Title: FERC-600, Rules of Practice and Procedure: Complaint Procedures.

OMB Control No.: 1902-0180.

Type of Request: Three-year extension without change of the current information collection.

Abstract: In accordance with 18 CFR 385.206, any person may file a complaint seeking Commission action against any other person alleged to be in violation of “any statute, rule, order, or other law administered by the Commission, or for any other alleged wrong over which the Commission may have jurisdiction.” Regulations at 18 CFR Part 343 provide for additional procedures and information collection requirements for complaints and other filings that pertain to oil pipelines under the Interstate Commerce Act.

Type of Respondents: Any person that files a complaint for Commission review and resolution.

Estimate of Annual Burden: The Commission estimates the annual public reporting burden¹ and cost² for the information collection as shown in the following table:

FERC-600 — Rules of Practice and Procedure: Complaint Procedures
A. Number of Respondents	B. Annual Number of Responses	C. Total Number of Responses (Column A x Column B)	D. Average Burden Hour and Cost per Response	E. Total Annual Burden Hour and Cost (Column C x Column D)	F. Cost per Respondent (Column E ÷ Column A)
62	1	62	160 hrs.; $14,560	9,920 hrs.; $902,720	$14,560

Comments: Comments are invited on: (1) whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden and cost of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information collection; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

² The Commission staff thinks that the average respondent for this collection is similarly situated to the Commission, in terms of salary plus benefits. Based upon the Commission's 2022 average cost for salary plus benefits, the average hourly cost is $91/hour.
