Claim Selection

(Draft) Select the distilled spirits, wine, or beer entered for consumption during the quarterly period on which you would like to file a claim.

Claim selection help

The claimed amount will be based on:

 the amount of tax you paid to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) on foreign distilled spirits, wine, and/or beer, and

2. any reduced tax rates or tax credits assigned to you by the foreign producer for the year of importation.

Importers of distilled spirits paying tax to CBP at a lower effective tax rate based on eligible wine and/or flavor content should note that amounts claimed cannot exceed the amount of tax paid.

This module will allow you to submit claims for TTB review when the data you filed in CBP's Automated Commercial Environment (ACE) corresponds to a foreign producer assignment made through the TTB system. See [Link to forthcoming Guidance] to learn how data discrepancies can prevent you from submitting a refund claim electronically to TTB.

To view ACE entry and entry summary data filed with CBP, log into the importer's ACE account here [Link to ACE portal or similar] or contact your customs broker. If required information is missing or incorrect in ACE, you will not be able to submit TTB refund claims through his system unless you correct the information filed with CBP.
