TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Stigma trainee survey (FIC)

PURPOSE: In June 2021, Fogarty’s Center for Global Health Studies (CGHS) hosted a short-term training institute that provided U.S. and low- and middle-income country (LMIC) investigators the opportunity to better understand the transdisciplinary nature of stigma research and learn how to apply novel, cross-cutting research methodologies to their work.

The purpose of this request is to collect information that will allow FIC to identify and improve its scientific practices as it relates to cross-cutting training institutes held at CGHS. Trainees will answer questions to help us better understand how we can design or adapt trainings like this in the future.
