Stipulations and Affirmations

While stipulations are not required from parties submitting a declaration, they may help expedite the Committee's review, and may increase the likelihood of the Committee concluding all action under section 721 with respect to the covered transaction on the basis of the declaration. A party that offers a stipulation acknowledges that the Committee and the President are entitled to rely on such stipulation in determining whether the transaction is a covered real estate transaction for the purposes of section 721 and all authorities thereunder, and waives the right to challenge any such determination. Neither the Committee nor the President is bound by any such stipulation, nor does any such stipulation limit the ability of the Committee or the President to act on any authority provided under section 721 with respect to any covered real estate transaction.

Does any party filing the real estate declaration stipulate that the transaction is a covered real estate transaction? [optional]

Regulation

Provide a description of the basis for this stipulation, for example, with respect to: (i) the party or parties to the transaction that are a foreign person under § 802.221; (ii) the property rights under § 802.233 afforded to the foreign person; (iii) how the real estate that is the subject of the transaction is covered real estate; and (iv) the parties' determination that the transaction is a covered real estate transaction under § 802.212(a), (b), or (c). Please identify the party or parties making this stipulation. [optional]

Regulation

Parties are invited to respond to the following additional questions:

Are all parties to this transaction submitting this declaration jointly? [optional]

Consider classifying your covered transaction as one of the following.

Prior Transactions

Has any party to the transaction been party to another transaction previously notified or submitted to the Committee?

i Please upload documentation required for acceptance of the declaration by the Staff Chairperson, and, as applicable, supplemental attachments to your declaration.

Documentation submitted through the General Upload feature will be accessible by any individual granted permission to access the declaration submission form for the transaction. Should a party to the transaction wish to restrict accessibility of any uploaded documentation, such party may submit such documentation through the Restricted Document feature. Parties may also password protect such documents and relay the document password to Treasury separately. To access the template for a PII upload click here. For frequently asked document upload questions click here. Personal Identifier Information must be submitted via Restricted Upload only.

Under § 802.402, a party or parties submitting a declaration of a transaction under § 802.401 shall provide certain additional materials, which may be uploaded below. Please refer to the regulations for a description of information required to be included in your submission. Parties are encouraged to review the regulatory provisions listed below:

- (c) (2) (v) A copy of the definitive documentation of the transaction, such as a purchase, lease, or concession agreement, or if none exists, the document establishing the material terms of the transaction, which in the context of a transaction involving a covered port, must be signed and dated.
- (c) (7) A complete pre-transaction organizational chart (and post-transaction, if different) including, information that identifies the name, principal place of business, place of incorporation or other legal organization (for entities); nationality (for individuals); and ownership percentage (expressed in terms of both voting and economic interest, if different) for each of the following:
 - The immediate parent, the ultimate parent, and each intermediate parent, if any, of each foreign person that is a party to the transaction;
 - Where the ultimate parent is a private company, the ultimate owner(s) of such parent; and
 - Where the ultimate parent is a public company, any shareholder with an interest of greater than five percent in such parent.
- (d) Each party submitting a declaration shall provide a certification of the information contained in the declaration consistent with § 802.202. A sample certification may be found on the Committee's section of the Department of the Treasury website.
