Contacting Your Taxpayer Advocate

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is there to help you. The TAS is your voice at the IRS. Their job is to ensure that every taxpayer is treated fairly and that you know and understand your rights.

What can the TAS do for you? They can offer you free help with IRS problems that you can't resolve on your own. They know this process can be confusing, but the worst thing you can do is nothing at all! The TAS can help if you can't resolve your tax problem and:

- Your problem is causing financial difficulties for you, your family, or your business;
- You face (or your business is facing) an immediate threat of adverse action; or
- You've tried repeatedly to contact the IRS but no one has responded, or the IRS hasn't responded by the date promised.

If you qualify for their help, you'll be assigned to one advocate who'll be with you at every turn and will do everything possible to resolve your problem. Here's why they can help.

- The TAS is an independent organization within the IRS.
- Their advocates know how to work with the IRS.
- Their services are free and tailored to meet your needs.
- They have offices in every state, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

How can you reach them? If you think the TAS can help you, call your local advocate, whose number is in your local directory and at IRS.gov/Advocate, or call them toll free at 877-777-4778.

How else does the TAS help taxpayers? The TAS also works to resolve large-scale, systemic problems that affect many taxpayers. If you know of one of these broad issues, please report it to them by going to IRS.gov/SAMS.

Taxpayer Advocacy Panel (TAP). The TAP listens to taxpayers, identifies taxpayer issues, and makes suggestions for improving IRS services and customer satisfaction. If you have suggestions for improvements, contact the TAP toll free at 888-912-1227 or go to ImproveIRS.org.
