- Your previous card was issued but never delivered
- Your card was incorrect because of a Department of Homeland Security (DHS) error

Refund Policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

If you are 14 years old and your card will expire after your 16th birthday, you only have to pay the $85 biometrics fee.

Filing online

Submitting your form online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.

Documents you may need

We will automatically determine which documents you should provide us as you fill out your application.

After you submit your applicationTrack your case online

The documents you need will depend on your current immigration status and the reason you are requesting a visa. After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign in to your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

Respond to requests for information

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

Provide your biometrics

A few weeks after you submit your application, we will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature.

NOTE: If you are temporarily outside of the United States due to U.S. military or government orders and you are required to include a biometrics service fee with your application, please also include a properly completed Form FD-258 (fingerprint card) and a passport-style photo with your application. (See the Part 2. Application Type, Reason for Application, Section A. or Section B. of the Form I-90 Instructions for further information of who must include a biometric services fee.)

Receive your card

Once your application is approved, we will mail you your new Green Card. If your card cannot be delivered to your mailing address, we will hold it for up to 1 year before we destroy it. You can request that we resend your card by filing another application and indicating that your card was issued but never received.

Completing your form online

Complete the Getting Started section first You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.

Provide as many responses as you can You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form.

We will automatically save your responses We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on the form.

How to continue filling out your form After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.
