Taxpayer Compliance Burden Survey

Frequently Asked Questions

This survey is about your <<YEAR>> federal income tax return

What's this survey about?

The purpose of this survey is to provide the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with accurate estimates of the time and money you, your spouse (if you filed jointly), family members, friends, or other unpaid volunteers spent to correct an issue with your already filed federal income tax return, referred to as a post-filing issue.

Post-filing refers to when the IRS notifies you about an issue with your already filed federal income tax return and ends with the issue being resolved. Post-filing activities may include your or others' interactions with various IRS divisions such as Collection, Examination (Audits), and Appeals.

You won't be asked about specific income or other financial information.

How will my answers be used?

We'll use your responses for research purposes only. Your responses will help us understand the amount of time and money taxpayers spend correcting an issue with an already-filed federal income tax return. Participation is voluntary, but the information you provide will ensure that experiences like yours are represented.

Who should complete this survey?

You or your spouse (if you filed jointly) should complete it. You may need to ask others who helped you resolve your federal income tax return post-filing issue for input.

Should I send this to my tax professional?

No, this survey is about the time and money that you spent, not your tax professional.

How long will this survey take?

This survey should take about 10 to 15 minutes to complete.

Who can I contact with questions or concerns about the survey?

If you have questions about the content of this survey, please contact Willow Burns at Westat at 855-847-2874, or email IRS-TCBSurvey@westat.com. If you would like to contact someone at the IRS, please email Clara Gant at Clara.L.Gant@irs.gov.
