Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 226 and 1818 of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow SSA to collect this information. Furnishing this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed for medical insurance and/or hospital insurance.

We will use the information you provide to determine your eligibility for benefits. We may also share the information for the following purposes, called routine uses:

- To Federal, State, or local agencies (or agents on their behalf) for administering income maintenance or health maintenance programs (including programs under the Social Security Act). Such disclosure include, but are not limited to, release of information to:
 - (a) Railroad Retirement Board for administering provision of the Railroad Retirement Act relating to railroad employment; for administering the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act and for administering provisions of the Social Security Act relating to railroad employment;
 - (b) Department of Veterans Affairs for administering 38 U.S.C. 1312, and upon request, for determining eligibility for, or amount of, veterans benefits or verifying other information with respect thereto pursuant to 38 U.S.C. 5106;
 - (c) State welfare departments for administering sections 205(c)(2)(B)(i)(II) and 402(a)(25) of the Social Security Act requiring information about assigned Social Security numbers for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program purposes and for determining a recipient's eligibility under the TANF program; and
 - (d) State agencies for administering the Medicaid program.
- To contractors and other Federal agencies, as necessary, for the purpose of assisting the Social Security Administration (SSA) in the efficient administration of its programs. We will disclose information under the routine use only in situations in which SSA may enter into a contractual or similar agreement with a third party to assist in accomplishing an agency function relating to this system of records.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) 60-0090, entitled Master Beneficiary Record, as published in the Federal Register (FR) on January 11, 2006, at 71 FR 1826. Additional information, and a full listing of all of our SORNs, is available on our website at www.ssa.gov/privacy.

BNI006 – Special Enrollment Period - Dropdown View

If the user answers Yes to “Does one of the listed Special Enrollment types apply to you?” the dropdown will appear. When user expands the dropdown, it will show the list of SEP types they can select from within iClaim.

The screenshot shows the Social Security Administration's iClaim application interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with "Text Size" and "Accessibility Help" options. The main header features the Social Security Administration logo and the text "Social Security The Official Website of the U.S. Social Security Administration". Below this, the page title is "Apply for Benefits" with the OMB No. 0938-1426 Paperwork Reduction Act noted on the right.

The application progress is shown as a series of tabs: "Identification" (checked), "General" (checked), "Other Benefits", "Remarks & Options", and "Review & Sign".

The main content area is titled "Special Enrollment Period Information for Joan Public". It contains the following text:
"You could be eligible for a Special Enrollment Period (SEP) if you didn't sign up for Medicare Part B when you were first eligible."
"Please review the descriptions in the More Info link to see if an SEP may apply to your situation. A technician will reach out to you for additional information if you indicate that a particular SEP may apply to you. More Info"

Below this, there is a question: "Does one of the listed Special Enrollment Period types apply to you?" with radio buttons for "Yes" (selected) and "No".

Underneath, it says: "Please select the Special Enrollment Period that you believe applies to you." followed by a dropdown menu. The dropdown is expanded, showing the following options:
Formerly Incarcerated Individuals
Individuals Impacted by an Emergency or Natural Disaster
International Volunteers
Misrepresentation by Group Health Plan (GHP) or Employer
Other Exceptional Conditions
Termination of Medicaid

On the right side, there is a sidebar with the heading "In this section...". It lists three items with checkmarks: "Health Insurance Information", "Medicaid Information", and "Group Health Plan". Below this is a section titled "Special Enrollment Period" and another section titled "Your privacy is important. For details about our use of your information, we encourage you to read our Privacy Act Statement."

OVS001 - Overall Summary – Special Enrollment Period Information - Electronic Signature Agreement

Electronic Signature Agreement

Congratulations, you're just about ready to complete your application for retirement benefits.

Please read and accept the following statement to finish the application. If you are helping someone apply, then the person filing for benefits must read and accept this agreement by checking the box themselves.

I agree to notify the Social Security Administration promptly if I (or any person for whom I receive benefits) become employed or self-employed while outside the United States, change citizenship, or go (for 30 days or more) to any country other than the residence address I have entered in this application.

I agree to return any payments which are not due.

I understand and agree that by selecting the check box and clicking "Submit Now" below, I am electronically signing my application and the additional forms included in this online submission. I also understand that my electronic signature means that I intend to apply for benefits and have provided the Social Security Administration with accurate information.

I declare under penalty of perjury that I have examined all the information on this online submission and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that anyone who knowingly gives a false or misleading statement about a material fact in this electronic application, or causes someone else to do so, commits a crime and may be sent to prison or may face other penalties, or both.

I agree with the Electronic Signature Agreement above.
