Instructions

You can file a complaint with OFCCP if you think you have been discriminated against in employment, or in applying for employment, by a company doing business with the Federal Government because of your race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, status as a protected veteran, or for asking about, discussing, or disclosing your compensation or that of others. You can also file a complaint if you believe the employer retaliated or otherwise took negative employment action against you because you filed a complaint, opposed acts or practices made unlawful by OFCCP's authorities, or assisted or participated in a compliance evaluation or complaint investigation or if you think a company doing business with the Federal Government is in violation of other OFCCP contractor obligations. You do not need to know with certainty that the employer is a federal contractor or subcontractor to file a complaint. If you have questions or need assistance, contact the OFCCP Help Desk at 1-800-397-6251.

If you do not file a complaint of discrimination within the time limits noted below, you will lose your rights to proceed through OFCCP.
