Important Notices

Paperwork Reduction Act and Privacy Act Notices

This notice is given under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 and the Privacy Act of 1974. The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) tell you the following whenever we ask you for information:

- 1) the law which allows us to ask for the information;
- 2) whether that law requires you to give us the information and what, if anything, might happen if you do not give the information to us;
- 3) the reason why the information is requested; and
- 4) the persons, organizations and agencies to which we may release the information without your permission.

The RRB's authority for requesting this information is section 7(b)(6) (45 U.S.C. 231f(b)(6) of the Railroad Retirement Act. The law does not give the RRB power to force you to give us information. However, if you do not provide the information which we ask for, we may not be able to pay benefits to you.

The information which we ask you for is used to determine if you are eligible to receive benefits from the RRB. Some of the information may have an effect on the amount of benefits which we can pay.

Although the information we request is almost never used for any purpose other than the payment of benefits under the RRA, the RRB does have the authority to release information to the individuals, organizations, and/or agencies listed below without your approval:

- 1) An attorney, Congressman's office, labor union or to the Department of State's embassy or consular offices if they claim to be representing you at your request.
- 2) The U.S. Treasury Department or U.S. Postal Service to issue payments and to investigate lost, forged or stolen checks.
- 3) The Social Security Administration to resolve discrepancies between appointed payees.
- 4) The Internal Revenue Service or to State and local taxing authorities for figuring your taxes and for use in audits.
- 5) The Department of Justice for audits and for collecting overpayments owed to the RRB or the Social Security Administration.
- 6) In certain cases information may be released for law enforcement purposes and for court proceedings.

A complete list of the persons, organizations or agencies to which the information you give us may be released is available in any office of the RRB.

We estimate this form takes an average of 18 minutes per response to complete, including the time for reviewing the instructions, obtaining the data, and reviewing the completed form. Federal agencies may not conduct or sponsor, and respondents are not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB number. If you wish, send comments regarding the accuracy of our estimate or any other aspect of this form, including suggestions for reducing completion time, to: Associate Chief Information Officer for Policy and Compliance, Railroad Retirement Board, 844 N.
