BORROWER DEFENSE TO REPAYMENT

THIRD-PARTY APPLICATION FORM

OMB Number: 1845-0163
Form Under Review
Expiration Date:
XX/XX/XXXX

INSTRUCTIONS

Under the U.S. Department of Education's regulations at 34 C.F.R. § 685.402(c), certain state agencies and legal assistance organizations ("third-party requestors") may submit a request that the Secretary form a group of federal student loan borrowers for borrower defense relief. To request that the Secretary form a group under the borrower defense regulation, qualified third-party requestors must complete this application and include all required documentation.

The most common types of conduct that might make a borrower eligible for loan relief through borrower defense to repayment discharge are substantial misrepresentations made by the school or its representatives during their efforts to recruit a borrower to enroll at the school or to continue their enrollment at the school. To qualify as a substantial misrepresentation, the misrepresentation made by the school must relate to the school's educational program, its financial charges, or the employability of its graduates. These misrepresentations typically take the form of untruthful statements or the concealment of information regarding the likelihood that borrowers would obtain employment and/or earnings outcomes, the likelihood that its credits will be accepted by another school or that it will accept credits from other schools, the cost of the program and/or how a borrower would pay for the program, whether completion of a program qualifies a borrower for a specific license or certification, or the number, availability, and qualifications of instructors.

Additionally, borrowers may qualify for borrower defense to repayment relief if their school engaged in aggressive and deceptive recruitment tactics, made a substantial omission of fact, breached a contract with them, or if they have obtained a favorable judgment against the school. For a complete description of the federal standard for a borrower defense to repayment discharge please see 34 C.F.R. §685.402(c).

The regulation requires that a third-party requestor's application to form a group must be materially complete to be considered by the Secretary. The regulation defines materially complete as including, at a minimum, the following information:

- The identity of the affected group, including:
  - The name of the institution or commonly owned institutions;
  - The campuses or programs which are the subject of your claim;
  - A description of the conduct that forms the basis for your group borrower defense claim;
  - An analysis of why the described conduct should result in an approved group borrower defense claim under the federal standard in § 685.401(b); and
  - The period during which the conduct occurred.
- Evidence beyond sworn borrower statements to support each element of the claim. The evidence must demonstrate that the conduct asserted was pervasive or widely disseminated.
- Names and other identifying information of borrowers in your proposed group to the extent available.
- If you are submitting this request on behalf of a legal assistance organization, your application must also include a certification that the requestor has entered into a legal representation authority with each borrower identified as a member of the group.

Instructions for submitting your application: Submit this completed and signed application to the Borrower Defense Group directly at BDGroupRequest@ed.gov. After the Borrower Defense Group receives your signed application you will be contacted with instructions for how to submit your supporting evidence, analysis, and other documentation.

By completing this application, you are certifying, under penalty of perjury, that all the information provided is true and complete. This means that you could face criminal prosecution under the U.S. Criminal Code and 20 U.S.C. 1097 if you knowingly submit a false statement on your application.

The authorities for collecting the requested information from third-party requestors about borrowers who are part of a group are §§421 et seq., §§451 et seq., and §§461 et seq. of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (HEA) (20 U.S.C. 1071 et seq., 20 U.S.C. 1087a et seq., and 20 U.S.C. 1087aa et seq.).
