Other change: Program Change: On 10/1/2022, FHEO was authorized to investigate alleged violations of the Violence Against Women Act of 2022 (VAWA). FHEO is using the previously OMB-approved Form HUD-903.1 Series to collect intake information needed to verify FHEO's jurisdiction to file & investigate VAWA complaints. Accordingly, FHEO has revised the Form HUD-903.1 Series to add the following VAWA-related text:

PAGE 1, QUESTION 1: Inserted new BOX #8 to read: "Because of, or as a direct result of, you or someone in your household being a survivor of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking (such as having a criminal record, eviction history, or bad credit history), or because you believe another housing right under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) was violated (for example, your landlord did not provide an emergency transfer, you were penalized for calling 9-1-1 or seeking emergency services). VAWA protections apply regardless of sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity." BOX #9 was revised to read: "Because of retaliation, intimidation, or interference related to exercising a fair housing right, or a VAWA right (such as filing a complaint; testifying in a proceeding) or helping others to do so."

PAGE 3, QUESTION 5: FHEO revised the 1st sentence to add: "and/or a violation of your VAWA rights." FHEO added two (2) sentences at line 7: "Denied a right because of or on the basis of being a survivor of domestic violence or sexual assault? Penalized for calling 9-1-1?"
