ARMED SECURITY PERSONNEL FIREARMS BACKGROUND CHECK (Continued)Important Notices

1. Purpose of the Form: The information and certification on this form are designed to support a verification that security personnel protecting U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) designated facilities, radioactive material, or other property are not prohibited from receiving, possessing, transporting, or using firearms as part of the performance of their official duties under § 161A of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (AEA), 42 U.S.C. § 2201a. Submission of this form is mandatory for security personnel of license holders who apply to the NRC for Section 161A authority. Failure to submit this form will result in the individual being denied access to firearms as part of their official security duties at NRC-regulated entities.

Evaluation of the information contained in this form will permit the NRC to verify that individuals who are prohibited from possessing or receiving any firearms under Federal or State law do not possess or receive firearms (including enhanced weapons) as part of their current or proposed official duties as security personnel. This determination is required of all security personnel protecting NRC designated facilities, radioactive material, or other property.

2. Background Checks: Section 161A requires that security personnel receiving, possessing, transporting, or using a covered weapon shall be subject to a background check by the Attorney General, based on fingerprints and including a background check under section 103(b) of the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act (Brady Act), Public Law 103-159, 18 U.S.C. § 922(t), to determine whether the person is prohibited from possessing or receiving firearms under Federal or State law. The Brady Act provides for the submission of information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI's) National Instant Criminal Background Check Systems (NICS) to verify that an individual is not prohibited under Federal or State law from possessing or receiving firearms.

3. Prohibited Persons: Generally, 18 U.S.C. § 922 prohibits the shipment, transportation, receipt, or possession in or affecting interstate commerce of firearms by anyone who: (1) has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence; (2) has been convicted of a felony, or any other crime, punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year (this does not include State misdemeanors punishable by imprisonment of two years or less); (3) is a fugitive from justice; (4) is an unlawful user of, or addicted to, marijuana or any depressant, stimulant, or narcotic drug, or any controlled substance; (5) has been adjudicated mentally defective or has been committed to a mental institution; (6) has been discharged from the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions; (7) has renounced his or her U.S. citizenship; (8) is an alien illegally in the United States or a nonimmigrant alien; or (9) is subject to certain restraining orders. Furthermore, § 922 prohibits the shipment, transportation, or receipt of firearms to anyone who is under an indictment or information in any court for a felony, or any other crime, punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year.

Exception 1: A person who has been convicted of a felony, or any other crime, for which the judge could have imprisoned the person for more than one year, or has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence, is not prohibited from receiving, possessing, transporting, importing, or using covered weapons if: (1) under the law of the jurisdiction where the conviction occurred, the person has been pardoned, the conviction has been expunged or set aside, or the person has had certain civil rights (the right to vote, sit on a jury, and hold public office) restored AND (2) the person is not prohibited by the law of jurisdiction where the conviction occurred from receiving or possessing firearms.

A person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence also is not prohibited unless: (1) the individual was represented by a lawyer or gave up the right to a lawyer; and (2) if the person was entitled to a jury, was tried by a jury, or gave up the right to a jury trial.

Exception 2: A nonimmigrant alien is not prohibited from possessing or receiving a covered weapon as part of their official duties at NRC regulated facilities if the alien: (1) meets the exceptions of 18 U.S.C. § 922(y)(2)(B), (y)(2)(C), or (y)(2)(D); or (2) has received a waiver from the Attorney General of the United States (See 18 U.S.C. § 922(y)(3) for additional information on waivers.)

4. Restraining Order: Under 18 U.S.C. § 922, firearms may not be possessed or received by persons subject to a court order that: (1) was issued after a hearing which the person received actual notice of and had an opportunity to participate in; (2) restrains such person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner or child of such intimate partner or person, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the partner or child; and (3)(i) includes a finding that such person represents a credible threat to the physical safety of such intimate partner or child; or (ii) by its terms explicitly prohibits the use, anticipated use, or threatened use of physical force against such intimate partner or child that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury.

5. NICS Responses: The FBI will provide a "proceed," "delayed," or "denied" NICS response and a NICS transaction number to the NRC that will be forwarded to you via your submitting license holders.
