditures policy adopted by the Board of Directors.

(f) Capital Distributions. During the ECIP Period, the Recipient shall comply with each of the restrictions on capital distributions (as defined in 31 C.F.R. § 35.21) applicable to it as set forth in the ECIP Interim Final Rule.

(g) Qualified Lending Reports.

(i) Following the Closing Date, for the period through the earlier of (x) the date on which the Preferred Shares are redeemed in whole and (y) the end of the period during which the dividend rate applicable to the Preferred Shares adjusts based on the Supplemental Reports, the Recipient shall submit to the Investor a report in a form substantially similar to that posted on Investor's ECIP website (the "Quarterly Supplemental Report"), in accordance with the submission instructions set forth in such Quarterly Supplemental Report concurrently with (A) in the case of a Recipient that is an insured depository institution, the submission of the Call Report for the quarter covered by the Quarterly Supplemental Report, (B) with respect to a Bank Holding Company or Savings and Loan Holding Company that files on Reporting Form FR Y-9SP, the submission of its IDI Subsidiary's(ies') Call Report for the quarter covered by the Quarterly Supplemental Report and (C) in the case of a Recipient that is a Bank Holding Company or Savings and Loan Holding Company that files on Reporting Form FR Y-9C, the Form FR Y-9C for the quarter covered by the Quarterly Supplemental Report, as applicable, setting forth an updated calculation of (i) the amount of Qualified Lending as of the applicable quarter end date and (ii) as applicable, the difference between the Baseline and such updated amount of Qualified Lending;

(ii) If the Investor determines that the Initial Supplemental Report or any Quarterly Supplemental Report is inaccurate, the Investor may require the Recipient to restate the Initial Supplemental Report or any applicable Quarterly Supplemental Report, and (i) the "Baseline Qualified Lending" on such restated Initial Supplemental Report shall become the Baseline or (ii) the Qualified Lending on such restated Quarterly Supplemental Report shall become the Qualified Lending, as applicable;

(iii) If any Initial Supplemental Report or Quarterly Supplemental Report is inaccurate, the Investor shall be entitled to recover from the Recipient, upon demand, the amount of any difference between (x) the amount of the dividend payment(s) actually made to the Investor based on such inaccurate report and (y) the correct amount of the dividend payment(s) that should have been made, but for such inaccuracy; provided, that to the extent such inaccuracy resulted in an overpayment of a dividend, the Investor shall not have any obligation to return to or otherwise reimburse the Recipient for such excess dividend payment. The Recipient shall provide the Investor with a written description of any such inaccuracy within three (3) business days after the Recipient's discovery thereof;

(iv) If the Investor transfers the Preferred Shares, then any amounts payable in respect of Preferred Shares that have been transferred shall, if and as directed by the Investor, be paid to the transferee of the Preferred Shares;

(v) The Investor shall have the right from time to time to modify the Quarterly Supplemental Report, by posting an amended and restated version of the Quarterly Supplemental Report on its website, to conform the Quarterly Supplemental Report to (A) reflect changes in GAAP, (B) reflect changes in the form or content of, or definitions used in, Call Reports, Reporting Form FR Y-9C or any other applicable reporting form or (C) to make clarifications, technical corrections and/or any other adjustments as the Investor determines to be necessary or appropriate. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, upon posting by the Investor on its website, the Quarterly Supplemental Report shall be deemed to be amended and restated as so posted, without the need for any further act on the part of any person or entity. If any such modification includes a change to the caption or number of any line item of the Quarterly Supplemental Report, any reference herein to such line item shall thereafter be a reference to such re-captioned or renumbered line item;

(vi) The Recipient's financial records shall be maintained in such a manner and scope so as to ensure that the Initial Supplemental Report and Quarterly Supplemental Reports can be prepared and filed in accordance with the instructions thereto and will reflect a fair presentation of the Recipient's, and its Affiliates' as applicable, Qualified Lending and Deep Impact Lending, as defined in such Supplemental Report; and

(vii) The Recipient shall maintain in its files a signed and attested record of its completed Initial Supplemental Report, any Quarterly Supplemental Reports, any amended reports, and the methodology used to generate the data in the Initial Supplemental Report and Quarterly Supplemental Reports, for five (5) years after the report date, unless any applicable state requirements mandate a longer retention period.

(h) Reporting Requirements. Prior to the date on which all the Preferred Shares have been redeemed in whole, the Recipient covenants and agrees that, upon the written request of the Investor or any Holder to which rights are assigned pursuant to Section 1.9 of Annex E and at all times from and after such request, (i) to the extent it is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, it shall comply with the terms and conditions set forth in Annex E or (ii) as soon as practicable after the date that the Recipient becomes subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, it shall comply with the terms and conditions set forth in Annex E.

(i) Nonpayment of Dividends. If the Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee of the Board of Directors determines not to pay any dividend that has been declared or not to declare any dividend in full for any Dividend Period (as defined in the Certificate of Designations), then no later than three (3) business days prior to the Dividend Payment Date (as defined in the Certificate of Designations) corresponding to such dividend the principal executive officer and principal financial officer of the Recipient shall provide written notice, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Investor, informing the Investor that the Recipient will not pay a declared dividend or determined not to declare dividends in full and providing the rationale of the Board of Directors, or a duly authorized committee thereof, for not paying or declaring dividends, as applicable.

(j) Compliance with Federal Law. The Recipient shall comply with, and hereby assures that it will comply with, all applicable federal statutes and regulations relating to nondiscrimination including: (i) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. § 2000d et seq.), including Treasury's implementing regulations at 31 C.F.R. Part 22; (ii) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. § 794); and (iii) the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended (42 U.S.C. §§ 6101–6107), including Treasury's implementing regulations at 31 C.F.R. Part 23 and the general age discrimination regulations at 45 C.F.R. Part 90.

(k) Transactions with Affiliates. Until such time as the Investor or one of its Affiliates, directly or indirectly, ceases to own any Preferred Shares, (i) the Recipient, if subject to Section 23A and Section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. §§ 371c and 371c-1) shall comply with such Sections and Regulation W promulgated thereunder (12 C.F.R. Part 223) and (ii) the Recipient, if not subject to such Sections and Regulation, shall comply with such Sections and Regulation to the same extent as if the Recipient were a member of the Federal Reserve System, except for any transactions between a Bank Holding Company or Savings and Loan Holding Company and its IDI Subsidiaries.

(l) Outreach Plan. The Recipient shall provide community outreach and communication, where appropriate, describing the availability and application process of receiving loans made possible by the ECIP through organizations, trade associations, and individuals that represent or work within or are members of minority communities.

Section 4.2 Negative Covenants. The Recipient hereby covenants and agrees with the Investor that:

(a) Certain Transactions. The Recipient shall not merge or consolidate with, or sell, transfer, convey or lease all or substantially all of its property or assets, or, in the case of an issuer that is a Bank Holding Company, any insured depository institution subsidiary, to, any other party unless the successor, transferee or lessee party (or its ultimate parent entity), as the case may be (if not the Recipient), expressly assumes the due and punctual performance and observance of each and every covenant, agreement and condition of this Agreement to be performed and observed by the Recipient, including, if applicable, the issuance by the successor party of senior preferred stock equivalent to the Preferred Shares. Any such successor entity must also qualify at the time of the transaction as an Eligible Financial Institution unless prior written approval of the Investor is obtained.

(b) CDFI and MDI Status. If the Recipient is a CDFI as of the Signing Date, the Recipient shall not revoke its status as a CDFI and shall use its reasonable best efforts to prevent its status as a CDFI from being changed, within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. § 4702 and in accordance with 12 C.F.R. § 1805.201. If the Recipient is an MDI as of the Signing Date, the Recipient shall not revoke its designation as an MDI and shall use its reasonable best efforts to maintain its designation as an MDI.

ARTICLE V

REMEDIES OF THE INVESTOR UPON BREACH

Section 5.1 Rate Reductions in the Event of Breaches and Violations. If Treasury determines, in its sole discretion, that the Recipient has breached, violated or defaulted under (i) any covenant, agreement or obligation of the Recipient included in this Agreement or the Preferred Shares, (ii) Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act or the ECIP Interim Final Rule, or (iii) any additional rules or regulations established in connection with ECIP that further the purposes of Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act, Treasury may, in its sole discretion, determine that the Recipient shall not be eligible for any rate reduction with respect to the Preferred Shares for such period as Treasury, in its sole discretion, shall determine. Any such determination shall cause the applicable dividend rate of the Preferred Stock to reset as specified in the Certificate of Designations. Treasury shall provide notice to the Recipient of any determination with respect to the Recipient's disqualification from eligibility for rate reductions or the termination of any such disqualification; provided that any failure by Treasury to provide notice of any such determination or defect in such notice or the transmission thereof shall not affect or prejudice Treasury's rights or remedies under this Section 5.1 or the Preferred Shares. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a determination by the Recipient not to declare dividends for any dividend period or a default in the payment of dividends that have been declared shall not be subject to this Section 5.1.

Section 5.2 Recipient Breach, Violation or Default.

(a) If Treasury determines, in its sole discretion, that the Recipient or an Affiliate of the Recipient has breached, violated or defaulted under (i) any covenant, agreement or obligation of the Recipient or an Affiliate of the Recipient included in this Agreement or the Preferred Shares, (ii) Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act or the ECIP Interim Final Rule, or (iii) any additional rules or regulations established in connection with ECIP that further the purposes of Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act, Treasury may, in its sole discretion, report such breach, violation or default to the CDFI Fund or other entities within or affiliated with Treasury. The Recipient acknowledges that any such report of a breach, violation or default may result in the Recipient becoming ineligible for awards or programs offered by the CDFI Fund or other entities within or affiliated with Treasury at that time or in the future in accordance with the terms and conditions of such awards or programs offered by the CDFI Fund or other entities within or affiliated with Treasury.

(b) The restrictions on, and notice requirement with respect to, the transferability of the Preferred Stock set forth in Section 6.3(a)(v) shall cease to apply if Treasury determines, in its sole discretion, that the Recipient or an Affiliate of the Recipient has breached, violated or defaulted under (i) any covenant, agreement or obligation of the Recipient or an Affiliate of the Recipient included in this Agreement or the Preferred Shares, (ii) Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act or the ECIP Interim Final Rule, or (iii) any additional rules or regulations established in connection with ECIP that further the purposes of Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act.

Section 5.3 Additional Remedies.

(a) If Treasury determines, in its sole discretion, that the Recipient or an Affiliate of the Recipient has breached, violated or defaulted under (i) any covenant, agreement or obligation of the Recipient or an Affiliate of the Recipient included in this Agreement or the Preferred Shares, (ii) Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act or the ECIP Interim Final Rule, or (iii) any additional rules or regulations established in connection with ECIP that further the purposes of Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act, Treasury may propose a remedy that Treasury determines, in its sole discretion, is proportional to the breach, violation or default. If Treasury makes such a determination and proposes a remedy under this Section 5.3(a), Treasury shall notify the Recipient in writing of its proposed determination of a breach, violation or default, provide an explanation of the nature of the breach, violation or default, and specify the proposed remedy. Upon receipt of such notice, the Recipient shall, within seven (7) days, accept Treasury's proposed remedy, propose an alternative remedy, or provide information and documentation contesting Treasury's proposed determination. Treasury shall consider any such submission by the Recipient and make a final written determination, which will state Treasury's findings regarding the breach, violation or default and the remedy to be imposed.

(b) If Treasury makes a final determination under Section 5.3(a) that a breach, violation or default has occurred, Treasury may, in its sole discretion, require additional reporting or monitoring; initiate suspension or debarment proceedings as authorized under 2 C.F.R. Part 180; or take any such other action as Treasury, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate and determines, in its sole discretion, to be proportional to the breach, violation or default; provided, however, that Treasury shall not require the Preferred Shares to be redeemed as a remedy under this Section 5.3 and such redemption shall be governed exclusively by the terms and conditions set forth in the Certificate of Designations.

(c) Treasury may make a final determination regarding a breach, violation or default without regard to Section 5.3(a) if Treasury determines, in its sole discretion, that such determination is necessary to protect a material interest of the federal government. In such event, Treasury shall notify the Recipient of the remedy that Treasury, in its sole discretion, shall impose, after which the Recipient may contest Treasury's final determination or propose an alternative remedy in writing to Treasury. Following the receipt of such a submission by the Recipient, Treasury may, in its sole discretion, maintain or alter its final determination.

(d) Instead of, or in addition to, the remedies listed above, Treasury may refer any breach, violation or default or any allegations of fraud, waste, or abuse to the Inspector General of the Treasury.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a determination by the Recipient not to declare dividends or a default in the payment of dividends that have been declared for any dividend period shall not be subject to this Section 5.3.

ARTICLE VI

“THIS INSTRUMENT IS ISSUED SUBJECT TO THE RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER AND OTHER PROVISIONS OF A SECURITIES PURCHASE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE ISSUER OF THESE SECURITIES AND THE INVESTOR REFERRED TO THEREIN, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE WITH THE ISSUER. THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS INSTRUMENT MAY NOT BE SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED EXCEPT IN COMPLIANCE WITH SAID AGREEMENT. ANY SALE OR OTHER TRANSFER NOT IN COMPLIANCE WITH SAID AGREEMENT WILL BE VOID.”

(b) In the event that any Preferred Shares (i) become registered under the Securities Act (or, if applicable, Part 16) or (ii) are eligible to be transferred without restriction in accordance with Rule 144 or another exemption from registration under the Securities Act (other than Rule 144A) (or, if applicable, Part 16), the Recipient shall issue new certificates or other instruments representing such Preferred Shares, which shall not contain the applicable legends in Section 6.2(a) above; provided that the Investor surrenders to the Recipient the previously issued certificates or other instruments.

Section 6.3 Transfer of Preferred Shares.

(a) Subject to compliance with applicable law, the Investor (and any investment vehicles established and used by the Investor to purchase, hold, and sell Preferred Shares) shall be permitted to transfer, sell, assign or otherwise dispose of (each, a “Transfer”) all or a portion of the Preferred Shares at any time and from time to time, and the Recipient shall take all steps as may be reasonably requested by the Investor to facilitate the sale of the Preferred Shares, including, as set forth in Section 6.4, provided that:

(i) The Investor shall not Transfer any Preferred Shares if such Transfer would (A) require the Recipient to be subject to the periodic reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and the Recipient was not already subject to such requirements or (B) if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association, require the Recipient to register the securities under Part 16;

(ii) Prior to the sale of all or a portion of the Preferred Shares by the Investor to a third party, the Investor shall deliver to the Recipient a notice (“ROFR Notice”) setting forth the number of Preferred Shares proposed to be sold (the “Offered Shares”) and the cash purchase price per Preferred Share (which shall reflect a valuation of the Preferred Shares to be sold determined by an independent third party) (the “Offer Price”) and other terms and conditions on which the Investor proposes to sell the Offered Shares. Within ten (10) days from the date the Investor delivers the ROFR Notice to the Recipient (the “Review Period”), the Recipient shall deliver to the Investor a written notice (a “Response Notice”) stating whether it elects to purchase all the Offered Shares and irrevocably offering to purchase such number of Offered Shares on the terms contained in the ROFR Notice, which purchase shall, as applicable, be conditional upon receipt of prior approval from the Recipient’s Appropriate Federal Banking Agency. If the Recipient does not deliver a Response Notice in accordance with this Section 6.3(a)(ii) prior to the expiration of the Review Period, then the Recipient will be deemed to have elected not to exercise the right of first refusal specified in the ROFR Notice and the Investor shall be free to sell the Offered Shares to a third party on the terms reflected in the ROFR Notice;

(iii) The Investor shall not sell more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding equity interests of the Recipient to a single third party without the Recipient’s consent, which may not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld;

(iv) With the prior consent of the Recipient (which may not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld), the Investor may Transfer all or a portion of the Preferred Shares for no consideration or for a de minimis amount to a mission-aligned nonprofit Affiliate of an Eligible Financial Institution participating in the ECIP that is an Insured CDFI (an “Eligible Nonprofit”); and

(v) Subject to Section 5.2(b), the Investor shall not sell the Preferred Shares to a third party (other than to an Eligible Nonprofit) prior to the Tenth Anniversary without the prior consent of the Recipient (which may not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld). In addition, subject to Section 5.2(b), the Investor shall provide the Recipient eighteen (18) months’ advance notice of the Investor’s intent to Transfer the Preferred Shares to a third party other than an Eligible Nonprofit.

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing, the Recipient shall provide reasonable cooperation to facilitate any Transfers of the Preferred Shares, including, as is reasonable under the circumstances, by furnishing such information concerning the Recipient and its business as a proposed transferee may reasonably request and making management of the Recipient reasonably available to respond to questions of a proposed transferee in accordance with customary practice, subject in all cases to the proposed transferee agreeing to a customary confidentiality agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the term “third party” as used in this Section 6.3 shall not refer to an investment vehicle or other entity controlled by the Investor, or to any Affiliate of the Investor.

Section 6.4 Rule 144; Rule 144A; 4(a)(1½) Transactions.

(a) At all times after the Signing Date, the Recipient covenants that (1) it will, upon the request of the Investor or any subsequent holders of the Preferred Shares (“*Holder*s”), use its reasonable best efforts to (x), to the extent any Holder is relying on Rule 144 under the Securities Act to sell any of the Preferred Shares (including, in the case of a Recipient that is a national bank or federal savings association, as Rule 144 is incorporated into Part 16), make “current public information” available, as provided in Section (c)(1) of Rule 144 (if the Recipient is a “Reporting Issuer” within the meaning of Rule 144) or in Section (c)(2) of Rule 144 (if the Recipient is a “Non-Reporting Issuer” within the meaning of Rule 144), in either case for such time period as necessary to permit sales pursuant to Rule 144, (y), to the extent any Holder is relying on the so-called “Section 4(a)(1½)” exemption to sell any of its Preferred Shares, prepare and provide to such Holder such information, including the preparation of private offering memoranda or circulars or financial information, as the Holder may reasonably request to enable the sale of the Preferred Shares pursuant to such exemption, or (z) to the extent any Holder is relying on Rule 144A under the Securities Act (including, in the case of a Recipient that is a national bank or federal savings association, as such Rule is incorporated into Part 16) to sell any of its Preferred Shares, prepare and provide to such Holder the information required pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4), and (2) it will take such further action as any Holder may reasonably request from time to time to enable such Holder to sell Preferred Shares without registration under the Securities Act (or, in the case of a Recipient that is a national bank or federal savings association, under Part 16) within the limitations of the exemptions provided by (i) the provisions of the Securities Act or any interpretations thereof or related thereto by the SEC, including transactions based on the so-called “Section 4(a)(1½)” and other similar transactions, (ii) Rule 144 or Rule 144A under the Securities Act, as such rules may be amended from time to time, or (iii) any similar rule or regulation hereafter adopted by the SEC (or, in the case of a Recipient that is a national bank or a federal savings association, as applicable under Part 16); provided that the Recipient shall not be required to take any action described in this Section 6.4(a) that would cause the Recipient to become subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act if the Recipient was not subject to such requirements prior to taking such action. Upon the request of any Holder, the Recipient will deliver to such Holder a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements and, if not, the specifics thereof.

(b) If the Recipient is a state-chartered bank or savings association, the Investor and Recipient acknowledge that, as of the Signing Date, the offer and sale of the Preferred Shares is a security of an insured depository institution and, accordingly, the transfer of such securities is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and qualification and registration requirements under state law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as the Preferred Shares are subject to the exemption provided by Section 3(a)(2) or Section 3(a)(5) of the Securities Act, the provisions of this Section 6.4 shall be interpreted so as to nonetheless provide a Holder of Preferred Shares with the benefit of the cooperation of the Recipient to facilitate a sale of the Preferred Shares, including the preparation and provision of materials referenced in Section 6.4(a)(1)(y).

(c) The Recipient agrees to indemnify Investor, Investor’s officials, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and Affiliates, and each person, if any, that controls Investor within the meaning of the Securities Act (each, an “Indemnitee”), against any and all losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements of attorneys and other professionals incurred in connection with investigating, defending, settling, compromising or paying any such losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs and expenses), joint or several, arising out of or based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in any document or report provided by the Recipient pursuant to this Section 6.4 or any omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(d) If the indemnification provided for in Section 6.4(c) is unavailable to an Indemnitee with respect to any losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs or expenses referred to therein or is insufficient to hold the Indemnitee harmless as contemplated therein, then the Recipient, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnitee, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnitee as a result of such losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs or expenses in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Indemnitee, on the one hand, and the Recipient, on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs or expenses as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the Recipient, on the one hand, and of the Indemnitee, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other factors, whether the untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Recipient or by the Indemnitee and the parties’ relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission; the Recipient and Investor agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 6.4(d) were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in Section 6.4(b). No Indemnitee guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from the Recipient if the Recipient was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

Section 6.5 Depository Shares. Upon request by the Investor at any time following the Closing Date, the Recipient shall promptly enter into a depository arrangement, pursuant to customary agreements reasonably satisfactory to the Investor and with a depository reasonably acceptable to the Investor, pursuant to which the Preferred Shares may be deposited and depository shares, each representing a fraction of a Preferred Share, as specified by the Investor, may be issued. From and after the execution of any such depository arrangement, and the deposit of any Preferred Shares, as applicable, pursuant thereto, the depository shares issued pursuant thereto shall be deemed “Preferred Shares” and, as applicable, “Registrable Securities” for purposes of this Agreement.

Section 6.6 Expenses and Further Assurances.

(a) Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, each of the parties hereto will bear and pay all costs and expenses incurred by it or on its behalf in connection with the transactions contemplated under this Agreement, including fees and expenses of its own financial or other consultants, investment bankers, accountants and counsel.

(b) The Recipient shall, at the Recipient's sole cost and expense, (i) furnish to the Investor all instruments, documents and other agreements required to be furnished by the Recipient pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including any documents required to be delivered pursuant to Section 6.4 above, or which are reasonably requested by the Investor in connection therewith; (ii) execute and deliver to the Investor such documents, instruments, certificates, assignments and other writings, and do such other acts necessary or desirable, to evidence, preserve and/or protect the Preferred Shares purchased by the Investor, as Investor may reasonably require; and (iii) do and execute all and such further lawful and reasonable acts, conveyances and assurances for the better and more effective carrying out of the intents and purposes of this Agreement, as the Investor shall reasonably require from time to time.

Section 6.7 Noncompliance. The Recipient acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement is entered into under Section 104A of the Community Development Banking Act and that the ECIP Interim Final Rule was promulgated under that Act and, accordingly, where applicable, the enforcement of the provisions of the Agreement and the ECIP Interim Final Rule (and any violations thereof) are subject to 12 U.S.C. § 4717. The Recipient further acknowledges and agrees that the Investor may inform the Appropriate Federal Banking Agency of Recipient's apparent noncompliance.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 7.1 Termination. This Agreement shall terminate upon the earliest to occur of:

(a) termination at any time prior to the Closing:

(i) by either the Investor or the Recipient if the Closing shall not have occurred by the thirtieth (30th) calendar day following the Signing Date; provided, however, that in the event the Closing has not occurred by such thirtieth (30th) calendar day, the parties will consult in good faith to determine whether to extend the term of this Agreement, it being understood that the parties shall be required to consult only until the fifth calendar day after such thirtieth (30th) calendar day and not be under any obligation to extend the term of this Agreement thereafter; provided, further, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(a)(i) shall not be available to any party whose breach of any representation or warranty or failure to perform any obligation under this Agreement shall have caused or resulted in the failure of the Closing to occur on or prior to such date; or

(ii) by either the Investor or the Recipient in the event that any Governmental Entity shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; or

(iii) by the mutual written consent of the Investor and the Recipient; or

- (b) the date on which all the Preferred Shares have been redeemed in whole; or
- (c) the date on which the Investor has transferred all the Preferred Shares to third parties which are not Affiliates of the Investor; or
- (d) if the Closing shall not have occurred by June 30, 2022, on such date.

In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in this Section 7.1, subject to Section 7.2(b), this Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability on the part of either party hereto except that nothing herein shall relieve either party from liability for any breach of this Agreement.

Section 7.2 Survival.

(a) This Agreement and all representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made herein shall survive the Closing without limitation.

(b) The covenants set forth in Article IV and Annex E and the agreements set forth in Article V shall, to the extent such covenants do not explicitly terminate at such time as the Investor no longer owns any Preferred Shares, survive the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(c) hereof without limitation until the date on which all the Preferred Shares have been redeemed in whole; provided that the covenant set forth in Section 4.1(c)(i) shall survive indefinitely with respect to the Inspector General of the Treasury and the Comptroller General of the United States and the period described in Section 4.1(c)(i)(y).

(c) The rights and remedies of Treasury with respect to the representations, warranties, covenants and obligations of the Recipient herein shall not be affected by any investigation conducted with respect to, or any knowledge acquired (or capable of being acquired) at any time by Treasury or any of its personnel or agents with respect to the accuracy or inaccuracy of, or compliance with, any such representation, warranty, covenant or obligation.

Section 7.3 Amendment. No amendment of any provision of this Agreement will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an officer or a duly authorized representative of each party; provided that for so long as the Preferred Shares are outstanding, the Investor may at any time and from time to time unilaterally amend this Agreement to the extent the Investor deems necessary, in its sole discretion, to comply with, or conform to, any changes after the Signing Date in any federal statutes and any rules and regulations. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative of any rights or remedies provided by law.

Section 7.4 Waiver of Conditions. The conditions to each party's obligation to consummate the Purchase are for the sole benefit of such party and may be waived by such party in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable law. No waiver will be effective unless it is in a writing signed by a duly authorized officer of the waiving party that makes express reference to the provision or provisions subject to such waiver.

Section 7.5 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction, etc. This Agreement and any claim, controversy or dispute arising under or related to this Agreement, the relationship of the parties, and/or the interpretation and enforcement of the rights and duties of the parties shall be enforced, governed, and construed in all respects (whether in contract or in tort) in accordance with the federal law of the United States if and to the extent such law is applicable, and otherwise in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and to be performed entirely within such State. Each of the parties hereto agrees (a) to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia and the United States Court of Federal Claims for any and all civil actions, suits or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Purchase contemplated hereby and (b) that notice may be served upon (i) the Recipient at the address and in the manner set forth for notices to the Recipient in Section 7.6 and (ii) the Investor at the address and in the manner set forth for notices to the Recipient in Section 7.6, but otherwise in accordance with federal law. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY CIVIL LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PURCHASE CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 7.6 Notices. (a) “Applicable Securities Regulator” means, in the case of a Recipient that is a state-chartered bank or savings association, the Governmental Entity having the powers, functions and duties of the SEC to administer and enforce Sections 12, 13, 14(a), 14(c), 14(d), 14(f) and 16 of the Exchange Act with respect to securities issued by the Recipient.

(d) “OCC” means the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

(e) “Pending Underwritten Offering” means, with respect to any Holder forfeiting its rights pursuant to Section 1.11 of this Annex E, any underwritten offering of Registrable Securities in which such Holder has advised the Recipient of its intent to register its Registrable Securities either pursuant to Section 1.2(b) or Section 1.2(d) of this Annex E prior to the date of such Holder’s forfeiture.

(f) “Register”, “registered”, and “registration” shall refer to a registration effected by preparing and (A) filing a registration statement or amendment thereto in compliance with the Securities Act and applicable rules and regulations thereunder (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association), and the declaration or ordering of effectiveness of such registration statement or amendment thereto or (B) filing a prospectus and/or prospectus supplement with respect to an appropriate effective registration statement on Form S-3.

(g) “Registrable Securities” means (A) all Preferred Shares and (B) any equity securities issued or issuable directly or indirectly with respect to the securities referred to in the foregoing clause (A) by way of conversion, exercise or exchange thereof, or share dividend or share split or in connection with a combination of shares, recapitalization, reclassification, merger, amalgamation, arrangement, consolidation or other reorganization, provided that, once issued, such securities will not be Registrable Securities when (1) they are sold pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association), (2) they shall have ceased to be outstanding or (3) they have been sold in any transaction in which the transferor’s rights under this Agreement are not assigned to the transferee of the securities. No Registrable Securities may be registered under more than one registration statement at any one time.

(h) “Registration Expenses” mean all expenses incurred by the Recipient in effecting any registration pursuant to this Agreement (whether or not any registration or prospectus becomes effective or final) or otherwise complying with its obligations under this Annex E, including all registration, filing and listing fees, printing expenses, fees and disbursements of counsel for the Recipient, “blue sky” fees and expenses, expenses incurred in connection with any “road show”, the reasonable fees and disbursements of Holders’ Counsel, and expenses of the Recipient’s independent accountants in connection with any regular or special reviews or audits incident to or required by any such registration, but shall not include Selling Expenses.

(k) “Special Registration” means the registration of (A) equity securities and/or options or other rights in respect thereof solely registered on Form S-4 or Form S-8 (or successor form) or (B) shares of equity securities and/or options or other rights in respect thereof to be offered to directors, members of management, employees, consultants, customers, lenders or vendors of the Recipient or Recipient Subsidiaries or in connection with dividend reinvestment plans.

1.2 Registration.

(a) The Recipient covenants and agrees that as promptly as practicable after the date that the Recipient becomes subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and in any event no later than thirty (30) days thereafter), the Recipient shall prepare and file with the SEC (or the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) a Shelf Registration Statement covering all Registrable Securities (or otherwise designate an existing shelf registration on an appropriate form under Rule 415 under the Securities Act (a “Shelf Registration Statement”) filed with the SEC (or the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) to cover the Registrable Securities), and, to the extent the Shelf Registration Statement has not theretofore been declared effective or is not automatically effective upon such filing, the Recipient shall use reasonable best efforts to cause such Shelf Registration Statement to be declared or become effective and to keep such Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective and in compliance with the Securities Act (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) and usable for resale of such Registrable Securities for a period from the date of its initial effectiveness until such time as there are no Registrable Securities remaining (including by refiling such Shelf Registration Statement (or a new Shelf Registration Statement) if the initial Shelf Registration Statement expires). So long as the Registrant is a well-known seasoned issuer (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) at the time of filing of the Shelf Registration Statement with the SEC, such Shelf Registration Statement shall be designated by the Recipient as an automatic Shelf Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Recipient is not eligible to file a registration statement on

Form S-3, then the Recipient shall not be obligated to file a Shelf Registration Statement unless and until requested to do so in writing by the Investor.

(b) Any registration pursuant to Section 1.2(a) of this Annex E shall be effected by means of a Shelf Registration Statement on an appropriate form under Rule 415 under the Securities Act (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association). If the Investor or any other Holder intends to distribute any Registrable Securities by means of an underwritten offering it shall promptly so advise the Recipient and the Recipient shall take all reasonable steps to facilitate such distribution, including the actions required pursuant to Section 1.2(d) of this Annex E; provided that the Recipient shall not be required to facilitate an underwritten offering of Registrable Securities unless (i) the expected gross proceeds from such offering exceed $200,000 or (ii) such underwritten offering includes all the outstanding Registrable Securities held by such Holder. The lead underwriters in any such distribution shall be selected by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be distributed.

(c) The Recipient shall not be required to effect a registration (including a resale of Registrable Securities from an effective Shelf Registration Statement) or an underwritten offering pursuant to Section 1.2 of this Annex E: (A) with respect to securities that are not Registrable Securities; or (B) if the Recipient has notified the Investor and all other Holders that in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors, it would be materially detrimental to the Recipient or its securityholders for such registration or underwritten offering to be effected at such time, in which event the Recipient shall have the right to defer such registration or offering for a period of not more than forty-five (45) days after receipt of the request of the Investor or any other Holder; provided that such right to delay a registration or underwritten offering shall be exercised by the Recipient (1) only if the Recipient has generally exercised (or is concurrently exercising) similar black-out rights against holders of similar securities that have registration rights and (2) not more than three times in any twelve (12)-month period and not more than ninety (90) days in the aggregate in any twelve (12)-month period. The Recipient shall notify the Holders of the date of any anticipated termination of any such deferral period prior to such date.

(d) If during any period when an effective Shelf Registration Statement is not available, the Recipient proposes to register any of its equity securities, other than a registration pursuant to Section 1.2(a) of this Annex E or a Special Registration, and the registration form to be filed may be used for the registration or qualification for distribution of Registrable Securities, the Recipient will give prompt written notice to the Investor and all other Holders of its intention to effect such a registration (but in no event less than ten (10) days prior to the anticipated filing date) and will include in such registration all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Recipient has received written requests for inclusion therein within ten (10) business days after the date of the Recipient's notice (a "Piggyback Registration"). Any such person that has made such a written request may withdraw its Registrable Securities from such Piggyback Registration by giving written notice to the Recipient and the managing underwriter, if any, on or before the fifth (5th) business day prior to the planned effective date of such Piggyback Registration. The Recipient may terminate or withdraw any registration under this Section 1.2(d) prior to the effectiveness of such registration, whether or not Investor or any other Holders have elected to include Registrable Securities in such registration.

(e) If the registration referred to in Section 1.2(d) of this Annex E is proposed to be underwritten, the Recipient will so advise Investor and all other Holders as a part of the written notice given pursuant to Section 1.2(d) of this Annex E. In such event, the right of Investor and all other Holders to registration pursuant to Section 1.2 of this Annex E will be conditioned upon such persons' participation in such underwriting and the inclusion of such person's Registrable Securities in the underwriting if such securities are of the same class of securities as the securities to be offered in the underwritten offering, and each such person will (together with the Recipient and the other persons distributing their securities through such underwriting) enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form with the underwriter or underwriters selected for such underwriting by the Recipient; provided that the Investor (as opposed to other Holders) shall not be required to indemnify any person in connection with any registration. If any participating person disapproves of the terms of the underwriting, such person may elect to withdraw therefrom by written notice to the Recipient, the managing underwriters and the Investor (if the Investor is participating in the underwriting).

(f) If either (x) the Recipient grants "piggyback" registration rights to one or more third parties to include their securities in an underwritten offering under the Shelf Registration Statement pursuant to Section 1.2(b) of this Annex E or (y) a Piggyback Registration under Section 1.2(d) of this Annex E relates to an underwritten offering on behalf of the Recipient, and in either case the managing underwriters advise the Recipient that in their reasonable opinion the number of securities requested to be included in such offering exceeds the number which can be sold without adversely affecting the marketability of such offering (including an adverse effect on the per share offering price), the Recipient will include in such offering only such number of securities that in the reasonable opinion of such managing underwriters can be sold without adversely affecting the marketability of the offering (including an adverse effect on the per share offering price), which securities will be so included in the following order of priority: (A) first, in the case of a Piggyback Registration under Section 1.2(d) of this Annex E, the securities the Recipient proposes to sell, (B) then the Registrable Securities of the Investor and all other Holders who have requested inclusion of Registrable Securities pursuant to Section 1.2(b) or Section 1.2(d) of this Annex E, as applicable, pro rata on the basis of the aggregate number of such securities or shares owned by each such person and (C) lastly, any other securities of the Recipient that have been requested to be so included, subject to the terms of this Agreement; provided, however, that if the Recipient has, prior to the Signing Date, entered into an agreement with respect to its securities that is inconsistent with the order of priority contemplated hereby then it shall apply the order of priority in such conflicting agreement to the extent that this Annex E would otherwise result in a breach under such agreement.

1.3 Expenses of Registration. All Registration Expenses incurred in connection with any registration, qualification or compliance hereunder shall be borne by the Recipient. All Selling Expenses incurred in connection with any registrations hereunder shall be borne by the holders of the securities so registered pro rata on the basis of the aggregate offering or sale price of the securities so registered.

1.4 Obligations of the Recipient. The Recipient shall use its reasonable best efforts, for so long as there are Registrable Securities outstanding, to take such actions as are under its control to not become an ineligible issuer (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) and to remain a well-known seasoned issuer (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) if it has such status on the Signing Date or becomes eligible for such status thereafter. In addition, whenever required to effect the registration of any Registrable Securities or facilitate the distribution of Registrable Securities pursuant to an effective Shelf Registration Statement, the Recipient shall, as expeditiously as reasonably practicable:

(a) Prepare and file with the SEC (or the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment with respect to a proposed offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to an effective registration statement, subject to Section 1.4 of this Annex E, keep such registration statement effective and keep such prospectus supplement current until the securities described therein are no longer Registrable Securities. The plan of distribution included in such registration statement shall include, among other things, an underwritten offering, ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers, block trades, privately negotiated transactions, the writing or settlement of options or other derivative transactions and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law, and any combination of any such methods of sale.

(b) Prepare and file with the SEC (or the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) such amendments and supplements to the applicable registration statement and the prospectus or prospectus supplement used in connection with such registration statement as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement.

(c) Furnish to the Holders and any underwriters such number of copies of the applicable registration statement and each such amendment and supplement thereto (including in each case all exhibits) and of a prospectus, including a preliminary prospectus, in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association), and such other documents as they may reasonably request in order to facilitate the disposition of Registrable Securities owned or to be distributed by them.

(d) Use its reasonable best efforts to register and qualify the securities covered by such registration statement under such other securities or “blue sky” laws of such jurisdictions as shall be reasonably requested by the Holders or any managing underwriter(s), to keep such registration or qualification in effect for so long as such registration statement remains in effect, and to take any other action which may be reasonably necessary to enable such seller to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the securities owned by such Holder; provided that the Recipient shall not be required in connection therewith or as a condition thereto to qualify to do business or to file a general consent to service of process in any such states or jurisdictions.

(e) Notify each Holder of Registrable Securities at any time when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) of the happening of any event as a result of which the applicable prospectus, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances then existing.

(f) Give written notice to the Holders:

(i) when any registration statement or any amendment thereto has been filed with the SEC (or Part 16, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) (except for any amendment effected by the filing of a document with the SEC pursuant to the Exchange Act (or with the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association)) and when such registration statement or any post-effective amendment thereto has become effective;

(ii) of any request by the SEC (or the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) for amendments or supplements to any registration statement or the prospectus included therein or for additional information;

(iii) of the issuance by the SEC (or the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of any registration statement or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose;

(iv) of the receipt by the Recipient or its legal counsel of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the applicable Registrable Securities for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose;

(v) of the happening of any event that requires the Recipient to make changes in any effective registration statement or the prospectus related to the registration statement in order to make the statements therein not misleading (which notice shall be accompanied by an instruction to suspend the use of the prospectus until the requisite changes have been made); and

(vi) if at any time the representations and warranties of the Recipient contained in any underwriting agreement contemplated by Section 1.4(j) of this Annex E cease to be true and correct.

(g) Use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the issuance or obtain the withdrawal of any order suspending the effectiveness of any registration statement referred to in Section 1.4(f)(iii) of this Annex E at the earliest practicable time.

(h) Upon the occurrence of any event contemplated by Section 1.4(e) or 1.4(f)(v) of this Annex E, promptly prepare a post-effective amendment to such registration statement or a supplement to the related prospectus or file any other required document so that, as thereafter delivered to the Holders and any underwriters, the prospectus will not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. If the Recipient notifies the Holders in accordance with Section 1.4(f)(v) of this Annex E to suspend the use of the prospectus until the requisite changes to the prospectus have been made, then the Holders and any underwriters shall suspend use of such prospectus and use their reasonable best efforts to return to the Recipient all copies of such prospectus (at the Recipient's expense) other than permanent file copies then in such Holders' or underwriters' possession. The total number of days that any such suspension may be in effect in any twelve (12)-month period shall not exceed ninety (90) days. The Recipient shall notify the Holders of the date of any anticipated termination of any such suspension period prior to such date.

(i) Use reasonable best efforts to procure the cooperation of the Recipient's transfer agent in settling any offering or sale of Registrable Securities, including with respect to the transfer of physical stock certificates into book-entry form in accordance with any procedures reasonably requested by the Holders or any managing underwriter(s).

(j) If an underwritten offering is requested pursuant to Section 1.2(b) of this Annex E, enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form, scope and substance and take all such other actions reasonably requested by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities being sold in connection therewith or by the managing underwriter(s), if any, to expedite or facilitate the underwritten disposition of such Registrable Securities, and in connection therewith in any underwritten offering (including making members of management and executives of the Recipient available to participate in "road shows", similar sales events and other marketing activities), (A) make such representations and warranties to the Holders that are selling stockholders and the managing underwriter(s), if any, with respect to the business of the Recipient and its subsidiaries, and the Shelf Registration Statement, prospectus and documents, if any, incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference therein, in each case, in customary form, substance and scope, and, if true, confirm the same if and when requested, (B) use its reasonable best efforts to furnish the underwriters with opinions and "10b-5" letters of counsel to the Recipient, addressed to the managing underwriter(s), if any, covering the matters customarily covered in such opinions and letters requested in underwritten offerings, (C) use its reasonable best efforts to obtain "cold comfort" letters from the independent certified public accountants of the Recipient (and, if necessary, any other independent certified public accountants of any business acquired by the Recipient for which financial statements and financial data are included in the Shelf Registration Statement) who have certified the financial statements included in such Shelf Registration Statement, addressed to each of the managing underwriter(s), if any, such letters to be in customary form and covering matters of the type customarily covered in "cold comfort" letters, (D) if an underwriting agreement is entered into, the same shall contain indemnification provisions and procedures customary in underwritten offerings (provided that the Investor shall not be obligated to provide any indemnity), and (E) deliver such documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities being sold in connection therewith, their counsel and the managing underwriter(s), if any, to evidence the continued validity of the representations and warranties made pursuant to clause (A) above and to evidence compliance with any customary conditions contained in the underwriting agreement or other agreement entered into by the Recipient.

(k) Make available for inspection by a representative of Holders that are selling stockholders, the managing underwriter(s), if any, and any attorneys or accountants retained by such Holders or managing underwriter(s), at the offices where normally kept, during reasonable business hours, financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Recipient, and cause the officers, directors and employees of the Recipient to supply all information in each case reasonably requested (and of the type customarily provided in connection with due diligence conducted in connection with a registered public offering of securities) by any such representative, managing underwriter(s), attorney or accountant in connection with such Shelf Registration Statement.

(l) Use reasonable best efforts to cause all such Registrable Securities to be listed on each national securities exchange on which similar securities issued by the Recipient are then listed or, if no similar securities issued by the Recipient are then listed on any national securities exchange, use its reasonable best efforts to cause all such Registrable Securities to be listed on such securities exchange as the Investor may designate.

(m) If requested by Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities being registered and/or sold in connection therewith, or the managing underwriter(s), if any, promptly include in a prospectus supplement or amendment such information as the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities being registered and/or sold in connection therewith or managing underwriter(s), if any, may reasonably request in order to permit the intended method of distribution of such securities and make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or such amendment as soon as practicable after the Recipient has received such request.

(n) Timely provide to its security holders earning statements satisfying the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 thereunder.

1.5 Suspension of Sales. Upon receipt of written notice from the Recipient that a registration statement, prospectus or prospectus supplement contains or may contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omits or may omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading or that circumstances exist that make inadvisable use of such registration statement, prospectus or prospectus supplement, the Investor and each Holder of Registrable Securities shall forthwith discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities until the Investor and/or Holder has received copies of a supplemented or amended prospectus or prospectus supplement, or until the Investor and/or such Holder is advised in writing by the Recipient that the use of the prospectus and, if applicable, prospectus supplement may be resumed, and, if so directed by the Recipient, the Investor and/or such Holder shall deliver to the Recipient (at the Recipient's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies then in the Investor and/or such Holder's possession, of the prospectus and, if applicable, prospectus supplement covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. The total number of days that any such suspension may be in effect in any twelve (12)-month period shall not exceed ninety (90) days. The Recipient shall notify the Investor and the Holders prior to the anticipated termination of any such suspension period of the date of such anticipated termination.

1.6 Termination of Registration Rights. A Holder's registration rights as to any securities held by such Holder (and its Affiliates, partners, members and former members) shall not be available unless such securities are Registrable Securities.

1.7 Furnishing Information.

(a) Neither the Investor nor any Holder shall use any free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405) in connection with the sale of Registrable Securities without the prior written consent of the Recipient.

(b) It shall be a condition precedent to the obligations of the Recipient to take any action pursuant to Section 1.4 of this Annex E that Investor and/or the selling Holders and the underwriters, if any, shall furnish to the Recipient such information regarding themselves, the Registrable Securities held by them and the intended method of disposition of such securities as shall be required to effect the registered offering of their Registrable Securities.

1.8 Indemnification.

(a) The Recipient agrees to indemnify each Holder and, if a Holder is a person other than an individual, such Holder's officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and Affiliates, and each person, if any, that controls a Holder within the meaning of the Securities Act (each, an "Indemnitee"), against any and all losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements of attorneys and other professionals incurred in connection with investigating, defending, settling, compromising or paying any such losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs and expenses), joint or several, arising out of or based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in any registration statement, including any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein or any amendments or supplements thereto or any documents incorporated therein by reference or contained in any free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405) prepared by the Recipient or authorized by it in writing for use by such Holder (or any amendment or supplement thereto); or any omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, that the Recipient shall not be liable to such Indemnitee in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability (or action or proceeding in respect thereof) or expense arises out of or is based upon (A) an untrue statement or omission made in such registration statement, including any such preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein or any such amendments or supplements thereto or contained in any free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405) prepared by the Recipient or authorized by it in writing for use by such Holder (or any amendment or supplement thereto), in reliance upon and in conformity with information regarding such Indemnitee or its plan of distribution or ownership interests which was furnished in writing to the Recipient by such Indemnitee for use in connection with such registration statement, including any such preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein or any such amendments or supplements thereto, or (B) offers or sales effected by or on behalf of such Indemnitee "by means of" (as defined in Rule 159A) a "free writing prospectus" (as defined in Rule 405) that was not authorized in writing by the Recipient.

(b) If the indemnification provided for in Section 1.8(a) of this Annex E is unavailable to an Indemnitee with respect to any losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs or expenses referred to therein or is insufficient to hold the Indemnitee harmless as contemplated therein, then the Recipient, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnitee, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnitee as a result of such losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs or expenses in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Indemnitee, on the one hand, and the Recipient, on the other hand, in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such losses, claims, damages, actions, liabilities, costs or expenses as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the Recipient, on the one hand, and of the Indemnitee, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other factors, whether the untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Recipient or by the Indemnitee and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission; the Recipient and each Holder agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 1.8(b) of this Annex E were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in Section 1.8(a) of this Annex E. No Indemnitee guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from the Recipient if the Recipient was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

1.9 Assignment of Registration Rights. The rights of the Investor to registration of Registrable Securities pursuant to Section 1.2 of this Annex E may be assigned by the Investor to a transferee or assignee of Registrable Securities; provided, however, the transferor shall, within ten (10) days after such transfer, furnish to the Recipient written notice of the name and address of such transferee or assignee and the number and type of Registrable Securities that are being assigned.

1.10 Clear Market. With respect to any underwritten offering of Registrable Securities by the Investor or other Holders pursuant to this Annex E, the Recipient agrees not to effect (other than pursuant to such registration or pursuant to a Special Registration) any public sale or distribution, or to file any Shelf Registration Statement (other than such registration or a Special Registration) covering any preferred stock of the Recipient or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for preferred stock of the Recipient, during the period not to exceed ten (10) days prior and sixty (60) days following the effective date of such offering or such longer period up to ninety (90) days as may be requested by the managing underwriter for such underwritten offering. The Recipient also agrees to cause such of its directors and senior executive officers to execute and deliver customary lock-up agreements in such form and for such time period up to ninety (90) days as may be requested by the managing underwriter.

1.11 Forfeiture of Rights. At any time, any holder of Registrable Securities (including any Holder) may elect to forfeit its rights set forth in this Annex E from that date forward; provided, that a Holder forfeiting such rights shall nonetheless be entitled to participate under Section 1.2(d) – (f) of this Annex E in any Pending Underwritten Offering to the same extent that such Holder would have been entitled to if the holder had not withdrawn; and provided, further, that no such forfeiture shall terminate a Holder's rights or obligations under Section 1.7 of this Annex E with respect to any prior registration or Pending Underwritten Offering.

1.12 Specific Performance. The parties hereto acknowledge that there would be no adequate remedy at law if the Recipient fails to perform any of its obligations under this Annex E and that the Investor and the Holders from time to time may be irreparably harmed by any such failure, and accordingly agree that the Investor and such Holders, in addition to any other remedy to which they may be entitled at law or in equity, to the fullest extent permitted and enforceable under applicable law shall be entitled to compel specific performance of the obligations of the Recipient under this Section 1.12 in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Annex E.

1.13 No Inconsistent Agreements. The Recipient shall not, on or after the Signing Date, enter into any agreement with respect to its securities that may impair the rights granted to the Investor and the Holders under this Annex E or that otherwise conflicts with the provisions hereof in any manner that may impair the rights granted to the Investor and the Holders under this Annex E. In the event the Recipient has, prior to the Signing Date, entered into any agreement with respect to its securities that is inconsistent with the rights granted to the Investor and the Holders under this Annex E (including agreements that are inconsistent with the order of priority contemplated by Section 1.2(f) of Annex E) or that may otherwise conflict with the provisions hereof, the Recipient shall use its reasonable best efforts to amend such agreements to ensure they are consistent with the provisions of this Annex E. Any transaction entered into by the Recipient that would reasonably be expected to require the inclusion in a Shelf Registration Statement or any report of the Recipient filed with the SEC (or the OCC, if the Recipient is a national bank or federal savings association) of any separate financial statements pursuant to Rule 3-05 of Regulation S-X or pro forma financial statements pursuant to Article 11 of Regulation S-X shall include provisions requiring the Recipient's counterparty to provide any information necessary to allow the Recipient to comply with its obligation hereunder.

1.14 Certain Offerings by the Investor. An “underwritten” offering or other disposition shall include any distribution of such securities on behalf of the Investor by one or more broker-dealers, an “underwriting agreement” shall include any purchase agreement entered into by such broker-dealers, and any “registration statement” or “prospectus” shall include any offering document approved by the Recipient and used in connection with such distribution.

1.15 Other Cooperation. If the Recipient is a state-chartered bank or savings association and the transfer or sale of the Registrable Securities is subject to any requirements under applicable state law or regulation relating to such transfer or sale, the Recipient will cooperate and assist in complying with such law and regulation in order to provide the Holders with the benefit of rights to effect or participate in broadly distributed underwritten offerings of the Registrable Securities.

1.16 State-Chartered Banks and Savings Associations. If the Recipient is a state-chartered bank or savings association, the Investor and Recipient acknowledge that, as of the Signing Date, the Registrable Securities are securities of an insured depository institution and, accordingly, the transfer of such securities is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and qualification and registration requirements under state law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as the Registrable Securities are subject to the exemption provided by Section 3(a)(2) or Section 3(a)(5) of the Securities Act, the provisions of this Annex E shall, to the extent practicable and where applicable, be interpreted so as to nonetheless provide the Holders with the benefit of rights to effect or participate in broadly distributed underwritten offerings of the Registrable Securities. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, so long as the Registrable Securities are subject to the exemption provided by Section 3(a)(2) or Section 3(a)(5) of the Securities Act: (i) all references to the “SEC” shall be deemed to refer to the Applicable Securities Regulator and all references to provisions of the Securities Act shall be deemed to refer to the corresponding provision of the applicable banking law or regulation, if any; and (ii) if, under such applicable laws, rules and regulations of the Applicable Securities Regulator, no registration statement or correlative filing is required to be made, then (A) any references herein to a “registration statement” or “prospectus” shall be deemed to refer to an offering memorandum or other offering materials with respect to the applicable transfer of Registrable Securities, (B) any references herein to the filing of a registration statement shall be deemed to refer instead to the time when such broadly distributed underwritten offering is proposed to be commenced and (C) any references herein to the preparation and filing of a registration statement or prospectus shall be deemed to refer to the preparation of an offering memorandum or other appropriate offering materials.
