Excise Tax Burden Survey

FAQs | Contact Us

What is the Excise Tax Burden Survey?

- This survey is about the time and out-of-pocket costs you spent to file your federal excise tax return(s) and related attachments for Tax Year 2018. These costs are a combination of time spent and out-of-pocket expenses. Please be assured that you will not be asked about income or other financial details.

Who should complete this survey?

- The business that incurred the excise tax and filed Form(s) 720 and related attachments should complete this survey, even if it was prepared by someone else. Feel free to consult with others, but please do not forward this survey to your external service provider.

How was I selected for this survey?

- You were randomly selected from all taxpayers who filed Quarterly Excise Tax Return Form(s) 720 and related attachments for Tax Year 2018.

How will my answers be used?

- Please be assured that your responses will be used for research and aggregate reporting purposes only and will not be used for other non-statistical or non-research purposes such as direct enforcement activities.

Why should I participate?

- While participation is voluntary, information about your excise tax reporting experience will help the IRS reduce taxpayer burden for all taxpayers. We encourage you to take a few minutes of your time to participate. By doing so, you will make sure that businesses like yours are represented.

How long will this survey take?

- This survey should take 10 to 15 minutes to complete, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.

Who can I contact with questions?

- If you have questions about the content of this survey please call Sarah Bennett-Harper at Westat by phone at 855-682-3074 or send an email to IRS-EXTSurvey@westat.com. If you would like to contact someone at the IRS, please email Rizwan Javaid at Rizwan.U.Javaid@irs.gov.

Privacy and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice for Excise Tax Burden Data Collection

The Privacy Act of 1974 states that when we ask you for information, we must first tell you our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if you do not provide it and whether or not you must respond under the law.

Our legal right to ask for this information is 5 U.S.C. 301.

The primary purpose for requesting the information is to analyze the role of taxpayer burden in tax administration. We will also use the information to fulfill the IRS' statutory obligations to the Office of Management and Budget and Congress for information required by the Paperwork Reduction Act, and to provide tax policy analysis support to the Office of Tax Analysis at the Department of the Treasury. We will also use the information provided to better understand taxpayer needs and burden reduction opportunities.

Tax information may be disclosed only as provided by 26 U.S.C. 6103. Providing the information is voluntary. Not providing all or part of the information requested may reduce our ability to address taxpayer concerns regarding paperwork reduction.

OMB No: 1545-2212. This report is authorized under the Paperwork Reduction Act. Data collected will be shared with IRS staff, but your responses will be used for research and aggregate reporting purposes only and will not be used for other non-statistical or non-research purposes such as direct enforcement activities. The information that you provide will be protected to the fullest extent allowable under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 10 to 15 minutes, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Special Services Section, SEW:CAR:MP:T:M:S, Room 6120, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20224.
