Executive Summary [optional]

Provide a summary of the transaction, including a statement of purpose and nature of the transaction; and whether the acquisition is by merger, consolidation, the purchase of voting interest, or otherwise.

 Regulation

Summarize the transaction scope within the United States.

 Regulation

Summarize the transaction scope outside of the United States.

 Regulation

If the transaction is structured as an acquisition of assets please provide a detailed description of the assets. [optional]

 Regulation

Approximate value of assets being acquired in U.S. dollars [optional]

 Regulation

Total transaction value in U.S. dollars, as determined under § 800.1103

 Regulation

If different than the value of the transaction, provide a good faith approximation of the net value of the interest acquired in the U.S. business in U.S. dollars, as of the date of the notice. [optional]

 Regulation

The parties' assessment of the fee in U.S. dollars due under § 800.1101. Regulation

Describe how the transaction value and the applicable fee were calculated. Regulation

Has the transaction already closed? Regulation

Provide the status of the transaction, including the actual or expected completion date.

Will the foreign person acquire any of the following in the U.S. business?

Access to any material nonpublic technical information in the possession of the U.S. business. If yes, provide a brief explanation of the type of access and type of information.

Regulation

Membership, observer rights, or nomination rights as set forth in § 800.211(b)(2). If yes, provide a description of such rights and a statement as to the composition of the board both before and after the completion date of the transaction.

Regulation

Any involvement, other than through voting of shares, in substantive decisionmaking of the U.S. business regarding covered investment critical infrastructure, critical technologies, or sensitive personal data as set forth in § 800.211(b)(3). If yes, provide a brief explanation of the nature and extent of involvement.

Regulation

Opinions and Stipulations

Provide the foreign person's opinion as to whether the transaction has resulted or could result in a covered control transaction or covered investment and the reasons for its view, focusing in particular on any powers (e.g., by virtue of a shareholders agreement, contract, statute, or regulation) that the foreign person will have with regard to the U.S. business, and how those powers can or will be exercised, or any other access, rights, or involvement the foreign person will have in a U.S. business with respect to critical technologies, covered investment critical infrastructure, or sensitive personal data.

 Regulation

i While stipulations are not required from parties submitting a voluntary notice, they may help expedite the Committee's review, and may increase the likelihood of the Committee concluding all action under section 721 with respect to the covered transaction on the basis of the voluntary notice. A party that offers a stipulation acknowledges that the Committee and the President are entitled to rely on such stipulation in determining whether the transaction is a covered transaction, a foreign government-controlled transaction, and/or subject to mandatory declaration or notice for the purposes of section 721 and all authorities thereunder, and waives the right to challenge any such determination. Neither the Committee nor the President is bound by any such stipulation, nor does any such stipulation limit the ability of the Committee or the President to act on any authority provided under section 721 with respect to any covered transaction.

Does any party filing the notice stipulate that the transaction is a covered transaction? [optional]

 Regulation

Provide a detailed description of the basis for this stipulation, for example, with respect to: (i) how one or more parties to the transaction is a foreign person under § 800.224; (ii) how the entity constitutes a U.S. business under § 800.252, including a description of how such U.S. business is engaged in interstate commerce in the United States, and, if relevant, how such U.S. business constitutes a TID U.S. business under § 800.248; and (iii) the parties' determination that the notified transaction is a covered transaction under §§ 800.213(a), (b), (c), or (d). [optional]

 Regulation

Does any party filing the notice stipulate that the transaction is a foreign government-controlled transaction? [optional]

 Regulation

Provide a detailed description for the basis of this stipulation, including, but is not limited to, discussion of all relevant information responsive to §§ 800.502(c)(5)(iii) through (v). [optional]

 Regulation

Parties are invited to respond to the following additional question:

Consider classifying your covered transaction as one of the following. [optional]

Document Uploads

Please upload documentation required for acceptance of the voluntary notice by the Staff Chairperson, and, as applicable, any supplemental attachments you wish to file with your notice.

Documentation submitted through the General Upload feature will be accessible by any individual granted permission to access the notice submission form for the transaction. Should a party to the transaction wish to restrict accessibility of any uploaded documentation, such party may submit such documentation through the Restricted Document feature. Parties may also password protect such documents and relay the document password to Treasury separately. To access the template for a PII upload click here. For frequently asked document upload questions click here. Personal Identifier Information must be submitted via Restricted Upload only.

Under § 800.502, a party or parties filing a voluntary notice of a transaction under § 800.501 shall provide certain additional materials, which may be uploaded below. Please refer to the regulations for a description of information required to be included in your submission. Parties are encouraged to review the regulatory provisions listed below:

- (c) (1) (x) A copy of any partnership agreements, integration agreements, or other side agreements relating to the transaction;
- (c) (1) (xi) (B) ... if so, ... a copy of the document(s) setting forth the post-acquisition governance provisions (e.g., quorum requirements, special rights) for the board of directors or other body;
- (c) (3) (viii) A description and copy of the cyber security plan, if any, that will be used to protect against cyber attacks on the operation, design, and development of the U.S. business's services, networks, systems, data storage (including the collection or maintenance of sensitive personal data), and facilities;
- (c) (3) (xi) (F) ... a copy of any notice provided to customers regarding the use and transfer of sensitive personal data;
- (c) (5) (v) Any formal or informal arrangements among foreign persons that hold an ownership interest in the foreign person that is a party to the transaction or between such foreign person and other foreign persons to act in concert on particular matters affecting the U.S. business that is the subject of the transaction, and provide a copy of any documents that establish those rights or describe those arrangements;
- (c) (5) (vi) For each member of the board of directors or equivalent governing body ... of the acquiring foreign person engaged in the transaction and its immediate, intermediate, and ultimate parents, and for any individual having an ownership interest of five percent or more in the acquiring foreign person engaged in the transaction and in the foreign person's ultimate parent, the following information:
 - (c) (5) (vi) (A) A curriculum vitae or similar professional synopsis, provided as part of the main notice, and
 - (c) (5) (vi) (B) ... "personal identifier information," which, for privacy reasons, and to ensure limited distribution, shall be set forth in a separate document, not in the main notice

- (g) Persons filing a voluntary notice shall, with respect to the foreign person that is a party to the transaction, its immediate parent, the U.S. business that is the subject of the transaction, and each entity of which the foreign person is a parent, append to the voluntary notice the most recent annual report of each such entity...
- (i) Persons filing a voluntary notice shall include a copy of the most recent asset or stock purchase agreement or other document establishing the agreed terms of the transaction.
- (j) (1) Complete organizational charts, both pre- and post-transaction, including information that identifies the name, principal place of business, and place of incorporation or other legal organization (for entities); nationality (for individuals); and ownership percentage (expressed in terms of both voting and economic interest, if different) for each of the following:
 - (i) (1) (i) The immediate parent, the ultimate parent, and each intermediate parent, if any, of each foreign person that is a party to the transaction;
 - (i) (1) (ii) Where the ultimate parent is a private company, the ultimate owner(s) of such parent;
 - (i) (1) (iii) Where the ultimate parent is a public company, any shareholders with an interest of greater than five percent in such parent; and
 - (i) (1) (iv) The U.S. business that is the subject of the transaction, both before and after the completion of the transaction
- (l) Each party filing a voluntary notice shall provide a certification of the notice consistent with § 800.204. A sample certification may be found on the Committee's section of the Department of the Treasury website.
- (n) Parties filing a voluntary notice shall include with the notice a list identifying each document provided as part of the notice, including all documents provided as attachments or exhibits to the narrative response.
