

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY
CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINT

The purpose of this document is to assist you in filing a civil rights/civil liberties complaint with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL) regarding DHS programs and activities. This document is not intended to be used for complaints about employment with DHS. You are not required to use this document to file a complaint; a letter with the same information is sufficient. However, if you file a complaint by letter, you should include the same information that is requested in this document. In general, providing as much information as possible to CRCL assists with investigating your allegations. However, none of the fields on the form is required, and CRCL will review whatever information you provide.

CRCL Mission:

The DHS Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL) supports the Department of Homeland Security as it secures the nation while preserving individual liberty, fairness, and equality under the law. We investigate claims of civil rights and civil liberties abuses, to help DHS improve protections and programs.

Do you have a DHS civil rights or civil liberties complaint? If you believe that DHS personnel or a DHS program or activity has violated your rights, we want to hear from you. Fill out this document, or write us an email or letter.

This document is available in other languages at www.dhs.gov/file-civil-rights-complaint. Complaints are accepted in languages other than English. If you do not speak or write English, CRCL has access to interpreters and translators and can communicate with you in any language.

In connection with a DHS program, activity, or policy, have you experienced:

- Discrimination based on your race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability?
(Note: do not use this form to make a complaint about employment discrimination; see www.dhs.gov/filing-equal-employment-opportunity-eeo-complaint)
- Denial of meaningful access to DHS or DHS-supported programs, activities, or services due to limited English proficiency?
- Violation of your rights while in immigration detention or as a subject of immigration enforcement?
- Discrimination or inappropriate questioning related to entry into the United States?
- Violation of your right to due process, such as your right to timely notice of charges or access to your lawyer?
- Violation of the Violence Against Women Act's confidentiality requirements or immigration status-related confidentiality requirements?
- Physical abuse or any other type of abuse inflicted upon you?
- Any other civil rights or civil liberties violation related to a DHS program or activity, including discrimination by an organization or program that receives financial assistance from DHS?

Notes on Confidentiality and Anonymity:

- A) You may remain anonymous by not filling in your name below. However, CRCL may not be able to investigate your complaint unless you provide enough information to conduct an investigation.
- B) Disclosure of the information you provide, including your identity, is on a "need-to-know" basis, and is discussed in the Privacy Statement at the end of this document. IF YOU CHECK THE BOX BELOW, WE WILL NOT DISCLOSE YOUR IDENTITY TO OTHER OFFICES, IN OR OUT OF DHS (unless it is necessary for investigation of criminal misconduct). Note, however, that checking this box will in many situations make it very difficult or impossible for us to investigate the allegations you raise.

I do NOT want CRCL to disclose my name to other offices, and understand this decision will often make it impossible for an investigation to take place.

Note Prohibition Against Retaliation:

Federal law forbids retaliation or reprisal by any Federal employee against a person who makes a complaint or discloses information to CRCL. If you believe that you or someone else is a victim of such a reprisal, please contact CRCL immediately by email at CRCLCompliance@hq.dhs.gov or by phone at 866-644-8369, 866-644-8361 (TTY).

Privacy Act Statement

Authority: 6 U.S.C. § 345 and 42 U.S.C. § 2000ee-1 authorizes the collection of this information.

Purpose: The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) will use this information to review and investigate complaints and information from the public about possible violations of civil rights and/or civil liberties relating to DHS employees, programs, or activities.

Routine Uses: This information may be disclosed to and used by personnel and contractors within DHS who have a need to know the information in order to review your complaint. The DHS Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL) may also share your information as necessary with appropriate government agencies outside of DHS or with non-government entities to address your complaint, or pursuant to its published Department of Homeland Security/ALL-029 Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Records System of Records.

Disclosure: Furnishing this information to CRCL is voluntary; however, failure to furnish the requested information may delay or prevent CRCL from adequately reviewing and investigating your complaint. If necessary, CRCL may also request additional information from you in order to determine the appropriate manner to address your concerns.

To learn more about the Privacy Act, go to www.dhs.gov/privacy.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The public reporting burden to complete this information collection is estimated at 1 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and the completing and reviewing the collected information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number and expiration date. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to the DHS Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, CRCLCompliance@hq.dhs.gov, ATTN: PRA 1601-NEW.

You may use the following pages to include additional information about your complaint if needed. Please specify which number(s) above you are continuing.
