General Instructions

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) provides forms free of charge through the USCIS website. To view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. If you do not have internet access, you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283 (TTY 1-800-767-1833) and ask that we mail a form to you. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish.

Signature. Each application must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this application, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person. If the application is not signed or if the requisite signature on the application is not valid, USCIS will reject the application. See 8 CFR 103.2(a)(7)(ii)(A). If USCIS accepts an application for adjudication and determines that it has a deficient signature, USCIS will deny the application.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten ink signature.

Filing Fee. Each application must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee. (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documents listed in the Specific Instructions sections of these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment or, if you are currently overseas, instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to set up an appointment. USCIS may use your biometrics to obtain the criminal history records of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), for identity verification, to determine eligibility, to create immigration documents (for example, Permanent Resident Card, Employment Authorization Document), or any purpose authorized by the Immigration and Nationality Act. You may obtain a copy of your own FBI record using the procedures outlined at 28 CFR 16.32. For information, please visit: <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks>. For Privacy Act information, please visit <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/compact-council/privacy-act-statement>.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application or petition. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS, your original documents may be immediately destroyed after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must include the translator's signature, printed name, the signature date, and the translator's contact information.

How To Fill Out Form I-956F

1. Type or print legibly in black ink.
2. If you need extra space to complete any item within this application, use the space provided in Part 14. Additional Information or attach a separate sheet of paper. Type or print the name of the regional center entity at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers; and sign and date each sheet. If the Form I-956F you are filing is an amendment, also provide the regional center identification number at the top of each page.

If your answer to a question which requires a numeric response is zero or none, type or print "None," unless otherwise directed.
4. USCIS Online Account Number. Providing the applicant's unique USCIS Online Account Number (OAN) helps them manage their online account. Applicants have an Online Account Number if they previously filed an application, petition, or request online or by mail and were issued a receipt number that begins with IOE. If the applicant filed a form online, they can find their OAN in their USCIS Online Account profile. If they mailed their form, they can find their OAN at the top of the USCIS Account Access Notice we sent them. The OAN is not the same as an A-Number. If the applicant does not have a receipt number beginning with IOE, they do not have an OAN.

What Evidence Must You Submit?

You must submit all evidence requested in these Instructions with your application, including the items listed below. If you fail to submit all of the initial required evidence with your application, USCIS may reject or deny your application for failure to submit requested evidence or supporting documents in accordance with 8 CFR section 103.2(b)(1) and these Instructions.

Provide the following evidence for application for approval of an NCE Project and, if filing an amendment to a previously approved project, please provide evidence from the following list which demonstrates the amendment.

For each project application, the regional center must provide:

1. A comprehensive business plan for a specific capital investment project;
2. A credible economic analysis regarding estimated job creation that is based upon economically and statistically valid and transparent methodologies;
3. Any documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. 77a et seq.) or with the securities regulator of any state, as required by law;
4. All investment and offering documents, including subscription, investment, partnership, and operating agreements, private placement memoranda, term sheets, biographies of management, officers, directors, and any person with similar responsibilities, the description of the business plan, and marketing materials used in connection with the offering; and
5. A description of the policies and procedures, such as those related to internal and external due diligence, reasonably designed to cause the regional center and any issuer of securities to be offered to investors in connection with the capital investment project, to comply with the securities laws of the United States and the applicable states in connection with the offer, purchase, or sale of securities.

What Evidence Should You Submit?

For each project application, the regional center should submit the following evidence:

1. Identifying the form of the EB-5 investment (for example, equity stake, loan, or some other financial arrangement) from the NCE into the JCE, if any;

3. If relying on a high unemployment designation, evidence that the enterprise has created or will create employment in a targeted employment area. An area of high unemployment includes the census tract(s) where the NCE is principally doing business and may include any directly adjacent census tracts if the weighted unemployment average of the area is at least 150 percent of the national average rate. An applicant must submit a listing of the census tract or contiguous census tracts as well as any directly adjacent census tracts used in the calculation to determine the area is experiencing a weighted unemployment average rate of at least 150% of the national average rate. The calculation should use reliable and verifiable data that is internally consistent to calculate the unemployment rate. For example, if you used data from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey (ACS) to determine the unemployment rate for the requested area, you should also rely on ACS data to determine the national unemployment rate to which the area identified is compared.

What Is The Filing Fee?

The filing fee for Form I-956F is $17,795.

USCIS will reject your Form I-956F if you submit the incorrect fee.

NOTE: Each person involved with the NCE and affiliated-JCE must complete and submit Form I-956H, Bona Fides of Persons Involved with Regional Center Program, and pay the required biometric services fee. Please review the Form I-956H Instructions for more information.

Payments by Check or Money Order

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your check or money order for the Form I-956F filing fee:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the check or money order payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

Notice to Those Paying by Check. If you send USCIS a check, we will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, we will re-submit the payment to the financial institution one time. If the check is returned as unpayable a second time, we will reject your application and charge you a returned check fee.

Payments by Credit Card

If you are filing your application at a USCIS Lockbox facility, you can pay your filing fee using a credit card. Please see Form G-1450, Authorization for Credit Card Transactions, at www.uscis.gov/G-1450, for more information.

NOTE: By completing this transaction, you agree that you have paid for a government service and that the filing fee, biometric services fee, and all related financial transactions are final and not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on an application, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

NOTE: The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

How To Check If the Fees Are Correct

Form I-956F's filing fee is current as of the edition date in the lower left corner of this page. However, because USCIS fees change periodically, you can verify that the fee is correct by following one of the steps below.

1. Visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov, select “FORMS,” and check the appropriate fee; or

2. Visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter to get answers to your questions and connect with a live USCIS representative. If you do not have internet access, you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283 (TTY 1-800-767-1833). The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish.

USCIS will reject your Form I-956F if you submit the incorrect fee or if you attach payment for more than what you are required to pay. In such a case, USCIS will return any filing fees you submitted with your Form I-956F. Form I-956F is not eligible for a fee waiver under 8 CFR 103.7(c).
